PREFACE.

At a meeting of the Maryland Historical Society, at their rooms, on December 10, 1888, the CALVERT PAPERS were formally presented to the Society.

An account of the search for, discovery, and acquisition of these papers is given in the following addresses, made by Mr. Albert Ritchie on behalf of the donors, and by the President on behalf of the Society, together with the Report of the Committee on the Calvert Papers, made by Mr. Mendes Cohen; and some remarks on their character, accompanied by the reading of Extracts, were made by Dr. William Hand Browne; and to these have been added a Calendar of the Papers prepared by Mr. John W. M. Lee.

THE CALVERT PAPERS.

ADDRESS OF MR. ALBERT RITCHIE.

Mr. President,—

ON behalf of those who have recently secured possession of a valuable collection of historical papers from an immediate descendant of the Calverts, I am here to-night to perform a most agreeable service.

The papers referred to lie on the table before you, and I am instructed to present them to the Society of which you are the beloved and honored President.

During the supremacy of the Lords Proprietary, they resided, as you know, at their homes abroad, and were represented here by their Governors. They, however, to a large extent, themselves exercised the ample powers which they possessed, and maintained an active participation in the government of the province.

Frequent and full reports of the condition of affairs were from time to time transmitted to them, as were also many important official papers requiring their consideration and action.

Thus, much of our history got upon the other side of the water; some in the original, some in duplicate; the original forming its own part of the record, and that in duplicate serving in some degree to supply the place of original material lost on this side.

This collection was received from the possession of Col. Frederick Henry Harford, of Down Place, near Windsor, the great-grandson of Frederick, the last Lord Baltimore, and embraces all that is positively known still to exist of those papers that were sent over to the Lords Proprietary in the manner stated.

You will remember that in his Calendar Index of 1861, Dr. John Henry Alexander states that in the year 1839 he saw, in the British Museum, two large chests, marked "Calvert Papers," but that, on inquiry made by him many years afterward, all trace of them had disappeared.

The acquisition of the papers in those two chests has been an object of which the members of this Society have never since lost sight. Whether these are they or not, it is impossible yet to say. They may, or may not be. But much as we desire to possess those papers, it is rather to be hoped that the records we now have secured are not the ones referred to by Dr. Alexander, because, if it be determined that they are not, we will then be stimulated by the knowledge that there are other historical treasures in the same line of search still to be looked for and found.

The character of these papers will be told to you more in detail during the evening, but I may say in a word that it is believed that they will prove to be a historical treasure trove such as it has not been the good fortune of any other of the States to find, and that they will add much value to the collections already possessed by this Society. They will enable us to replace some of the lost leaves of the history of our State, to revise others, and to illuminate many more.

Without anticipating what will be better told you by another, I may, in passing, give a suggestion of the contents of these papers by referring to one or two of them.

You know, sir, that the princely grant of lands and waters which comprised the province of Maryland, was given on the condition prescribed in the Charter, that the Lord Proprietary should in every year on Tuesday in Easter week yield and pay therefor the rental of "two Indian arrows of those parts." We are able to assure you to-night that at least the first year's rent was duly paid, for lying before you is the receipt of "W. Thomas, keeper of his Majesty's Wardrobe," for two Indian Arrows "tendered and left at and within the Castle of Windsor," for "one year's rent due to the King's Majesty" for "a territory or continent of land called Maryland," and dated on "Tuesday, the XXIIIrd day of April, 1633."

For how many years the prompt payment of this rent continued we may not know, but we may presume that it was well kept up, because, from the failure of the native population to appreciate the principle of public law, that the discovery of the fact of their existence, gave the discoverer a claim to all their possessions, it was many years before Indian arrows became scarce in Maryland. Ultimately, however, about the 4th of July, 1776, we know that this rent was docked. All that we pay now is the annual levy of $2.07 on every one hundred dollars worth of our property.

Another paper of this collection, while not so unique, is of more historical value. It is a copy in his own handwriting of the instructions given by Cecilius Calvert to the immigrants before the Ark and the Dove left the Isle of Wight.

These Calvert papers, after much search and effort, which will be more fully detailed by Mr. Mendes Cohen, were finally secured by a few of the members of this society, aided by some prominent citizens, and also, it is a great pleasure to add, with the gracious co-operation of several ladies who are with us to-night.

There is no need now to make special mention of the names of those for whom I speak, but I feel that I ought at least to say that, more than to anything else, we are indebted for the possession of these papers to the intelligent and persistent efforts of Mr. Cohen. He will not, in his account of them, say this for himself, and I therefore say it, because it ought to be said by some one.

The circumstances warrant the mention of one other name in this connection. Always an interested member of this Society and in sympathy with its work, one of the last acts of his life was a generous contribution to the fund for the purchase of these papers by Mr. T. Harrison Garrett.

The acquisition of these Calvert papers and the interest manifested in them to-night, are an assurance that our State has reached the age of historic research. This, of course, is a development of a somewhat advanced period, for the forces of moral evolution will not produce the historic sentiment until there is a history to be written. The conditions are—a story to be told, and also the appropriate time for telling it. Unlike the observation of material objects the atmosphere is cleared by distance, and the truth of history is better discerned as we get above and beyond the motives, the partialities and mists which obscure a closer view. These conditions, like experience and good wine, come only by age. There is no improved method of hastening them, and we must wait until the State has a past. The process may be going on, but we can simply stand by while seed time is ripening into harvest. But when the times have ripened for the pen of the historian, and existing conditions have created the want, the same forces which created the conditions will supply the want.

Almost exactly two hundred years from the date of the charter had passed before the full period for writing the history of Maryland came, and then the great pen of McMahon was applied to the task. Bozman's Introduction to a History of Maryland had appeared in 1811, and Griffith's Sketches of the Early History of Maryland in 1821, but the publication of McMahon's first volume in 1831 may be taken, I think, as the well marked beginning of the period of historic research in Maryland. While that work was the evidence of a growth, it at the same time stimulated the growth. The presentation to the State of the manuscript of Bozman's history and its publication followed in 1834; then came the Act of 1835 for the rescue, arrangement and preservation of the State papers and documents. The Maryland Historical Society was incorporated in 1844; another Act looking to the preservation of the records was passed in 1847; in 1849 McSherry's History appeared, and in 1855 the "Day Star" by Mr. Davis. In 1858 an Act was passed for the procurement of copies of important papers from foreign repositories, and the report and calendar of Dr. Alexander followed in 1860. In 1867 important historical features were added to the Land Office; in the same year Terra Mariæ, by Mr. Edward D. Neill, was published; Scharf's History appeared in 1879, and the History of a Palatinate, by Dr. Wm. Hand Browne, in 1884. Many other incidents, as well as numerous monographs, which cannot now be referred to, have marked the period mentioned.

The time had indeed come, but when the thought of the State turned to the history of the State, the inquiry was, what are the records? and (more difficult to answer), where are they? The archives have a history as well as the State, but though the acquisition of these papers is part of it, the full story cannot be told to-night.

Maryland has probably always possessed a more complete collection of State papers than any other of the original States, and the State has always manifested as great an interest in their preservation as perhaps could well be expected. But we seldom find the instinct of the historian united with official position, and there never has been by the State a sufficiently well directed effort for the collection and preservation of its archives.

They have passed through the perils of new government, of war and insurrection: of removal, waste and neglect; of mould, fire and private spoliation. Very much, however, has survived: much that had nearly gone has been rescued, and means have been found to supply from other sources much that has been lost.

A valuable work was performed by Mr. David Ridgely, State Librarian, under the Act of 1835, in collecting and arranging State papers and documents, but the Act unfortunately provided that after collection and repair they should be returned to the various public offices, from their exposure in which the effort had been to rescue them; and when looked for, in later years, many that Mr. Ridgely had noted could no longer be found.

Immediately upon the formation of this Society it directed its attention to the collection and safety of the State papers, and in 1847 procured the passage of a resolution by the General Assembly to this end. This resolution authorized the Governor to transfer to this Society all original papers, documents and records relating to the history of Maryland prior to the close of the Revolutionary war, which it was not necessary should be kept at the seat of Government. The first part of this resolution was full of promise and looked like a liberal transfer, but there was a string tied to the papers in the shape of a retractive proviso. Under the operation of the proviso there was very little left to be transferred except such documents as were in duplicate, or in such a condition of "apparent or manifest decay" as that they might be "advantageously deposited with the said Historical Society." The Society thankfully received the records that were in a state of "manifest decay" and, as far as it was possible to do so, reverently restored them to a state of convalescence.

By the Act of 1858, the Governor was authorized to appoint some person to procure copies of all papers and documents of value relating to the provincial history, which were to be found in the Colonial Office in London, in the library of Zion College, and in the archives of the Propaganda at Rome. Dr. Alexander, who was appointed under this Act, very properly thought that before he began to copy it was important to know what the State already possessed, and accordingly, with the assistance of Dr. Ethan Allen, he prepared the first volume of a Calendar of State papers which is now in the library of this Society. But before the preliminary work was completed the appropriation was exhausted, and the hand of the type-writer has not yet garnered the sheaves in question.

The importance of the State papers was, again, most earnestly pressed upon the Constitutional Convention of 1867, by the late Mr. George L. L. Davis, and through his efforts a clause was inserted in the Constitution, making it the duty of the Commissioner of the Land Office to collect, arrange and classify the papers, records, relics and other memorials connected with the early history of Maryland.

This Society at length, in the passage of the Act of Assembly of 1882, accomplished what had been a cherished purpose ever since its organization, namely, the transfer into its custody of all the records, archives and ancient documents of the Province and State prior to the acknowledgment of the independence of the United States by Great Britain, on the condition that they should be safely kept, properly arranged and catalogued, and that the Society should edit and publish such of them as were of historical importance, the State reserving its ownership, and providing for the free access to these papers of all its citizens. The State at last had appreciated the fact that it had no agency of its own suitable for the work of collecting, assorting and preserving these papers.

Then began the reclamation of State papers from all conceivable, as well as inconceivable repositories. The search went through places where they ought to have been, and were not, and places where they should not have been, but were. Under the authority of this Act, and through previous efforts, the cellars, the lofts, the forgotten cupboards, the woodhouse of the Treasury and the dome of the State House, as well as the public offices, all gave up their historic treasures, and at last, so far, at least, as those possessed by the State are concerned, we are able to answer the inquiry, where are the records? They are in the iron vault of this Society

—the Home for Aged Papers—protected from exposure and neglect, secure against the hand of the spoiler, and safe from the depredations of the autograph fiend.

This Society is faithfully and gladly discharging the conditions upon which it was made the repository of these papers, and is now solving the problem of what the records are. The accumulations of a hundred and fifty years, including about 10,000 separate papers, thus came into its hands. All are being properly assorted and catalogued, with due reference to subject matter and chronological order, and, with infinite labor, the worn papers, the faded writing, the contracted hand, the long disused abbreviations, and the long since obsolete terms, are being deciphered and the entire text transcribed. Five volumes of the archives, under the scholarly supervision of Dr. Browne, have been published.

Towards the expense of this work the State has made a moderate but inadequate appropriation. Much of the necessary service is gratuitous, while important gaps in the records have been filled from the collections of this Society, and by material gathered abroad at its expense. This Act of 1882, from a historical standpoint, is the most important event that has yet transpired.

It not only secured the safety of our State papers, but, through the agency of this Society, it is working out a full disclosure of their contents. To a certain degree, in their past condition, they have been as if written in an unknown tongue.

This Act, also, is leading up to a new, a more accurate and complete history of the State. The histories of Maryland heretofore written have been well done in view of the broken record and the difficulty of mining the material at command. But a new history of the State has been begun, and will appear in due season.

We may not know by whom it will be finished, nor whose name will be upon the title page as its author, but this Society has begun the work. It is now making accessible and capable of use the large stores which have been preserved; it is replacing much that has been lost, and with an eye quick for the search, and a hand ready to reach, it is looking for further historical riches in foreign repositories not yet explored. In thus preparing ready to his hand all materials, and in doing for the future author the most dreary and laborious part of his work, this Society is contributing its important part toward the new history of the State.

It has assumed that portion of the task, which, as McMahon well said, "if inflicted as a punishment, would be intolerable."

Such, sir, is part of the work now being done by this Society, and it is in recognition of its active zeal, and of the service it is rendering the State, that we desire to place in its possession these Calvert Papers. They begin the story of our people at a period earlier than the landing at St. Mary's. They had already opened the record when Leonard Calvert set up the cross on St. Clement's, and in the name of his brother, took possession of his unexplored kingdom of forest and river and bay.

They have been singularly preserved through the casualties of two hundred and fifty years. The Barons of Baltimore, each in his turn, have played their almost royal parts, and the baronetcy itself has been extinct for more than a century. Eight generations, full of life and high impulse, have wrought their mission, and passed on. The first seat of government has disappeared, and not even its ruins now mark the spot where the early legislators assembled. From the little colony has grown a great State, superb in its free institutions, and the home of a million noble people.

These parchments have survived through all these changes, and, by the force of association, they fill this hall to-night with voices and faces from the weird and majestic past, and stamp again with the vividness of real life, acts and events which were fading into shadow and tradition.

With all their rich associations and historic value, I now have the honor to present them to you as the representative of the Maryland Historical Society, and, as I do so, it is with the thought that they are part of the muniments of our goodly heritage of civil and religious liberty—part of the evidences of our title to all that is great and honorable in our past.

ADDRESS OF HON. JOHN H. B. LATROBE.

Upon the conclusion of the address of Colonel RITCHIE, the President, Hon. JOHN H. B. LATROBE, said:

I gratefully acknowledge, Mr. Ritchie, on behalf of the Maryland Historical Society, the valuable addition to its archives of the "Calvert Papers," which the generosity and public spirit of some of our fellow citizens have enabled it to secure.

To go now into more formal or extended remarks would consume time which may better be given to some matters immediately connected with the papers referred to.

ADDRESS OF MR. MENDES COHEN.

Mr. MENDES COHEN, Chairman of the Committee on the Calvert Papers, then addressed the meeting, as follows:

Mr. President, Ladies and Gentlemen,—

In the distribution of the duties of this occasion, it devolves upon me to tell you something in regard to the finding of these papers. I cannot do so, however, without mentioning the name of one of our departed members, taken from among us in the midst of his usefulness more than twenty years ago; one well known to the older members of the Society and to his fellow citizens generally, as a gentleman of the highest scientific and scholarly attainments. I refer to the late John Henry Alexander, LL. D.

Dr. Alexander, amongst numerous other literary and scientific works, prepared an "Index to the calendar of Maryland State papers," compiled under his own direction by authority of an Act of the Legislature (January session, 1858, Chapter 27).

In the preface to this Index which bears date Easter Monday, 1861, speaking of the collections of Maryland documents in the British Museum, he records:

"Many years ago, these possessions of the British Museum might have been increased, and with objects of great interest. In the autumn of 1839, there were lying in one of its rooms, on the ground floor, two considerable chests marked Calvert Papers, which I myself observed with much interest; but presuming that they were an acquisition of the establishment, and would be shortly examined and reported upon thoroughly, or at least be thereafter forever accessible, I made no particular inquiry about them at the moment. It appears that this presumption was erroneous, and upon a diligent research instituted recently—under the disadvantage, to be sure, of there being not a single person left now in the employment of the institution, who was connected then with the particular branch of its service to which belongs the receipt and custody of such things, until they are handed over to be placed in their proper receptacles—no further intelligence could be obtained about them, and no other conclusion arrived at than that, when seen they were merely in transitu, having been probably offered by some party possessing them, but at such a price as precluded their purchase. However this may have been, the mischance is very much to be regretted.”

It was my good fortune to know Dr. Alexander from my early youth. I was a student of engineering; he, the accomplished scientist and mathematician, the intimate friend of an uncle who stood to me in loco parentis, was pleased on this account to take much interest in the progress of my studies, and subsequently in my professional career. I learned to respect the thoroughness with which Dr. Alexander pursued every investigation; the careful accuracy of his observation and the precision with which he noted results. I did not then know how rare were the qualities that I admired in him, nor how great was the privilege which I enjoyed in my intercourse with him; but I have realized it since, and it is to me a great pleasure to say that we primarily owe our acquisition of these papers to Dr. Alexander's careful methods—for I do not think that the search would have been thought of, as it would certainly not have been undertaken by me, but for that record of a failure to find what he believed to have existed a few years before.

On reading that account for the first time and knowing something of the way which English people have of preserving written documents, I thought the chances were strongly in favor of Dr. Alexander's theory, and that the papers had gone back to the attic corner whence they had emerged for their visit to the British Museum, and I promised myself the pleasure of searching them out as soon as opportunity permitted me a visit to England.

In the meantime it chanced that, as corresponding secretary of this Society, I was in communication with Mr. Winslow Jones of Exmouth, England, a gentleman interested in matters bearing upon our history, and who has contributed to our collection some interesting notes in regard to the early Calverts. I ventured to ask his interest and co-operation in a search for the lost papers. He readily gave his assistance and through an inquiry made by him in Notes and Queries, information was elicited which led to our being convinced that a large mass of the Colonial Papers and correspondence was still in existence and in the possession of Col. F. H. Harford, a retired officer of the British Army, and a descendant of the last Lord Baltimore. Some months later Mr. Jones was permitted to see these papers at Col. Harford's seat, Down Place, near Windsor, and in May, 1887, he writes me:—

“I finished on yesterday the examination of the deeds and papers at Down Place. . . . .

“They were in utter confusion, in one very large chest, and not in the two in which they were originally kept, without any arrangement and mixed up with family papers unconnected with the Province, and very many of both sets without endorsement, but they are all now arranged and for the most part marked. . . . .

“The chest has for some years been in an old Orangery, now used as a potting house and for garden purposes, and some signs of damp are on a few of the papers, so that if the chest should remain for some years longer in its present place, the papers may be seriously injured.”

It is needless to recount our unsuccessful efforts to negotiate with the owners by a correspondence which extended over a year or more. We could neither learn the date of a single paper in the collection nor the price at which any or all of them would be transferred to the Society.

During the summer of 1887, Mr. D. R. Randall, of Annapolis, a corresponding member of this Society, being in London, was asked to call to see the papers which had by this time been removed from

Down Place to the custody of Col. Harford's solicitors in London. He did so, and was shown such of the collection as had then reached London. He was informed by the solicitors that some of the papers were still at Down Place, partly in the house and partly buried in a field adjoining. The papers referred to as being then in the house at Down Place, are said to have been brought shortly thereafter to London and to be included in our aggregation, but in regard to the buried papers the solicitors write: "We fear that they are lost beyond hope of recovery, as we understand from our client that they were buried some years ago by his gardeners in order to get rid of what at the time was supposed to be useless."

At this stage it began to look as if the story of the Sibylline books might be repeated to our irremediable loss, and we felt correspondingly anxious to secure the existing remainder before any further diminution should befall them. It was evident that some one familiar with the Maryland Archives must be sent to London, to report specifically as to the historical value of the find and to act as our agent.

The most suitable person available was Mr. J. W. M. Lee, the Society's librarian. The late Mr. T. Harrison Garrett, in whose service Mr. Lee was then engaged, readily consented to spare him for the purpose. Mr. Lee sailed for England April 14th last. He reached London on the 21st, and lost no time after his arrival in examining the papers at the office of Col. Harford's solicitors, where it was stated to Mr. Lee, that all the papers known to be in existence were then collected. We were informed by each mail of the progress of his investigation, and in time, of the price placed upon them and of his estimate of their value.

An agreement was arrived at without delay, and Mr. Lee was cabled to close the purchase which was at once effected through the medium of Messrs. Robert Garrett & Sons, who acted as our bankers, and advanced the necessary funds.

Through the liberal subscription of the ladies and gentlemen who have just presented the collection to the Society, sufficient funds were raised to defray the expenses of the mission as well as the cost of the collection and its transfer to your fire-proof vault, where it was safely placed on the evening of June 11th, 1888.

There still remain for us the questions:

1st. Are these papers in whole or in part those which were contained in the two boxes seen by Dr. Alexander in the British Museum in 1839?

2d. What means the statement about the buried chest?

In regard to the first question it must be stated that our information is very meagre. We have not been able as yet, clearly to establish a connection between the papers we now possess and the supposed contents of the boxes seen in 1839; nor has our agent, Mr. Lee, given us any information throwing light on the subject.

Nevertheless, I believe them to be the same. It is somewhat curious that whilst we in Maryland were wondering what could have become of these missing papers; at the very time, when in 1861, Dr. Alexander was printing the document which records the facts that have led to the renewal of the search, our sister State, Virginia, in a search for evidence bearing upon the question of the boundary between Virginia and Maryland, should have developed and recorded the fact of the then present existence of the papers which we now have before us.

In March, 1860, the General Assembly of Virginia adopted a resolution "authorizing and requesting the Governor, if he should deem it expedient, to send to England a competent agent to obtain from thence all record and documentary evidence tending to ascertain and establish the true lines of boundary between Virginia and the States of North Carolina, Tennessee and Maryland."

Col. A. W. McDonald was commissioned as such agent, and proceeded to London, where he arrived June 20, 1860. In his report to Governor Letcher, dated February 2d, 1861, he states: "I sought out the representative of the Baltimore family, and finally discovered him a prisoner for debt in the Queen's Bench prison, to which some twelve years since he had been transferred from the Fleet prison, after having been there confined for more than eight years. I obtained an interview with this gentleman; informed him of the object of my visit, which he appeared entirely willing to promote, and learned from him, after most minute inquiry, that the original charter had never come into his hands with the other family papers which had; that he had never seen it; never heard of it as being in the hands of any other person; and that he verily believed said original charter to be utterly lost or destroyed."

Shortly after our discovery of the papers my attention was first called to this record by our fellow-member, Mr. Henry F. Thompson. It had therefore seemingly escaped the notice of those interested in the Maryland Archives, as it certainly had my own, a fact which I can only account for by reason of Col. McDonald's report having been made just at the breaking out of our late civil war, at a period when all attention was concentrated upon the stirring events so rapidly succeeding each other almost before the eyes of many of us—a time when, in fact, our people were engaged in making History not in studying it.

From this report of Col. McDonald, it will be seen that the then representative of the Calverts had been in prison for debt for at least twenty years, or certainly since 1840, possibly from a somewhat earlier date. As it was only in 1839 that Dr. Alexander saw the chests, it would seem possible that the then representative of the family had offered them to the Museum before going to prison, either for sale or for safe keeping, and that the Museum declining to take them, they remained in the possession of the family during his imprisonment, and subsequently until our acquisition of them. If this be the case, as I have no doubt it is, it will only be necessary to obtain from the present representative of the family, or his solicitors, the facts doubtless in their possession to establish the identity of the papers before us with those in the missing boxes.

Now, as to the story of the burial of a chest of papers. When that statement first reached me, I supposed that it might be a myth, due to the fact that when Mr. Jones found the chest of papers at Down Place, it was in an out-building—a potting-house—and may have been half-buried in the mould and débris of the gardener's work-shop.

Mr. Lee was requested to make particular inquiry on this point, and to go, if necessary, to Down Place to ascertain the facts. This he did. He saw both Colonel and Mrs. Harford at their home, but could obtain from them no information more precise than that Colonel Harford had a few years before given authority to his gardeners to bury a box of the papers, which were much in the way. The gardener to whom this authority was given, was no longer in Colonel Harford's service when Mr. Lee was at Down Place, and Mr. Lee reports that Colonel Harford did not know the place of burial, nor even if the authority to bury was ever availed of.

The papers we have are so complete in some particulars, whilst lacking in others where we are pretty sure that the proprietors had received full reports from the Colony, that we cannot but feel that the chest supposed to have been buried may well have contained just what we find wanting. You have thus had a history of all we know, as yet, regarding these papers, and their re-discovery. It will devolve upon others to describe to you their interesting character and contents.

In conclusion, I will only express the hope that some of our members, hereafter visiting England, will be sufficiently interested to investigate the questions still left open, whilst there remains a chance of finding those capable of answering them, thus completing and perfecting for our State a record of her early history, perhaps unequalled by that of any other of the thirteen colonies.

ADDRESS OF DR. WILLIAM HAND BROWNE.

Dr. WILLIAM HAND BROWNE, followed Mr. COHEN, with the reading of extracts from some of the recently acquired papers, and with some introductory and explanatory remarks, as follows:

As you have heard the story of the discovery and acquisition of the Calvert Papers, it remains to give you the briefest possible account of what they are.

They consist of nearly 1,000 documents, on paper and parchment, all in admirable preservation, ranging from the reigns of Henry VIII and Elizabeth, down to the second half of the last century.

The most ancient document relating to Maryland is Cecilius Calvert's Instructions to the First Colonists, of which I shall speak more at large presently. We have the Conditions of Plantation of 1640; a series of Council-Books and of the Journals of the Upper and Lower Houses of Assembly, filling many gaps in our collections; also copies of laws transmitted to the proprietary for his assent. We have grants of land and rent-rolls of the various counties from 1640 to 1761.

Here also is a great mass of documents illustrating every phase of the boundary dispute between Maryland and Pennsylvania, from the granting of the latter colony to the completion of Mason and Dixon's survey in 1768, with the maps submitted in the process of the suit; among which last are Mason and Dixon's own map, and a copy on vellum of the famous forged map on which Cape Henlopen was misplaced, so that the southern boundary of Delaware was run some twenty miles south of the line agreed upon.

We have a collection of receipts for the Indian arrows which the Proprietary was bound by his charter to tender every year at Windsor Castle; and among these the very first, of the date of 1633.

We have some twenty documents, all new to us, relating to Avalon; of which one is an inspeximus of the Charter in 1634, authenticated by the Great Seal of England.

There are also several hundred letters from the Proprietaries, the governors, and other persons of consequence; and many private letters of great interest, some of which throw curious light upon the obscure beginnings of the colony.

The heraldic and genealogical parchments are curious and attractive. Among them we have the original patent of nobility creating George Calvert first Baron of Baltimore; a beautiful piece of calligraphy and illumination, bearing the Great Seal of James I, and a miniature of that monarch.

There are also several other heraldic scrolls, richly blazoned, relating to the Calverts and other families. There are impressions of the Great Seals of England, from Elizabeth to George III; the Great Seals of Maryland, Virginia and New York; the seals of several kings-at-arms, and others of less interest.

I am aware that all this is little more than a very imperfect fragment of cataloguing, neither complete nor entertaining; but under the circumstances it cannot be helped. The importance of many of these papers could only be made clear by an introductory explanation of the omissions they supply, the errors they rectify, or the obscurities on which they throw light. Others of less striking interest, are valuable as serving to fill gaps in a series which is now, I believe, more continuous than any of the colonial archives. But for this evening I have preferred to dip here and there into the mass for fragments, in themselves curious and interesting, which will require the least amount of preface.

The first paper I shall bring to your notice is remarkable in two respects: It is absolutely the most ancient Maryland document known to be in existence (for although the charter is older, of that we have only official copies of later date); and it is also remarkable as clearly showing the intentions of the Proprietary with respect to religious toleration. You are all aware that there has been much idle discussion about this matter, many imperfectly informed persons dating Maryland toleration from the Act of 1649. We have now proof that this was from the first the purpose of the founder of Maryland; and that the Act of 1649 only formulated the policy which had ruled in the province from its very beginning.

The Ark and the Dove left Gravesend on October 18th, 1633, and proceeded to the Isle of Wight, where they took on board Fathers White and Altham, and some others, and lay there until November 30th. Just before their sailing a copy of instructions from the Proprietary was sent to Leonard Calvert and Messrs. Hawley and Cornwaleys, the heads of the expedition, containing precepts for their governance during the voyage and on their arrival. This paper is in Cecilius' handwriting, and from the interlineations and erasures is evidently the draft from which a fair copy was afterwards made.

[See No. 1.]

The next paper is a report by Governor Leonard Calvert of the circumstances attending the reduction of Kent Island—or rather of the trading post upon that island—in February, 1638. Two or three of the leading men at this post, which had been established for the purpose of trade with the Indians, by a firm of London merchants who had no grant of land from any source and whose representatives on the island were simply squatters—these leaders undertook to hold out against Baltimore's authority, so that he had either to throw up his charter, or compel them to acknowledge it.

[See No. 9.]

The next paper is a long letter written in November, 1642, by Cecilius to Leonard. We have scarcely any writings from Cecilius except such as are of a purely formal character, and it is pleasant to find him here in confidential communication with his brother.

The whole tone of the letter is affectionate, though the extract which I shall read is one in which he takes Leonard sharply to task for disobedience of orders in granting land to certain parties contrary to his brother's express prohibition.

[See No. 12.]

The next is a very long letter written by Charles, son of Cecilius and governor of the Province, to his father in April, 1672. It is full of curious and interesting details about matters in Maryland; but the time will not allow me to read more than a few sentences about the interchange of gifts between father and son.

[See No. 14.]

The last paper which I shall read is a holograph letter from William Penn to some Marylanders near the head of the bay. Notwithstanding the enormous size of the grant he had received, Penn cast longing eyes upon the Chesapeake, and was all his life trying to extend his boundary southward at Maryland's expense. Shortly after his charter had been signed, he wrote to Charles, Lord Baltimore, a letter full of friendly professions, asking and promising neighborly comity, and desiring that their conduct toward each other might be regulated by the simple rule, "do as thou wouldst be done to." His next step was to write a characteristic letter to Herrman and other influential Marylanders in the north of the province, to induce them, partly by fair words, and partly by veiled threats, to revolt against Baltimore's authority. This letter I shall read. The original, as I said, is entirely in Penn's handwriting, and bears his seal as well as Herrman's indorsement.

[See No. 19.]

Among other interesting documents exhibited at the meeting, were the following:

EXEMPLIFICATION OF THE ARMS OF SIR GEORGE CALVERT.

To All And Singlar As well Nobles, and gentles as others to whom theis presents shall come Sir Richard St. George Knight Norroy Kinge of Arms of the North parts of the Realme of England from the Riuer of Trent Northward send greeting. Forasmuch as auintiently from the beginninge the virtuous and worthy actes of excellent persons haue bene commended to the World, with sundry monuments and Remembraunces of their good deserts amongest which the cheifest and most usuall haue bene the bearinge of Signes and tokens in Sheilds, called Armes which are eident demonstracõns and Testimonyes of proues & valour dyuersly distributed accordinge to the qualitie and deserts of the persons merrittinge the same, which order as it was prudently deuised to stirr vp and enflame the harts of men to the Imitacõn of Virtue, even soe bath the same bene, and yet is contynued to the intent that such as haue done Commendable Service to their Prince and Countrey either in warre or in peace, may therefore receiue due honor in their owne Lyues and also deriue and contynue the same successiue to their posterity for euer. Amongest which number for that I fynd the right Honourable Sir George Caluert Knight one of his Maiesties principall Secretaries of State and his auncestors to haue recided in the North parts of this Kingdome, and not only to haue liued their in the Ranke and reputacōn of gent: and bene bearers of such badges and Ensignes of honor amongst vs, but further haue seene an exact collection made by Mr. Richard Verstegan an Antiquarie in Autwarpe sent ouer this last of March 1622, by which it appeareth that the said Sir George is descended of a Noble and auncient familie of that Surname in the Earldome of flanders where they haue liued long in great Honor, and haue had great possessions, their principall and auncient Seate being at Warvickoe in the said Province, And that in theis later tymes two brethren of that surname vid: Jaques Calvert Lord of Seuer two leagues from Gaunt remayned in the Netherland broyles on the side of the Kinge of Spayne and hath a sonne who at this present is in honourable place and office in the Parliament Courte at Macklyn, And Levinus Caluert the other brother tooke parte with the States of Holland and was by them ymployed as their Agent with Henry the fourth late Kinge of Fraunce, which Levinus Caluert left a sonne in France whom the foresaid Kinge entertayned as a gentleman of his bed chamber. And further it is testefied by the said Mr. Verstegan that the proper Armes belonging to the Familie of the Caluerts is, or, three martletts Sables with this Crest vizt the vpper parte or halues of two Launces the bandroll of the first Sables and the second, or. Nowe forasmuch as I have been required by the said Sir George Caluert Knight to make a true declaracōn of what I haue seene concerninge the worthynes of his auncestors that it maye remayne to posterity from whence they orriginally descended as also that at this instant their is three of that Surname and lyniage lyvinge in three seuerall cuntryes beinge all men of great emenency and honourable ymployment in the State where they

line, which otherwayes by a generall neglect might in future tyme be forgotten and the honor of their auncestors buried in obliuion. And withall for a further manifestacōn and memoriall of the familie from whence he is descended. The said Sir George Caluert is likewise desirous to add some parte of those honourable badges and ensignes of honor which descend vpon him from his auncestors their to those which he and his predecessors haue formerly borne here since their comminge into England. The premisses considered I the said Norroy Kinge of Armes haue thought fitt not only to publishe by the declaracōn what hath come to my hands and Knowledge concerninge the honor of this worthy familie but also to add to the Coate of Armes which they haue borne here in England beinge paley of Sixe peices, or and Sables a bend counterchanged this Creast ensuinge Vizt : the vpper parte of two halfe Launces or, with bandrolls there to appendinge the one or the other Sables standinge in a Ducall Crowne gules as more playnly appeareth depicted in the margent and is the auntient Creast descended vnto him from his auncestors, The which Coate and Creast I the said Norroy Kinge of Armes doe ratifie, approue and confirme vnto the said Sir George Caluert Knight and the yssue of his body foreuer bearinge their due and lawfull differences accordinge to the lawe of Armes in that case prouided. In witnes whereof I the said Sir Richard St. George Knight Norroy Kinge of Armes haue hereto put my hand and Seale of my office this third Daye of December 1622. In the yeare of the Raigne of our Soueraigne Lord James by the grace of God Kinge of England France, and Ireland Defendor of the fayth &c. the Twentieth, And of Scotland the fflytie and sixe.

LETTERS PATENT

Under the Great Seal of England, to Sir George Culbert, creating him Baron Baltimore of Baltimore in the Kingdom of Ireland.

The entire space upon the parchment occupied by the Patent is about twenty-six inches in width, by seventeen inches in height. Of this space about eight and three-fourth inches in width by seven and one-half inches in height at the upper left hand corner (the dexter canton) is occupied by the initial letter J. The background of this part is black, but tasselled perspectively at the bottom in squares of black and white enriched with gold scrolled work—the whole edged with a plain gold band about one-eighth of an inch wide. The letter J is of blue, edged and beautifully knotted with gold. The letter proper occupies but two sides of the square, and its foot runs into the mouth of the Dragon of the Tudors (tricked as a wyvern, vert, heightened with gold, and enflamed at the month, legged gules), which faces to the sinister and occupies the entire foot of the canton. In the open space between the initial proper and the dragon is the portrait of KING JAMES THE FIRST, three-quarters profile, facing to the sinister, sitting upon his throne, clad in a red mantle, doubled ermine, the small clothes and hose of white silk, with gold rosettes and trimmings (the right knee only showing; the GARTER does not appear). He is crowned imperially, and wears the COLLAR AND GEORGE; in his right hand he holds a golden sceptre surmounted by a fleur de lis, in his left the orb. The throne is of gold; and behind it is a curtain of deep violet colour.

From this initial letter there runs a bordure of the width of about three and one-half inches along the top and down the left edge of the whole design; and also from the initial letter down the right edge—thus forming three sides of the entire work (the fourth side—the foot—being folded over and fastened down with the cords of the Great Seal which is affixed directly beneath the centre, pendent by a metallic cord passed in and out several times and sufficiently long to leave the Seal entirely clear of the parchment itself). This bordure is also edged in plain gold about one-eighth of an inch wide, and is beautifully ornamented with scrolls, urns, grotesques, and flowers, in gold and colours minutely detailed and skillfully done. The words “JACOBUS DEI GRATIA ANGLIÆ” (except the initial J already referred to) are large and done in gold upon a blue stripe of the width of about one and one eighth inches, extending from the initial letter across to the bordure on the right. All the lettering is in the usual Court hand, evenly and nicely done, and in black, save as above noted.

On the upper strip of the bordure are three Heraldic trickings, viz: (1)—(dexter, and close to the initial letter) The crest of ENGLAND [—A lion gardant Or, imperially crowned, tail extended, statant upon an imperial crown gold, jewelled proper, the cap red, turned ermine]—all in front of a large escallop shell ribbed and shaded in blue. (2)—(sinister, and at the extreme right hand upper corner of the entire work) The crest of SCOTLAND [—A lion affronté gules, crowned imperially Or, in the dexter paw a sceptre erect, surmounted by a fleur de lis gold; in the sinister, a sword azure, erect also, hilted and handled also of gold: sedant upon an imperial crown of gold, jewelled proper, the cap red, turned ermine]—all in front of a large escallop shell ribbed and shaded in blue, as before. (3)—(centre, and half way between the two crests) THE ROYAL ATCHIEVEMENT [—THE ROYAL ARMS, temp Jac. i, but not as ordinarily tricked, thus: quarterly grand quarters: i and iv, quarterly 1 and 4 ENGLAND, gules 3 lions passant gardant in pale Or; 2 and 3 FRANCE, azure 3 fleur de lis 2 and 1, Or: ii SCOTLAND, Or a lion rampant, within a double tressure, flory counter flory, gules: iii IRELAND, azure a harp Or, stringed silver—All within the GARTER (dark blue with gold edges, buckle, and champet of gold, the letters Roman and gold also), the intervening space of red, ornamented with gold scroll work spreading out behind the GARTER. Above is the imperial crown, of gold, the cap red, turned ermine. The supporters are (dexter) for ENGLAND: a lion gardant (rampant against the Garter), Or, langued and armed gules, imperially crowned gold, the cap red: (sinister) for SCOTLAND, a unicorn (salient against the Garter), sable, armed, crined, unguled, gorged with a marquis' coronet, therefrom a chain reflexed over the back and terminating between the hind feet in an annulet, Or. Behind the dexter supporter are represented red and pink roses (but no white ones) with golden centres, growing from green stalks leaved proper, etc.; behind the sinister supporter, green thistles with flowers purple, growing from green stalks, thorned, and leaved green, etc.—The whole Atchievement standing upon a greensward coloured naturally and arranged perspectively]—

It will be seen, by any one at all familiar with English coat-armour, that these three trickings depart considerably from the official blazon—notably (1) in placing ENGLAND before FRANCE in the quartering, (2) in tricking the unicorn sable instead of argent, (3) in gorging the unicorn with a marquis' coronet instead of the royal crown, and (4) in transposing the sceptre and sword in the paws of the lion upon the SCOTTISH crest. In the blazon above given exactness of detail has been sought, rather than mere technicality of terms.

The GREAT SEAL affixed is that of ENGLAND, temporis Jacobi primi, in very dark green wax; it is in a fair state of preservation, but somewhat flattened; and the upper part is gone entirely. What is left of it is easily to be identified by comparison with other known examples of this Seal.

Translation.

JAMES, BY THE GRACE OF GOD, KING OF ENGLAND, Scotland, France and Ireland, Defender of the Faith, &c., to the Archbishops, Dukes, Marquises, Earls, Viscounts, Bishops, Barons, Knights, Governors, freemen, and all our officers, ministers, and subjects whomsoever to whom the present letters shall come, Greeting. Forasmuch as an eminent body of Nobility, faithful to the King and well-deserving of the State is the ornament and prop of a Kingdom, and those worthily are adorned with the grace of more ample favour in whom We behold the zeal of more abundant service which in no wise can be more effectually than by honours rightly distributed, whereby not only they who are elevated to nobility, but even others also, incited by their example with a like hope, may be drawn to a zeal for virtue. WE therefore, nearly considering in the person of Our well-beloved and entirely faithful Councillor, George Calvert, Knight, gravity of manners, singular gifts of mind, candour, integrity, and prudence, and benignity and urbanity toward all men, and also reflecting in Our mind with how great fidelity, diligence, and alacrity he has served Us, both in Our Kingdom of Ireland, whither, not long ago he was specially sent upon Our most weighty and very important business there, as also in this Our Kingdom of England, throughout many years, but especially since he was advanced near our person to the place and honour of a Councillor and Our principal Secretary, and Willing that some singular mark of Our Royal favour may remain unto the aforesaid George and unto his posterity forever, by which not only he, but Even others also may perceive how highly we prize the fidelity and obedience of the said George, and how much we desire to reward his virtues and merits. We have decreed Him to be inscribed among the number of the peers of Our said Kingdom of Ireland: KNOW YE THEREFORE that We, of Our especial grace, and of Our Sure Knowledge and mere motion, have exalted, preferred, and created the aforesaid George Calvert, Knight, unto the estate, degree, dignity and honour of Baron Baltimore of Baltimore within Our Kingdom of Ireland, and Him the same George Calvert Knight, by the tenor of these presents, We do exalt, prefer, and create Baron Baltimore of Baltimore aforesaid; and upon the said George the name, estate, degree, style, dignity, title and honour of Baron Baltimore of Baltimore We have imposed, conferred, and bestowed, and by these presents do impose, confer, and bestow TO HAVE and to hold the said name, estate, degree, style, dignity, title and honour of Baron Baltimore of Baltimore aforesaid unto the aforesaid George Calvert, Knight, and to the heirs male of his body issuing, forever: WILLING, and by these presents granting, for Us, Our heirs and successors, that the aforesaid George and his heirs male aforesaid, shall successively bear and have, and each one of them shall bear and have, the name, estate, degree, style, dignity, title, and honour of Baron Baltimore of Baltimore aforesaid, and successively shall be called and named, and each one of them shall be called and named, by the name of Baron Baltimore of Baltimore: And that the said George and his heirs male aforesaid shall successively be held in all respects Barons Baltimore of Baltimore aforesaid, and as Barons of Our said Kingdom of Ireland shall be treated and reputed, and each one of them shall be held, treated, and reputed; and shall have, hold, and possess and each one of them shall have, hold and possess, seat, place, and voice in the Parliaments, public Assemblies, and Councils of Us, Our heirs and Successors within Our Kingdom of Ireland, among the other Barons, as Barons of Parliaments, public Assemblies, and Councils there. And also that the said George, and his heirs male aforesaid, shall enjoy and use and each one of them shall enjoy and use, by the name of Baron Baltimore, all and Singular such Rights, privileges, preëminences and immunities unto the estate of a Baron of our said Kingdom of Ireland in all things rightfully and lawfully appertaining, as the other Barons of Our said Kingdom of Ireland heretofore better, more honorably, and more peaceably have used and enjoyed, or at present enjoy and use. WE WILL ALSO, and by these presents do grant unto the aforesaid George that he have and shall have these Our letters Patent under Our Great Seal of England duly made and sealed, without fine or fee, great or small, to us into Our Hanaper or elsewhere to Our use therefor in any manner to be returned, paid or made, Inasmuch as express mention of the true yearly value, or of the certainty of the premises, or of any of them; or of other gifts or grants by Us or by any of Our Progenitors or Predecessors unto the aforesaid George heretofore made, doth not occur in these presents, any Statute, Act, Ordinance, Provision, Proclamation or restriction to the contrary thereto heretofore had, made, published, ordained or provided, or any other thing, cause, or matter whatsoever in anywise notwithstanding. IN TESTIMONY whereof these Our letters Patent We have caused to be made. WITNESS MYSELF at Westminster on the sixteenth day of February in the year of our Reign of England, France, and Ireland, the twenty-second, and of Scotland the fifty-eighth.

By Writ of the Privy Seal

EDMONDES.

LORD BALTIMORE'S INSTRUCTIONS TO COLONISTS.

[Indorsement.]

15 Nouem. 1633.

A Coppy of Instructions to M<sup>r</sup> Leo.
Caluert, M<sup>r</sup> Jerom Hawley
& M<sup>r</sup> Tho. Cornwaleys the Lo: Baltimores Gouvernor &
Comissioners of his prouince of Maryland.

In the 5th Article some directions is given concerning Cap. Cleyborne.

Cecilius Lo: Baltimore & Lord of the Prouinces of Mary Land and Avalon vnto his well beloued Brother
prouince of Mary Land and vnto Jerom Hawley and
gouernment of the said Prouince.

1. Inpri: His Lo<sup>pp</sup> requires his said Governour & Commissioners th<sup>t</sup> in their voyage to Mary Land they be very carefull to preserve vnity & peace amongst all the passengers on Shipp-board, and that they suffer no scandall nor offence to be giuen to any of the Protestants, whereby any iust complaint may heercafter be made, by them, in Virginia or in England, and that for that end, they cause all Acts of Romane Catholique Religion to be done as priuately as may be, and that they instruct all the Romane Catholiques to be silent vpon all occasions of discourse concerning matters of Religion; and that the said Governour & Commissioners treat the Protestants wth as much mildness and fauor as Justice will permitt. And this to be obserued at Land as well as at Sea.

2. That while they are aboard, they do theyre best endeavors by such instruments as they shall find fittest for it, amongst the seamen & passengers to discouer what any of them do know concerning the priuate plotts of his Lo<sup>ps</sup> aduersaries in England, who endeavored to ouerthrow his voyage: to learne, if they canne the names of all such, their speeches, where & when they spoke them, and to whom; The places, if they had any, of their consultations, the Instruments they vsed and the like: to gather what proofes they canne of them; and to sett them downe particulerly and cleerely in writing wth all the Circumstances; together wth their opinions of the truth and validity of them according to the condition of the persons from whom they had the information; And to gett if they can euery such informer to sett his hand to his Information. And if they find it necessary & that they haue any good probable ground to discouer the truth better, or that they find some vnwilling to reueale that w<sup>ch</sup> (by some speeches at randome, that haue fallen from them) they haue rea-son to suspect they do know concerning that buisness: that at their arriuall

in Mary Land they cause every such person to answer upon oath, to such questions as they shall thinke fitt to propose vnto them : And by some trusty messenger in the next shipp that returne for England to send his Lo<sup>ps</sup> in writing all such Intelligences taken either by deposition or otherwise.

3. That as soone as it shall please god they shall arrive vpon the coast of Virginia, they be not perswaded by the master or any other of the shipp, in any case or for any respect whatsoeuer to goe to James Towne, or to come wth in the command of the the fort at Poynt-Comfort : vnles they should be forced vnto it by some extremity, of weather, (w<sup>ch</sup> god forbid) for the preservation of their liues & goods, and that they find it altogether impossible otherwise to preserve themselves : But that they come to an Anchor somewhere about Acomaeke, so as it be not vnder the command of any fort ; & to send ashore there, to inquire if they can find any to take wth them, that can giue them some good informatione of the Bay of Chesapcaeke and Pattawomeck River, and that may giue them some sight of a fitt place in his Lo<sup>ps</sup> Countrey to sett downe on ; wherein their cheife care must be to make choice of a place first that is probable to be healthfull and fruitfull, next that it may be easily fortified, and thirdly that it may be convenient for trade both wth the English and sauages.

4. That by the first opportunity after their arrivall in Mary Land they cause a messenger to be d'spatcht away to James Town such a one as is conformable to the Church of England, and as they may according to the best of their iudgments trust ; and he to carry his ma<sup>ties</sup> letter to S<sup>r</sup> John Harvie the Governour and to the rest of the Councell there, as likewise his Lo<sup>ps</sup> letter to S<sup>r</sup> Jo: Harvie, and to give him notice of their arrivall : And to haue in charge, vpon the deliuey of the said

letters to behaue himself wth much respect vnto the Governour, and to tell him th<sup>t</sup> his Lo<sup>pp</sup> had an intention to haue come himself in person this yeare into those parts, as he may perceiue by his ma<sup>ties</sup> letter to him but finding that the settling of that buisness of his Plantation and some other occasions, required his presence in England for some time longer then he expected, he hath deferred his owne coming till the next yeare, when he will not faile by the grace of god to be there; and to lett him vnderstand how much his Lo<sup>pp</sup> desires to hold a good correspondency wth him and that Plantation of Virginia, w<sup>ch</sup> he wilbe ready to shew vpon all occasions and to assure him by the best words he cann, of his Lo<sup>pps</sup> particuler affection to his person, in respect of the many reports he hath heard of his worth, and of the ancient acquaintance and freindshipp w<sup>ch</sup> he hath vnderstood was between his Lo<sup>pps</sup> father & him as likewise for those kind respects he hath shewne vnto his L<sup>pp</sup> by his letters since he vnderstoode of his L<sup>pps</sup> intention to be his neighbor in those parts: And to present him wth a Butt of sacke from his L<sup>pp</sup> w<sup>ch</sup> his L<sup>pp</sup> hath giuen directions for, to be sent vnto him.

5. That they write a letter to Cap: Clayborne as soone as conveniently other more necessary occasions will giue them leaue after their arriual in the Countrey, to give him notice of their arriual and of the Authority & charge comitted to them by his L<sup>pp</sup> and to send the said letter together wth his L<sup>pps</sup> to him by some trusty messenger that is likewise conformable vnto the Church of England, wth a message also from them to him if it be not inserted in their letter w<sup>ch</sup> is better, to invite him kindly to come vnto them, and to signify that they haue some buisness of importance to speake wth him about from his L<sup>pp</sup> w<sup>ch</sup> concernes his good very much; And if he come vnto them then that they vse him courteously and well, and tell him, that his L<sup>o</sup>pp vnderstanding that he hath settled a plantation there wthin the precincts of his L<sup>o</sup>pp's Pattent, wished them to lett him know that his L<sup>o</sup>pp is willing to giue him all the encouragement he can to proccede; And that his L<sup>o</sup>pp hath had some propositions made vnto him by certaine m<sup>r</sup>chants in London who pretend to be partners wth him in that plantation, (viz) M<sup>r</sup> Delabarr, M<sup>r</sup> Tompson M<sup>r</sup> Cloberry, M<sup>r</sup> Collins, & some others, and that they desired to haue a grant from his L<sup>o</sup>pp of that Hand where he is: But his L<sup>o</sup>pp vnderstanding from some others that there was some difference in partnership between him and them, and his L<sup>o</sup>pp finding them in their discourse to him, that they made somewhat slight of Cap: Clayborne's interest, doubted lest he might prejudice him by making them any grant his L<sup>o</sup>pp being ignorant of the true state of their buisness and of the thing they desired, as likewise being well assured that by Cap: Clayborne his care and industry besides his charges, that plantation was first begunn and so farr aduanced, was for these reasons vnwilling to condescend vnto their desires, and therefore deferred all treaty wth them till his L<sup>o</sup>pp could truly vnderstand from him, how matters stand between them, and what he would desire of his L<sup>o</sup>pp in it. w<sup>ch</sup> his L<sup>o</sup>pp expects from him; that therevpon his L<sup>o</sup>pp may take it into farther consideration how to do iustice to enery one of them and to giue them all reasonable satisfaction; And that they assure him in fine that his L<sup>o</sup>pp intends not to do him any wrong, but to shew him all the loue and fauor that he can, and that his L<sup>o</sup>pp gaue them directions to do so to him in his absence; in confidence that he will, like a good subiect to his ma<sup>tie</sup> conforme himself to his highness gracious letters pattents granted to his L<sup>o</sup>pp's whereof he may see the Duplicate if he desire it together wth their Commission from his L<sup>o</sup>pp. If he do refuse to come vnto them vpon their invitation, that they lett him alone for the first yeare, till vpon notice giuen to his L<sup>o</sup>pp of his answere and behauiour they receiue farther directions from his L<sup>o</sup>pp; and that they informe themselves as well as they can of his plantation and what his designes are, of what strength & what Correspondency he keepe wth Virginia, and to giue an Account of euery particular to his L<sup>o</sup>pp.

6. That when they haue made choice of the place where they intend to settle themselves and that they haue brought their men ashore wth all their provisions, they do assemble all the people together in a fitt and decent manner and then cause his ma<sup>ties</sup> letters pattents to be publikely read by his L<sup>o</sup>pps Secretary John Bolles, and afterwards his L<sup>o</sup>pps Com<sup>mission</sup> to them, and that either the Governour or one of the Com<sup>mission</sup>ers presently after make some short declaration to the people of his L<sup>o</sup>pps intentions w<sup>ch</sup> he means to pursue in this his intended plantation, w<sup>ch</sup> are first the honor of god by endeauoring the conversion of the sauages to Christianity, secondly the augmentation of his ma<sup>ties</sup> Empire & Dominions in those parts of the world by reducing them vnder the subiection of his Crowne, and thirdly by the good of such of his Countrey men as are willing to aduenture their fortunes and themselves in it, by endeauoring all he can, to assist them, that they may reape the fruites of their charges & labors according to the hopefulnes of the thing, wth as much freedome comfort and encouragement as they can desire; and wth all to assure them, that his L<sup>o</sup>pps affection & zeale is so greate to the aduancement of this Plantation and consequently of their good, that he will imploy all his endeauors in it, and that he would not haue failed to haue come himself in person along wth them this first yeare, to haue bene partaker wth them in the honor of the first voyage thither, but that by reasons of some vnexpected accidents, he found it more necessary for their good, to stay in England some time longer, for the better establishment of his and their right, then it was fitt that the shipp should stay for him, but that by the grace of god he intends wthout faile to be wth them the next year: And that at this time they take occasion to minister an oath of Allegiance to his ma<sup>tie</sup> vnto all and euery one vpon the place, after hauing first publikely in the presence of the people taken it themselues; letting them know that his Lo<sup>pp</sup> gaue particuler directions to haue it one of the first things that were done, to testify to the world that none should enjoy the benefitt of his ma<sup>ties</sup> gracious Grant vnto his L<sup>pp</sup> of that place, but such as should giue a publique assurance of their fidelity & allegiance to his ma<sup>tie</sup>.

7. that they informe themselves what they can of the present state of the old Colony of Virginea, both for matter of government & and Plantacon as likewise what trades they drine both at home and abroade, who are the cheife and richest men, & haue the greatest power amongst them whether their clamors against his Lo<sup>pp</sup>s pattent continue and whether they increase or diminish, who they are of note that shew themselves most in it, and to find out as neere as they can, what is the true reason of their disgust against it, or whether there be really any other reason but what, being well examined procedes rather from spleene and malice then from any other cause; And to informe his L<sup>pp</sup> exactly what they vnderstand in any of these particulers.

8. That they take all occasions to gaine and oblige any of the Councell of Virginea, that they shall vnderstand incline to haue a good correspondency wth his L<sup>pp</sup>s plantation, either by permission of trade to them in a reasonable proportion, wthin his L<sup>pp</sup>s precincts, or any other way they can, so it be cleerely vnderstood that it is by the way of courtesy and not of right.

9. That where they intend to settle the Plantacon they first make choice of a fitt place, and a competent quantity of ground for a fort wthin w<sup>ch</sup> or neere vnto it a convenient house, and a church or a chappel adiacent may be built, for the seate of his L<sup>pp</sup> or his Governor or other Com̄issioners for the time being in his absence, both w<sup>ch</sup> his Lo<sup>pp</sup> would haue them take care should in the first place be erected, in some proportion at least, as much as is necessary for present vse though not so compleate in euery part as in fine afterwards they may be and to send his L<sup>pp</sup> a Platt of it and of the scituation, by the next oportunity, if it be done by that time, if not or but part of it neuertheless to send a Platt of what they intend to do in it. That they likewise make choise of a fitt place neere vnto it to seate a towne.

10. That they cause all the Planters to build their houses in as decent and vniforme a manner as their abilities and the place will afford, & neere adioyning one to an other, and for that purpose to cause streetes to be marked out where they intend to place the towne and to oblige euery man to buyld one by an other according to that rule and that they cause diuisions of Land to be made adioyning on the back sides of their houses and to be assigned vnto them for gardens and such vses according to the proportion of euery ones building and aduventure and as the conveniency of the place will afford w<sup>ch</sup> his L<sup>pp</sup> referreth to their discretion, but is desirous to haue a particuler account from them what they do in it, that his Lo<sup>pp</sup> may be satisfied that euery man hath iustice done vnto him.

11. That as soone as conveniently they can they cause his L<sup>pp</sup>s surveyor Robert Simpson to survay out such a proportion of Land both in and about the intended towne as likewise wthin the Countrey adioyning as wilbe necessary to be assigned to the present aduenturers, and that they assigne euery adventurer his proportion of Land both in and about the intended towne, as alsoe wthin the Countrey adioyning, according to the proportion of his aduerture and the conditions of plantacon propounded by his Lo<sup>pp</sup> to the first aduenterers, w<sup>ch</sup> his L<sup>opp</sup> in convenient time will confirme vnto them by Pattent. And heerein his L<sup>opp</sup> wills his said Gouvernor and Com̄missioners to take care that in each of the aforesaid places, that is to say in and about the first intended Towne and in the Countrey adiacent they cause in the first and most convenient places a proportion of Land to be sett out for his L<sup>opps</sup> owne proper vse and inheritance according to the number of men he sends this first yeare vpon his owne account; and as he alloweth vnto the aduenterers, before any other be assigned his part; wth w<sup>ch</sup> (although his Lopp might very well make a difference of proportion between himself and the aduenterers) he will in this first colony, content himself, for the better encouragement and accomodation of the first aduenterers, vnto whom his L<sup>opp</sup> conceiue himself more bound in honor and is therefore desirous to giue more satisfaction in euery thing then he intends to do vnto any that shall come heereafter. That they cause his Lo<sup>pps</sup> surveyor likewise to drawe an exact mapp of as much of the countrey as they shall discover together wth the soundings of the riuers and Baye, and to send it to his L<sup>opp</sup>.

12. That they cause all the planters to employ their seruants in planting of sufficient quantity of come and other prouision of victuall and that they do not suffer them to plant any other comodity whatsoeuer before that be done in a sufficient proportion w<sup>ch</sup> they are to obserue yearly.

13. That they cause all sorts of men in the plantation to be musterod and trained in military discipline and that there be days appoynted for that purpose either weckely or monthly according to the conueniency of other occasions; w<sup>ch</sup> are duly

14. That they informe themselves whether there be any convenient place wthin his L<sup>o</sup>ps precincts for the making of Salt whether there be proper earth for the making of saltpeter and if there be in what quantity; whether there be probability of Iron oare or any other mines and that they be carefull to find out what other comodities may probably be made and that they giue his L<sup>o</sup>pp notice together wth their opinions of them.

15. That In fine they bee very carefull to do iustice to every man wthout partiality, and that they auoid any occasion of difference wth those of Virginea and to haue as litle to do wth them as they can this first yeare that they conuiue and suffer litle iniuries from them rather then to engage themselves in a publique quarrell wth them, w<sup>ch</sup> may disturbe the buisness much in England in the Infancy of it. And that they giue vnto his L<sup>o</sup>pp an exact account by their letters from time to time of their proceedings both in these instructions from Article to Article and in any other accident that shall happen worthy his L<sup>o</sup>ps notice, that therevpon his L<sup>o</sup>pp may giue them farther instructions what to doe and that by every conveyance by w<sup>ch</sup> they send any letters as his L<sup>o</sup>pp would not haue them to omitt any they send likewise a Duplicate of the letters w<sup>ch</sup> they writt by the last conveyance before that, least they should haue failed and not be come to his L<sup>o</sup>ps hands.

THOMAS SMITH'S ACCOUNT OF HIS CAPTURE.

[Superscription.]

M<sup>r</sup> Tho: Smiths relation of his voyage when hee was taken by the Marylanders
1635

The relacion of Tho: Smith of his voyage to Potuxant River in the Pinace the Long Tayle wherein hee was taken by the Marylanders.

The 26th day of March 1635 I being sent in the Pinace the long taile by Cap<sup>t</sup> William Claiborne to trade for corne and furs, the said Cap<sup>t</sup> Claiborne hauing deliuered mee a Coppie of his ma<sup>ts</sup> letter lately sent vnto him for the confermacon of the Comission formerly granted vnto the said Cap<sup>t</sup> Claiborne for trade in the Collonies of America.

The 4th day of Aprill I arriued at Mattapany. The 5th day
came ouer land thither and demanded by what power I traded I told them by vertue of his ma<sup>ts</sup> Comission and letter granted to Cap<sup>t</sup> Claiborne of w<sup>ch</sup> I had coppies of each they demanded the sight of them w<sup>ch</sup> I shewed them they peruse-ing of them Cap<sup>t</sup> flecte replied that this paper did not any way license the said Cap<sup>t</sup> Clayborne to trade any further then the Ile of Kent and that I must goe for Maryland
wth the Pinace, but Cap<sup>t</sup> Humber replied it was a false Coppie and grounded vpon false informacon, and soe turned himselfe to Cap<sup>t</sup> flecte said come let vs board them w<sup>ch</sup> they did notwthstanding I told them they had best take heede what they did it was not good iesting wth paper w<sup>ch</sup> came from his ma<sup>tie</sup>.

Cap<sup>t</sup> flecte, Cap<sup>t</sup> Humber wth the rest of their Companie entred the vessell the Longtaile and turned our men on shore wthout any armes to defend themselves from the natives notwthstanding I entreated them not to leaue our men wthout armes ashore, to w<sup>ch</sup> Cap<sup>t</sup> flecte answered they were as safe as if they were aboard.

I desired them to shew mee their Co<sup>m</sup>mission by w<sup>ch</sup> they tooke vs but they would shew mee none.

The next day they sent for our men a board and turned them into their barge: who had that night lien in the woods very dangerously the natives being vp in armes amongst themselves.

The said Cap<sup>t</sup> flect comaunded mee to goe for Maryland wth him in our little boate and spake with the Governour w<sup>ch</sup> I did and by the way wee had some discourse about the accusa<sup>o</sup>n for w<sup>ch</sup> Cap<sup>t</sup> Claybourne was last yeare accused of by the Marylanders for complotting wth the Indians to cutt off the English that were at Yawocomoco: Cap<sup>t</sup> flect told mee, that w<sup>ch</sup> hee said of that busines was drawne from him by a wile, in comon discourse and that hee was verie sorrie for speaking any such thing, and that although it bee reported in Virginia that hee had taken his oath of those things, yet it was not soe, and that hee did not take it to bee an oath, for all that was done done was the Governour gaue him the said flect a little latine booke, and bade him kisse it saying nothing and if there were any such busines reported amongst the Indians about Cap<sup>t</sup> Claiborne yet they were a people that were not to be beleued and the said flect said to mee, before God I did not know it was a testament, the said flecte told mee when Cap<sup>t</sup> Cornwallis and M<sup>r</sup> Hally brought him a writting and asked him whether hee would set his hand to itt, first haucing caused them to put out many things that were in it soe by their persuations set his hand to it.

When wee came to Maryland I found the Gouverno<sup>r</sup> was not there, Cap<sup>t</sup> Cornewalles being left his deptic I went to him and told him, that Cap<sup>t</sup> flect had taken our Vessell and turned our men a shore Cap<sup>t</sup> Cornewalles told mee they did noe more then what they had order for to doe by Comission to make stay of all vessells w<sup>ch</sup> they should find trading wthin the Province of the Lord Baltimore: the said Cap<sup>t</sup> desired to see the Comission by w<sup>ch</sup> I traded and haucing scene the foure Coppies hee told mee hee did wonder much at Cap<sup>t</sup> Claibornes strange proceedings for said hee were this a true coppie it hath only relation to the Hand where hee liueth but said hee doubted truth of this pap<sup>r</sup> first in regard they were grounded vpon false informaçon I told him I would bee deposed they were true Coppies to w<sup>ch</sup> hee said my oath was as good as nothing the said Cap<sup>t</sup> told mee, hee would the next morning goe with mee aboard w<sup>ch</sup> the next Day hee did, and when I came aboard I found all the men turnd a shore againe wthout any armes to defend themselues from the natiues, haucing not long been there and had some discourse wth Cap<sup>t</sup> Humber hee told mee the vessell must goe for Maryland and there stay vntill the Gouverno<sup>r</sup> came home: and if I and the rest would goe with him by land wee should bee welcome for in the boate wee should not goe, he leaving the charg of the vessell with Capt: Humber I desired to leane one to looke to the trucke w<sup>ch</sup> the said Cap<sup>t</sup> denied: further the said Cap<sup>t</sup> told mee that if there were any such letters graunted by his ma<sup>tie</sup> it was got by indirect waies in regard they had noe notice thereof from the Lord Baltimore I desired wee might returne home if not all yet one w<sup>ch</sup> was denied, and being all turned ashore without any peece or armes but one peece which I had myselfe.

Within 2 daies after our being there the Governour came home who when our vessell was come about sent for vs to waite on his pleasure when wee should bee called being seet at Cap<sup>t</sup> Cornewalles house accompanied with the said Cap<sup>t</sup> and one M<sup>r</sup> Greene sent his Marshall for mee, when I came the Governour told mee hee understood that some of his people had made staie of a vessell of Cap<sup>t</sup> Claibornes of w<sup>ch</sup> I had comaund of I told they had, hee demaunded of mee whether I traded for myselfe or for Cap<sup>t</sup> Claiborne I told him for Cap<sup>t</sup> Claiborne hee demaunded a note vnder my hand to testifie as much, w<sup>ch</sup> I making a stand at, hee told mee he would keepe mee prisoner to answeere it, if I would not set my hand to a note w<sup>ch</sup> they made w<sup>ch</sup> I did. Hee demaunded what Comission I had to trade I told him I had a Coppie of his ma<sup>ts</sup> Comission graunted to Cap<sup>t</sup> Claiborne and also a Coppie of a letter sent by his ma<sup>tie</sup> for the confirma<sup>o</sup>n of the same the Governour told mee for his former Comission it was worth nothing because hee was not to trade wthin theire limitts, and for the Coppie of his ma<sup>ts</sup> letter hee said was a paper without any publick notaries hand and was worth nothing being grounded vpon false informa<sup>o</sup>n and that hee had scene one of them in Virginia and if it were true it was gotten by some indirect meanes for they had not any notice of it from the Lord Baltimore, and that hee intended to keepe the vessell wth the goods I demaunded of him how wee should get home hee told mee should not returne for Kent but hee would send vs for England or for Kecotan I told him wee were in want of corne, hee said it could not bee, I offered to bee deposed that the Coppies were true, and that I had examined them, hee said my oath is as good as nothing, the next day hee sent for all the goods a shore wthout any knowledg of myne or any of our companies and brooke open a chest w<sup>ch</sup> was both locked and nayled, the goods being ashore I desired our Invoyce wth a certificate to shew the reason of staying the vessell w<sup>ch</sup> with much a doe I had, some of our Beaver I see presently disposed of and some of the cloth I saw sold to an indian haucing spent 4 or 5 daies there and seeing noe hopes of haucing our vessell againe I desired the Governour wee might returne home w<sup>ch</sup> with some other meanes I made by some friends hee granted wee should goe: but hee was sorrie hee had noe boate to send vs home in: having at that tyme 3 boates riding at his dore. I told him if there was noe other way I would make some meanes by the indians w<sup>ch</sup> hee granted I should doe, the next day wee were sent away without either peece or victuals but one peece w<sup>ch</sup> I had myselfe haucing 20 leagers to goe wthout any meanes but such as wee should find from the Indians w<sup>ch</sup> with greate danger it pleased god to send vs safe home This I will bee readie to, iustifie vpon oath whensoever I shall bee therevnto called

HENRY EWBANK'S ACCOUNT OF HIS CAPTURE.

[Indorsement.]

Copie of Henry Ewbancks Relation
Of his being Seized
at the head of Patuxent in April 1635.

The Relation of Henry Ewbanck concerninge his beinge taken Prisoner at Mattappany at the head of Pataxunt River the 5th of Aprill 1635.

travell to Mary Land on foote, beinge comen thither wee remayned 3 or 4 dayes before wee could speake wth the Gouverno<sup>r</sup> who at last beinge set in Court wth Cap<sup>t</sup> Cornwallys and M<sup>r</sup> Greene he sent for me in, when I came to the Gouverno<sup>r</sup> he said vnto me, did you come Sirrah from Mattappany I answered him yes againe, he asked me what I did there and who sent me. I told him I traded for furr<sup>s</sup> wth the Indians and that Cap<sup>t</sup> Clayborne sent me, Againe he said Sirrah how durst yo<sup>n</sup> trade there, knoweinge it was in the p<sup>r</sup>einets of this Province and knoweinge of Cap<sup>t</sup> Claybornes vnlawfull and dishonest practizes, wth the Indians to cutt of this o<sup>r</sup> Plantacōn yo<sup>n</sup> beinge the Interp<sup>r</sup>ter and Instrum<sup>t</sup> to doe it, I replyd that I did not know that it was in their p<sup>r</sup>einets, nor that Cap<sup>t</sup> Clayborne had ever practized wth the Indians against them and that for my owne pte I would be deposd vpon my oath th<sup>t</sup> I was neuer an Instrum<sup>t</sup> or Interp<sup>r</sup>ted to the Indians for Cap<sup>t</sup> Claiborne, in any such kind, and pfered them to take my oath of it then but they would not giue it me, then he caused certaine writings to be made for me to sett my hand to, and they were to effect that I should Justifie that Cap<sup>t</sup> Claiborne had vnlawfully practized wth the Indians against them, w<sup>ch</sup> the Clerke to my best remembrance in readinge the writinge to me neuer mencōned any such thinge.

I had like to haue set my hand to it, beleivinge it had ben as the Clerke read it, but I takinge it in my owne hand and readinge it found it to be otherwise, then he reade it to me whereypon I refused to set my hand to it, then the Gouverno<sup>r</sup> caused it to be changed twice againe, w<sup>ch</sup> beinge don he told me it had ben all one if I had set my hand to the other, for they were all three as one in effect, then agayne he told me he would either send me to Virginia or to England for I should not retourne to Cap<sup>t</sup> Clayborne any more to be his instrum<sup>t</sup> in his unlawfull practizes, but afterwards the Governo<sup>r</sup> risinge from the table and comeinge to me in a Milder way then he had don, before callinge me by my name tould me if I would take employ<sup>m</sup>t from him I should haue good meanes and be welcome to him, I replyd, S<sup>r</sup> I can not answer it to be employed by yo<sup>n</sup> or any other beinge as yet Cap<sup>t</sup> Claybornes Couenant Seruant, then he said take employ<sup>m</sup>t of me and lett me alone to answer it, then he further demaunded of me if I would resolute to take employ<sup>m</sup>t I told him noe then he bid me thinke vpon it, Moreouer I heard him say that all the Baye downeward wthin 6 or 8 myles of Akamak both easterue shoare and Westerne shoare was wthin their p<sup>r</sup>einets, and wthin 3 or 4 dayes after he sent me and the rest of o<sup>r</sup> Company away wthout Armes or victualls to home in a Cannow a matter of twenty leagues through the Townes of the Indians. Moreouer I remember that Cap<sup>t</sup> flecte beinge set at supper wth Cap<sup>t</sup> Cornwallis and the Kinge of Potuxun fallinge into discourse of the Accusations layd against Cap<sup>t</sup> Clayborne, The last yeare Cap<sup>t</sup> flecte sayd it had ben very breife in the Mouthes of the Indians all wayes vntill that his last voyage and that then he said he heard nothinge, moreouer he said that he had sayd too much of it, and he thought not that M<sup>r</sup> Hawley would haue drawen his comen discourse into writinge, if he had he would haue ben more warye, f<sup>f</sup>urthermore he told me that I had cause to thanke god that he came soe happily to take me out of the hands of the Indians who as he said would haue killed mee, w<sup>ch</sup> I know to be false and not soe, And againe the Indians told me that it was by meanes of Cap<sup>t</sup> Claybornes Cloth, w<sup>ch</sup> Cap<sup>t</sup> flecte tooke in his Pinnaces that he bought the Beavo<sup>r</sup> it beinge better liked of the Indians then that w<sup>ch</sup> they had of the Governo<sup>rs</sup> the Indians sayeing it was nought. And all this I wilbe ready when I shall be called to be deposed on and soe I haue heremto sett my hand.

Signed

HENRY EWBANCK.

M<sup>r</sup> Rich. Kemp to (Secretary)
from Virginia

[Superscription.]

To the Right Hono<sup>ble</sup> and my very good Lord the Lord Baltimore
these Present

My Lord :

At the tyme of the receiving of yo<sup>r</sup> Lor<sup>ships</sup> sayd Letters I expected yo<sup>r</sup> Brothers arrivall daily in Virginia, but vnderstanding after, that he was imbarqued about the Isle of Kent busines, I writt to him desiring advice from him, but at this date have heard nothing of him.

I have onely hitherto made inquirye where to make the purchase of what yo<sup>r</sup> desire, the reason why I have not dealt further is, first the streightnes of the tyme limited mee being

Christmas, w<sup>ch</sup> was a short warning and the tyme of the yeare soe vnseasonable that in likely hood before they could have bene deliu<sup>ed</sup> they would all have perished for want of fodder w<sup>ch</sup> is very rare in Virginea, and I beleeeve not yett knowen in Maryland, but how ever tis the Most dangerous, and only fatall tyme for Murreine of Cattle, w<sup>ch</sup> they fynd, who are best provided to p<sup>r</sup>serve them.

The other in that Capt West in his Complaint against S<sup>r</sup> John Harvey bringeth mee in also as much guiltye for receiuing fiue shillings for a Tickett for every Passenger that goeth out of the Colonye. The first yo<sup>r</sup> Lor<sup>pp</sup> will fynd fully Answered in the duplicate if they will allow of the Kings Order.

The other I will never deny to have receiued being Warranted thereto by my Commission, as being a flee belonging to all Sec<sup>r</sup>taryes before mee and soe rated by Act of Assembly, before my tyme, And yf Capt West had bethought himselfe he might have knowen, that by an Order of Court three yeares before my arrivall (himselfe being one att the making thereof) the Sec<sup>r</sup>tarye may receive ten shillings for every passe, and soe proportionably double for all other fées more then I ever demanded. I have p<sup>r</sup>sumed to trouble yo<sup>r</sup> Lor<sup>pp</sup> wth the Copies of the Acts, and of the sayd Order of Court hoping of yo<sup>r</sup> Lor<sup>pps</sup> favour to pduce them if there shall be Occasion.

The frequent, and Constant Reports this yeare of a Companye comming vpon vs doe at p<sup>r</sup>sent much distract vs, in so much that most are rather contriving how to desert the place then too loose any more Indeaour heere, where noe stabilitye of their Affaires is to be expected.

Yo<sup>r</sup> Hono<sup>rs</sup> interest (I feare) will not be least in the p<sup>r</sup>judice thereof for yf some of the cheifest of those who designe a Companye be true to their Oaths, yo<sup>u</sup> must expect all the opposition that malice can giue.

I hope yo<sup>r</sup> Lor<sup>pp</sup> will fynd power and meanes to prevent them, yf wee can leape this Rub I doubt not but ou<sup>r</sup> Affaires will run a more even course heerafter. Thus resting

Yo<sup>r</sup> Brother and I have likewyse conferrd
 about yo<sup>r</sup> demands, the conclusion whereof he hath promised mee to giue yo<sup>r</sup> Lor<sup>pp</sup> an Account of, As also of a pposition w<sup>ch</sup> if intended (according to the Information to vs brought) and deuly psequed, and assisted may perchance giue a blow to the new Companye, if it be not advanced too farr allreadye.

 me,
 from Virginea
 against M<sup>r</sup> Hawley.

[Superscription.]

To the Right Hono<sup>ble</sup> and my
 very good Lord the Lord
 Baltimore these present

My Lord

By my Last of the 6th of Aprill I p<sup>r</sup>esented yo<sup>r</sup> Lor<sup>pp</sup> wth the duplicates of the Acts of ou<sup>r</sup> Last Assembly wth the whole proceedings thereof, And because what concerneth the interest of soe noble a freind may be noe vnwellecome Information to yo<sup>r</sup> I haue herewth presented yo<sup>r</sup> Lor<sup>pp</sup> wth the Cotype of the Pattent sent this yeare to my Lord Matravers.

I beseech yo<sup>r</sup> Lor<sup>pp</sup> to allow mee of yo<sup>r</sup> favour in the acquainting yo<sup>u</sup> how it stands wth vs vpon the arrivall of the new Treasurer M<sup>r</sup> Hawlye. The generall disgust of the Inhabitants was and is such against him that the Last Assembly had disabled him from that place, and power he holds, had not the Governo<sup>r</sup> and Councell curb'd their proceedings.

At that tyme M<sup>r</sup> Hawlye had given noe other account to vs of the extent of his power then what his commission expressed w<sup>ch</sup> warranted him noe further then what did belong to former Treasurers and expressly for the Receiuing of the quitt Rents in the Execution whereof ney ther the Governo<sup>r</sup> nor any of the counsell conceiued any iniurye to themselves.

When the Assembly was dissolved, he then pdueed to vs his Instructions, wherein fines, and all other perquisites to the King were expressly wthin the Lymitts of his commission, as also all Grants of Land were first to passe his appbation, and allowance and vpon what termes they were to passe was left to his discretion.

In which particulars the Governo<sup>r</sup> and Councell had inst cause to doubt what his Intendments were.

The Governo<sup>r</sup> found his mayne subsistance taken away, And in especiall manner such a mayme it must be to all succeeding Governo<sup>rs</sup> that how they can live wthout forcing meanes of being from the people is not in my experience of the place to sett downe, for granting the Kings pension of one thousand pounds p annu<sup>m</sup> payed after the Rates of provision in this country (hiring or building of howsing being considered) it can in noe measure giue him supportance equall to the Quallitye of his place.

And for the Grants of Land as the termes haue ben allwayes certeine soe the priuledge and power of granting haue by Antient Charter bene given and as in all succeeding tymes soe the Last yeare were againe confirmed to the Governo<sup>r</sup> and Counsell. This suddain Alteration as it gives infinite distraction to the people, soe it must wthout doubt much discourage, and dishearten those who haue, and doe serve his ma<sup>tie</sup> heere in the places of Governo<sup>r</sup> and Counsell.

And heere yo<sup>r</sup> Lor<sup>ps</sup> may please to giue mee leave to be something sensible of my owne suffering. The Office and benefitt of the Invoices wth was formerly belonging to the place of Secretary is now by expresse warrant a peculiar perquisite to his place (this following I receiue by information). His Intents are to gaine the profitts of the Pattents, and to haue the keeping of the Scales, what is the remaynder of my fees will not cloth, and paye one Clarke yearely.

My Predecesso<sup>rs</sup> in this place had an allowance of twenty servants and cattell wth all what I at any tyme haue inioyed what soe many servants in those tymes when Tobacco was sold for foure shillings p pound might yeild may without over Rating be valeiwed at one thousand pounds p Annum, this allowance (as it belonged to former Seertaryes) was granted mee, yet I inioy noe part of it, though the Labour of the place be doubled.

And if M<sup>r</sup> Hawley thus gleane from mee, and wthall increase my toile (for his Execution and Account will be very short wthout my help, and furtherance from the Records, I conceiue yo<sup>r</sup> Lor<sup>ps</sup> will Judge I doe not without cause exhibite this my greiuanee.

Why I haue taken the boldnes to trouble yo<sup>r</sup> Lor<sup>ps</sup> wth this Relation, without the Least Intimation heerein to any other, with fauour I am thus induced. Because I receiue from vndoubted Information that the effect of M<sup>r</sup> Hawlye his busines proceeded from yo<sup>r</sup> Lor<sup>ps</sup> fauour in his behalf.

I am from my owne assurance as confident that yo<sup>r</sup> Lor<sup>ps</sup> intents had noe aime eyther of publiq greiuanee, or lessening those whose service yo<sup>a</sup> may please in any tryall to command. All w<sup>ch</sup> therefore I humbly tender to yo<sup>r</sup> Lor<sup>ps</sup> consideration. Resting.

RICH: KEMP.

James Cittie this 25th of Aprill 1638.

Yo<sup>r</sup> Brother the other day acquainted mee wth yo<sup>r</sup> Lor<sup>ps</sup> commands to pponnd to the next Assembly that for the better Regulating of the Trade in the Bay, the bounds of yo<sup>r</sup> Lor<sup>ps</sup> Province might be sett downe in an Act wthin w<sup>ch</sup> those of Virginia should not Trade, wthout Lycense from thence and soe on the contrarye, wherein I will not fayle effectually to serve yo<sup>r</sup> Lor<sup>ps</sup>

Frances Wyatt

[Superscription.]

To the Right Hono<sup>ble</sup> and my
very good Lord the Lord
Baltimore these humbly Present

My Lord

I received Lately a Letter from Saricant Maior Donne and a Leiffenant Evelyn wherein I was desired wth all seereeye and dispatch to certifye certeine depositions to prove the designe of poisoning the Indians in the tyme of S<sup>r</sup> Francis Wyatts Government, as allso that through his Oversight and vnskillfull Carriage many people were drawn from their Plantations to their greate p<sup>r</sup>indice and to the much dishonour of the Nation, to w<sup>ch</sup> purpose I haue vsed all possible Indeavour and sent them in this inclosed packett wth other materiall writings extracted out of the Records affirming the Slaverye indured by the people there vnder the Tyrannye of the Companye. Their further Advice was to direct my Letters in a Cover cyther to my Lord Matrevers & M<sup>r</sup> Eudimion Porter for Capt Bond (they being both his freinds) But I have declined that course not being Confident enough of a safe conveiance to cyther of their hands. And therefore Assuring my selfe of yo<sup>r</sup> Lor<sup>ps</sup> pardon heerin I did peure one M<sup>r</sup> Clegy an Agent for M<sup>r</sup> Jennings to direct the packett to him and by this meanes to be sent to yo<sup>r</sup> Lor<sup>ps</sup>.

By the first Shipp the Rebecca yo<sup>r</sup> Lor<sup>ps</sup> may perchance have vnderstoode of the bad newes w<sup>ch</sup> then freshly arrived before the going of that shipp concerning the cutting of yo<sup>r</sup> people at Maryland. But I am confident it will prove but an Indian flane to amaze vs w<sup>ch</sup> is usuall among them. My reasons being that both yo<sup>r</sup> Brother himselfe and Boates from this Colonye speedilye went to inquire the truth, w<sup>ch</sup> if it had bene ou<sup>r</sup> owne Boates at least would have returned and given the alarm, for if th<sup>t</sup> be soe, the Danger knocketh att our owne doores, and wee are resolved to meete it and not Attend it.

Next wee have made particular inquirye both of the Chichomung Indians and the Pamonkey Indians whoe are neighbouring to the Wicocomicoes concerning whom the Report goeth, that it was committed by them. But these know nothing thereof, w<sup>ch</sup> if they did, they would freely relate being Enemies at p<sup>s</sup>ent to those Wicocomicoes. yf they have attempted anything and that more danger be doubted. Wee will be readye wth our whole forces to Vindicate yo<sup>r</sup> Cause, and assure their further safeties. Thus humbly resting

serve yo<sup>n</sup>

THOMAS COPLEY TO LORD BALTIMORE.

[Indorsement.]

3 Aprill 1638
M<sup>r</sup> Tho. Copley to me,
from S<sup>t</sup> Maries heerein are demands of very extravagant priuiledges

[Superscription.]

To the Right Hon<sup>ble</sup> the

I wrot unto your lor<sup>sh</sup> laityly very largely by Captaine Hopson, enclosed in a letter to my cousen Genio, and befor that in a letter sent by M<sup>r</sup> Robert Euelinge. Now therfor only

according to the present occasion, I will giue your lor<sup>pe</sup> some accounte touchinge the laite assembly and the proceedings thereof—

First then as I acquainted your lor<sup>pe</sup> in my former letter It was not fitt that we should be there in person, and our Proxis would not be admitted in that manner, as we could send them, and therfor as we weare excluded thence, Soe we did not intermeddle wth them there. Yet M<sup>r</sup> Lugar conceauing that some that had relation to us weare not soe fauourable to his waye, as he desired, seemed in some sorte to attribute the same to us, But I will assure your lor<sup>pe</sup> that he was much mistaken, for truly we weare noe cause therof, as he might easily haue gathered in that William Lewis who is our ouerseier, and had more Proxis then all the rest, was euer concurring wth him, w<sup>ch</sup> could not haue binne if we had binne auerse, but howsoeuer, I came not heare that euer any of the rest weare auerse to any thinge that concerned your lor<sup>pe</sup> and therfor if he should write any thinge to that effecte, your lor<sup>pe</sup> may be confidente that they are meere frinolous suspicions of his owne, wthout any true grounde. Truly the diuill is verry busie here to raise such lyke apprehensions, w<sup>ch</sup> though most false, yet they serue his turne to hinder much the frute, w<sup>ch</sup> otherwyse we might haue, but I trust that you lor<sup>pe</sup> will be warye of them, and not doubte, but that next unto god, we are sincerely your lor<sup>pe</sup>s perhapse much more then those, who seeming more, are indeed most there owne.

Touching the lawes w<sup>ch</sup> your lor<sup>pe</sup> sent, I am told that they would not be accepted and, euen the Gouenour, and M<sup>r</sup> Lugar said once to me, that they weare not fitt for this Colonye. for myne owne parte, seeing noe seruice that I could doe your lor<sup>pe</sup> therein and many inconuenies that I might runne into by intermedlinge, I neuer soe much as rede them nether doe I yet know what they contained; for the temporall providence I left my selfe to your lor<sup>ty</sup> and for matter of conscience, I supposed that your lor<sup>ty</sup> had taken good advise what occasion then could I have to intermeddle aboute them? The lawes w<sup>ch</sup> now are sent to your lor<sup>ty</sup> I never knew nor saw till even now, that they weare ready to be sent to your lor<sup>ty</sup>. And there being hast to send them, I only gott a hasty new of them. Yet diverse things even in that hasty reeding occurred to me, w<sup>ch</sup> I conceaned requisite to acquainte you wth all, leauing them to your lor<sup>ty</sup>s more serious consideration.

First then reflecting on the Infancy of this Plantation, and on the many difficultye that are in conserning it, many things, that herafter when it should be fully planted might be profitable unto it, at this time seemed lyklier to keepe it backe then to forwarde it. As for example whereas It is required, that 20 men be registred here befor any one canne pretend to a mannor, I doubte very much, whether many will be found in England, that will be able and willing to venture at first such a charge, easpecially if they reflecte, that in case some of there men dye runne away or miscarry, they must turne freeholders, and out of the remainder of there misfortune pay for every hundred acre of ground yeerly one barrell of Corne, a painment perhaps not very heauy to one who getting a maite and labouring faithfully himselfe, and taking but one hundred acre, will haue noe greate difficultye to pay it, but to a gentleman, who hath a companye of headstronge seruants w<sup>ch</sup> in the beginning easpecially shall scarcely maintaine themselne, this burden will cumme heauy.

And accordingly M<sup>r</sup> Greene one of the Gentlemen that came in the Arke, reflecting that besydes the losse of his halfe share of trucke, he was now to pay tenne barrells of Corne for his 10000 acres and that only he had three men to raise that and maintaine himselfe and his wyfe confidently told me that he must necessarily deserte the Colonye. But further suppose that one should raise men sufficient to git a Mannor, Yet when he shall reflecte, that whatsoener happeneth, he cannot sell his Mannor, but by keeping it he must be necessitated to live where perhaps he hath noe will, I doubt that many will be terrified by that hazard. Besyds, by these laws every lord of a Mannor must pay 20 shillings for every thousand acres, he must in his owne persons, wth all his able men and free holders, be mustered, and be subiecte to the fines and punishments of the muster maister, who may search his munition every month, and perhaps punish him for that w<sup>ch</sup> he could not possibly git. In the service of the country he must send 15 freemen, and by those of his Mannor maintaine them during the time of service he must provide himselfe and his men wth necessarie munition, he shall not trade, but be compelled to plante, though most of those that maide the lawe, haue tolde me that there is noe commoditye to be gott by planting. His taxes and publique service must be more then in other countrys, because the men here are very few, and if these lawe shall be executed by busye heads, the vexations they may raise upon very few men will not be few, and yet if through the abuse of some base baleife or the lyke officer they should happen to stricke an officer, he shall loose lyfe lands and goods. Truly I am sure that if these things should be exactly pursued, that few would tarry, and whether if by publique lawe such things be once bruted many will cumme, I doubt much. This I am sure that some here reflecting on what they haue donne say plainly that if they cannot live here, they cannot live else where, and therfor that they care not much. Others complaine very much that by the many Proxies w<sup>ch</sup> the Governour, M<sup>r</sup> Lugar, and there instruments had gotten, they did what they would, wthout any restraints at all. Others already question the Validity of they lawes because they say that they canne prooue, that they weare neuer red thrice in the same tenor, others say other things, and if the only apprehension of future consequence already beginne to affright them, what will the consequence themselue doe. Truly I doubte that euen in the most flourishing countrys lords of Mannors, would conceaue such lyke laws some what burdensom. What then will those apprehend, who shall be soe weake that they shall scarcely be able to stande of themselves? Certainly I conceaue that your lor<sup>de</sup> will rather thinke it fit to nourish and support younge sprigs, then to deprese them; and to goe aboute to gather frute befor it be planted, and ripe, is neuer to haue frute.

But perhaps some may be of opinion, that if your lor<sup>de</sup> canne but haue the trade of Beaver and Corue to your selfe, the plantation is not much to be regarded. And the fewer there are the better choire will be for them, and that amonge Ruens they shall alwaye find some-thinge. Yet against this I would desyre your lor<sup>de</sup> to reflecte that in a flourishing plantation, Your lor<sup>de</sup> shall euer be sure of a growing profit and honor. But in these petty trades and in raking out of mens necessitye, the honor will be little, and the profitt uery uncertaine. Some that are immediate actors perhaps may gitt some thinge, but your lor<sup>de</sup> shall be sure if you your selfe haue the profite, to make large disbursments, and to receaue large accompts, and besydes I am of opinion that god will not prosper such designes, where if your lor<sup>de</sup> reiecting them sticke to your first designes, god in time will giue them a happy successe, and raise to your selfe and your seed noe small Blessinge. Here certainly nothinge is wanting but people let it be peopled, and it shall not yeeld to the most flourishing country for profitt and pleasure, the promoting then of this must be your first aime, and this your lor<sup>ne</sup> must encourage by all means, and when your fruts are ripe, it will be time to gather them. Now only you must nourish plants, and while you expect fruts from others, by your selfe seeke fruts from the earth, w<sup>ch</sup> may be gathered in plenty, if your lor<sup>ne</sup> please to cumme and see, and resolve on the best, for mine owne parte I haue soe good an apprehension of the country, that I noe way repent me of my iourney, but lye very contentedly and doubte not but if I cumme haue pacience and expecte the seasons, I shall find as happy frute here as in any other parte of the world. But endedd the old saings are true that Roome was not bulte in a day, and that such as will lipe ouer style, befor they cumme at them, shall breake there shin, and perhaps not gitt ouer the still soe quickly, as those, who cumme to them, befor they goe ouer.

Many other things to this effect will occure to your lor<sup>ne</sup> upon better consideration then I could take, yet these occuring I could not omitte to suggest them. I beseech almighty god, that your lor<sup>ne</sup> may make the best use of them, to gods greatest glorie, and your owne temple. But now I will say some thinge of the Inconuenience fallinge by these lawes of the church of god, w<sup>ch</sup> should haue binne regarded in the first place, but was not thought of, as it seemeth by the lawe. In w<sup>ch</sup>

First there is not any care at all taken, to promote the conuersion of the Indians, to prouide or to shew any fauor to Ecclesiasticall persons, or to preserue for the church the Immunitye and priueledges, w<sup>ch</sup> she enioyeth euery where else; But rather M<sup>r</sup> Luygar seemeth to defende opinions here, that she hath noe priualedges inre diuino. That bulls Canons and Casuists are little to be regarded in these cases, because they speake for themselues, as if others oposing them had noe selfe interest and therfor must know better what belongs to the church then she hirselfe. That Prineledge are not due to the church till the common wealths in w<sup>ch</sup> the church is grante them. And therfor while they grante none, I doubt that not only M<sup>r</sup> Lugar, but also some others that I feare adhere to much to him, conceaue that they may proceed wth Ecclesiasticall persons an wth others, and accordingly they seeme to resolute to bind them to all there lawes, and to exacte of them as of others, and in practice already they haue formerly granted warrants against some that dwell wth us, whom though the shrive (who hath formerly bin a pursueante, and is now a cheife protestante) desyred me to send him downe, Yet he added (euen befor the Governor if I be not mistaken) that he must otherwyse fech him downe. Againc euen already befor your lor<sup>ps</sup> haue confirmed the lawes; M<sup>r</sup> Lugar hath demanded of me to be paid this yeere fyftee hundred weight of Tobacco towards the bulding a fort, Whereas I dare boldly say that the whole Colony together neuer bestowed on me the worth of five hundred weight one would thinke that euen out of Gratitude, they might free us from such kinde of taxation easpecially seing, we put noe taxe upon them, but healpe them gratis, and healpe them also in such a manner, that I am sure they canne not complaine.

Secondly by the new lawe we should relinquish what we haue, and then cast lotts in what place we shall chooce, and if our lott prooue ill, what we haue already may be chosen from us and soe we may beginne the world anew, and then ether we must loose all our buldinge, all our cleering, all our enlosures, and all our tennants, or else be forced to sitt freeholders, and to pay for enery hundred acres one barrell of corne whereas we are not yet in a little care to gitt bread.

3<sup>dly</sup> Though we should haue the best lott ; yet if we should choose Metapanian first, then we are sure to loose M<sup>r</sup> Gerards Mannor, notwthstanding that we haue bought it at a deere raite, and if we permit this precedent that Assemblys may alter mens rights ; noe man shall shall neuer be sure of what he hath, but he that canne git most proxis in enery assembly shall dispose of any mans estate that he pleaseth, w<sup>ch</sup> is most unlawfull in the churches state, for any secular man to doe, and for ecclesiasticall persons to permit.

4<sup>dly</sup> Taking any Mannor, we must be trained as sooldiers we must provide munition, we must haue in enery mannor 15 freemen ready for the seruice of the country, whom we must also maintaine in time of seruice, and others things we should be subiecte to by these lawes, w<sup>ch</sup> would be uery unfitt for us.

5<sup>dly</sup> It is expected that enery head plante two acres of Corne, wheras therfor already we find by experience that we canne not possibly employ halfe our number in planting, we must ether turne planters ourselues, or else be forced to be trenching upon this law and as more cumme in unlesse our men also increase we shall still trench more.

6<sup>thly</sup> We should not only loose our trade in Beaver and Corne, but euen for the corne w<sup>ch</sup> we shall need to buy for bread, we must aske leaue, and if such as are to giue leaue should haue a desygne to monopolize the Corne, or for any other respects would be crose, upon what extremityes would the quickly cast us ; really, I should be uery loth to liue at the cutesy of other men.

7<sup>ly</sup> Though I am resolu'd to take no land but under your lo<sup>vs</sup> title yet time may cumme, that perhaps it would prooue noe small inconuenience, that a conuerted Indian Kinge may not giue to him to conuerteth soe much land as might suffice to buld a church or a house on, And I would desyre your

lor<sup>pe</sup> to enquire whether any one that should goe aboute to restraine ecclesiasticall libertys in this points encurre not the excommunications of Bulla Cœne

8<sup>ly</sup> In every Mannor 100 acres must be laid out for Gleabe lande, if then the intencion should be to bind them to be pastors who enioy it, we must ether, by retaining soe much euen in our owne land undertake the office of Pastors, or lesse euen in our owne Mannor maintaine Pastors, both w<sup>ch</sup> to us would be uery Inconuenient.

9<sup>ly</sup> That it may be preuented that noe woman here uow chastety in the world, unlesse she marry wthin seauen yeers after land fall to hir, she must ether dispose away of hir land, or else she shall forfeite it to the nexte of kinne, and if she haue but one Mannor, wheras she canne not alienaite it, it is gonne unlesse she git a husband. To what purpose this ole law is maid your lor<sup>pe</sup> perhaps will see better then I for my parte I see greate difficultyes in it, but to what purpose I well see not.

10<sup>ly</sup> In the order sett downe for paiment of debts, I had not time to examine it, I desyn your lor<sup>pe</sup> to gitt it well pondered, for I doubtte It runneth not right wth that w<sup>ch</sup> is ordinarily prescribed by Casuits as inst.

11<sup>ly</sup> *In the 34 law amonge the Enormous Crime One is Exercisinge inridiction and authoritye, wthout lawfull power and commission dirined from the lord proprietarie. Herby euen by Catholiques a law is provided to hange any catholique bishop that should emme hither and also euery preist, if the exercise of his functions be interpreted inridiction or authority. Diuerse other things I doubtte not but that your lor<sup>pe</sup> will obserue, when wth better consideration then I haue doune, you shall reed ouer these lawes. Yet this may suffice to giue your lor<sup>pe</sup> a Caution not to be inuolued in these grosse ouersyghts.*

I hope that gods grace time and good instruction may by degrees make men here more sensible of god, and of his church and of the comersion of Infidels hertofoer soe much pretended. But for the present gods cause is committed to your lor<sup>sh</sup> hands

And that your lor<sup>sh</sup> may be sure to proceed right therein, I beseech your lor<sup>sh</sup> befor you doe any thinge abonte these lawes, that you would be pleased to reed ouer and to ponder well the Bulla Come. Secondly that in things concerninge the church your lor<sup>sh</sup> would take good advise of the church. Thirdly that your lor<sup>sh</sup> would be uery wary not to trench upon the church and where any thinge may seeme to trench, to use fitt praueention against the bad consequence. And to healpe to settle our quiet here. I beseech your lor<sup>sh</sup> to send me a priuate order, that we may while the gouernment is catholique enjoy thes priuiledges follow

The first that the church and our houses may be Sanctuarie

The second that our selues and our domestique seruants, and halfe at least of our planting seruants, may be free from publique taxes and seruices, And that the rest of our seruants and our tenants, though exteriorly the doe as others

All their tenants as well as seruants he intimates heere ought to be exempted from the temporall gouernment.

[Note in Baltimore's hand.]

in the Colony, Yet that in the manner of exacting or doing it, prinatly the custome of other catholiques countrye may be obserued as much as may be that catholiques out of bad practice cumme not to forgit those due respects w<sup>ch</sup> they owe to god and his church.

The third is that though in publique we suffer our cause to be heard and tryed by the publique magestrats, yet that in priuate they know, that they doe it but as arbitrators and defendors of the church because Ecclesiasticall iurisdiction is not yet here settled.

The fourth. That in our owne persons and wth such as are needfull to assiste us, we may freely goe, abide and live amonge the Sauvages, wth out any licence to be had here from the Governour, or any other.

lastly. that though we relinquish the use of many ecclesiasticall priueledge when we iudge it conuenient for satisfaction of the state at home, yet that it be left to our discretion to determine when this is requisite; and that we be suffered to enjoy such other priueledges as we may wth out note.

And touching our temporalties. first I beseech your lor<sup>ps</sup> that we may take up and keepe soe much lande, as in my former letters I acquainted your lor<sup>ps</sup> to be requisite for our present occasions, according to the first conditions w<sup>ch</sup> we maid wth your lor<sup>ps</sup> and that albeit we now take not up neere our due, yet that hereafter we may take it up when we find it fitt according to our aduentures. And if of that w<sup>ch</sup> we now haue a parte proue conuenient to be laide out for a towne at S<sup>t</sup> Maries, Be confidente that I will be as forward and free as any. Soe that things be carried in a faire and equall manner. But I verily belieue that if the lande be left in our hand, the place shall much sooner be bult on and planted, then if it be taken out.

In the trade I shall requeste that your lor<sup>ps</sup> performe soe much, as that we may employ one bote whensoeuer we shall not otherwise use it. My reason is, because of necessitye we must keepe a bote and when we use hir not, if we haue not this employment for hir we shall not be able to supporte hir charge. The thinge is uery necessarie for us, and not inconuenient to your lor<sup>ps</sup> whatsoeuer some ouer greedy to engrose this trade may suggest to the contrarie. I assure my selfe that your lor<sup>ps</sup> will not stande wth us for soe small a matter. The game I ualew uery little, but the conueniency uery much, and therfor I beseech your lor<sup>pe</sup> not to runne us into a greate inconuenience for a uery small or noe profitt to your selfe.

I desyre lykwyse from your lor<sup>pe</sup> a free Grante to buy corn of the Indians wthout asking leaue here, for endedd It will be a greate pressure to eate our bread at there curtesye, who as yet I haue found but uery little curtuons. Certainly while the cheife of this Colony thus wholly neglect planting, and thinke on nothing but on a peddling trade certainly in the Colony, they will still make a scarcity of bread, and in that scarcity if we shall not be able to healpe ourselues nor the Colonye wthout there leaue, that make the want, many greate difficultyes may follow. Certainly I haue this yeere planted, much more, then the greatest parte of the Colonye besyde, and soe intende to continue what I am able, because endedd in planting I place my greatest hope, yet for some yeers I know that I must buy, and in buying there canne be noe inconuenience to your lor<sup>pe</sup> to grante me a generall licence. And therfor I trust that your lor<sup>pe</sup> will not denye it, and to encourage your lor<sup>pe</sup> to doe us fauour, this much I will be bold to tell your lor<sup>pe</sup> that though my principall intention be to serue your lor<sup>pe</sup> to the prime end, w<sup>ch</sup> is the healpe of soules, yet in peopling and planting this place, I am sure that none haue donne neere soe much as we, nor endedd are lykly to doe soe much. We are resolved to liue and dye here under your lor<sup>pe</sup> w<sup>ch</sup> I thinke few others are. Sweete Jesus grante that all may be to his greatest glorie, and if to this your lor<sup>pe</sup> freely concurre, God I doubt not will also concurre wth your lor<sup>pe</sup> and for this blesse the rest, w<sup>ch</sup> I beseech him to doe wth as many Blessings as he wisheth who will euer be

Your lor<sup>pe</sup> serious well wisher and seruant T. C.

S. Maries this 3 of Aprill

1638.

Since the writing of the former letter I am told that M<sup>r</sup> Lugar defends publicly in the Colony, that an assembly may dispose here of any mans lands or goods as it please if this weare once bruted and beliened I conceane that none would ether cumme or abide here, easpecially where if any factions working man canne but procure an ouerswaing number of Voices by Proxes, he shall undoe whome he please, and none shall be sure of any thinge that he hath, seeing experience hath shewed that one that would labor for it, may quickly git such a faction and such an ouerswaing noice of Proxis that he may carry what he will really I much feare, that this ouerbusye stirringe to many new querks and denises, will neuer doe your lor<sup>sh</sup> nor the Colony good. I pray god it doe not much harme, according to the old prouerbe that a busye man neuer wants Woe.

THOMAS CORNWALEYS TO LORD BALTIMORE.

16 April 1638

M<sup>r</sup> Tho: Cornwaleys

to me

needfull for the Accomodating of them toe my best Advantage. W<sup>ch</sup> how preindiciall it proved toe mee heere Capt: Anthony Hopson whoe with his Ship was then vpon his departure from hence can partly informe you if you suppose it worth the questioning, And what it may bee in England should my wines tooe probable indisposition disenable her from managing my affayres there, yf Lo<sup>p</sup>: may Imagin. Yet I think non can say that my Pryvate Interrest made mee much repine at the Authorety that comāded mee, nor negligently Exceute what was expected from mee, w<sup>ch</sup> though it proved nothing soe difficult or dangerouse as was Imageined, yet I suppose the Easy effecting of the busynes, doth not deminish the desert of good Desires, but may pas for noe impertinent demonstration, of my recall respects toe yf Lo<sup>ps</sup> Service, notwithstanding the many Sugiestions made toe you of the Contrary, of w<sup>ch</sup> were I Guilty more then I supposed Honor and Contiens did oblige mee, I should not I feare haue the Humilley toe deny it, obstinasy beeing allwayse the effect of self conceited opinions, of w<sup>ch</sup> I hope I am soe Innocent that if youre Lo<sup>p</sup>: or any other can Accuse mee for wilfully swarueing from that vnblameable rule by w<sup>ch</sup> I pretend toe Guide myself and my Actions I am soe far from Perrentory persisting in my Error, As I will not only Acknowledg my fault, but allsoe make what satisfaction the Iniured Party can Expect from my vtmost Abilley. Nor can I think but I haue reason toe Expect the like from others, And therefore I hope what Agreement soe euer yf Lo<sup>p</sup>: makes with Capt: Clayborne, you will cyther Include such A Satisfaction for the Damages I receaued by him, as shall bee worthe my Acceptance, or leaue mee roome toe seeke it myself. W<sup>ch</sup> I assure him I will not fayle toe doe if ever wee meete where there is hope of Impartiall Justice, as I promised his Agents when they had basely betrayde mee. On of whom now Lyes at yr mercy for his Life, And w<sup>ch</sup> is Strange I am A Suter for his Pardon out of meere Charcety towards his Poore wife and Children. W<sup>ch</sup> are reasons that would induce mee toe doe the Like for theyre Cheefe Capt: did hee stand in the Like circumstances, As I doubt not but hee will if hee gayne not A quietus from his Ma<sup>ty</sup>: or yr Lop: for how wee haue proceeded agaynst him heere you will see by the Act made for his Atayneture, w<sup>ch</sup> comes for yr Lo<sup>ps</sup> Confirmation with many others among w<sup>ch</sup> if there were non more vnjust, I should bee as Confydent toe see this same A happy Common wealthe as I am now of the Contrary if yr Lo<sup>e</sup> bee not more wary in Confirmeing then wee haue beene wise in Proposeing. Therefore I beseeche yr Lop: for his Sake whose honor you and wee doe heere pretend, and whoe at Last must Judg wth what Sincerety wee haue discharged it, That you from whose Consent they must receaue the bindeing fors of Lawes, will not permit the Least Clawes toe pas that shall not first bee throughly Scand and resolued by wise Learned and Religious Divines toe bee noe wise prejudiciall toe the Immunityes and Priveledges of that Church w<sup>ch</sup> is the only true Guide toe all Eternall Happines, of w<sup>ch</sup> wee shall shew oureselues the most vngratefull members that ever shee nourished, if in requiteall of those many favors and Blessings that shee and her devoute Servants haue obtayned for vs, wee attempt toe deprivue her or them, of more then wee can giue them or take from them, with out paying such A Price as hee that Buys it will repent his Bargayne. What are her Greevances, and how toe bee remedyed, you will I doubt not vnderstand at Large from those whoe are more knowing in her rights and Consequently more sensyble of her Iniuryes then such an Ignorant Creature as I am. Wherefore now all that belongs toe mee, is only toe importune yr. Lo<sup>p</sup>: in whose powre t'is yet toe mend what wee haue done Amis, toe bee most Carefull in preserueing his Honor whoe must

Preserve both you and Maryland. Perhaps this fault hath beene permitted in vs as A favoure toe yr Lo<sup>d</sup> whereby you may declare the Sincerety of yr: first p<sup>r</sup>ouse pretence for the Planting of this desert Province, w<sup>ch</sup> will bee toe much doubted of if you should take Advantage of oure Ignorant and vncontionable proceedinges toe Assume more then wee can Justly giue you. And for A Little Imaginary Honor, throw yr self vs and yr Country out of that protection w<sup>ch</sup> hath hithertoe preserved and Prospered that and vs beyond Humaine Expectation; w<sup>ch</sup> noe doubt will bee continued if wee Continue as wee ought, toe bee, I never yet heard of any that Lost by beeing bountyfull toe God or his Church, then let not yr Lo<sup>d</sup> feare toe bee the first. Giue vntoe God what doth belong toe him, and doubt not but Cesar shall receaue his due. If yr Lo<sup>d</sup> thinks mee toe teadious in A discourse not proper toe the Part that I doe Act, my Interest in the whole Action must excuse mee, Sylence would perhaps make mee Supposed Accessary toe these dangerouse Positions, w<sup>ch</sup> is soe far from my Intention, that as I now declare toe youre Lo<sup>d</sup> and shall not feare toe doe the like toe all the world if it bee necessary, I will rather Sacrifice myself and all I haue in the defence of Gods Honor and his Churches right, then willingly Consent toe anything that may not stand with the Good Contiens of A Real Catholiek. W<sup>ch</sup> resolution if yr Lo<sup>d</sup> doe not allsoe make good by A Religious Care of what you send over Authorised by yr Consent, I shall with as much Convenient speede as I can with draw myself, and what is Left of that w<sup>ch</sup> I brought with mee, out of the Danger of beeing involud in the ruin w<sup>ch</sup> I shall infallibly expect. Yr Lo<sup>d</sup> knowes my Securety of Contiens was the first Condition that I expected from this Government, w<sup>ch</sup> then you thought soe Inocent as you Conceaved the proposition altogether impertinent, But now I hope you will perceave the Contrary. Nor were it difficult out of the Lawes sent over by y<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>ps</sup>, or these that are from hence proposed toe you, toe finde Just grounds for toe feare the Introdusment of Lawes preiudiciall toe oure honors and freedome utius that an Act whereby wee are expose to A remediles Suffering of all Disgraces and Insolensyes that cyther the Pastion or Mallis of Suckseedeing Go<sup>ts</sup> shall please toe put vpon vs, with out beeing permitted soe much as A Lawfull defence for the securing of Life or reputation though never soe vniustly Attempted toe bee taken from vs, with out forfeyteing the same and all wee haue too boote. This and many other Absurdetyes I doubt not but yr Lop: will finde and Correct vpon the peruseall of oure Learned Lawes, Among w<sup>ch</sup> there is on that Confirms the trade with the Indians for all Comodetyes toe bee exported vntoe yr Lo<sup>p</sup>: by w<sup>ch</sup> there is now in you an vndoubted Powre for toe ratefy yr first Conditions with the first Adventurers, w<sup>ch</sup> I doubt not but y<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>ps</sup> will performe toe theyre Content, whereby they may bee better Enabled and more obliged toe prosecute the good work they haue begun toe God's Honor and y<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>ps</sup> Proflitt. for my part I will not deny myself toe bee perhaps on of the meanest deseruers among them, vnless desires might pas for merritts and then I durst compare with him that wisheth best toe Maryland. As I haue endeavored toe manifest by all expressions that haue come within my reach, nor will I yet desist from doeing soe, if I may bee soe happy as toe see this differens betwixt the Church and Government well reconciled agayne. And yr Lo<sup>ps</sup> at Peace with the first Adventurers, whow are I perceave noe whit satisfied with theyre Last Conditions for the Trade, Theyre harts haueing it seems not seconded theyre hands in the Agreement, but some for loue some for

feare some by Importunety and the rest for Company consented toe what they now repine toe stand toe, nor can I blame them for tis impossible they can bee sauers by it. W<sup>ch</sup> made mee refuse toe beare them Company, and therefore am I now the only Supposed Enemy toe yr Lo<sup>ts</sup> Proffitt, w<sup>ch</sup> I disclayne from vnless there bee an Antipothy betwixt that and my Subeistance on this Place. yr Lop: knowes I came not hither for toe plant Tobacco But haue toe my noe Little Preiudice hithertoe imployde myself and Servants in Publick works. The building of the mill was I Assure yr, Lop: A vast Charge vntoe mee, for besides the Labor of all my owne servants for two yeeres, I was at the Charge of diuers Hirelings at 100: weight of Tob: the monthe with dyet when Corne was at 2: and 300 weight the Barrell, all w<sup>ch</sup> besides diuers materialls for it at Excessive rates is all vtterly lost by the Ignorance of A fooleish milwright whoe set it vpon A Streame that will not fill soe much in six weekes as will grinde six bushells of Corne, soe that myself nor the Colony is any whit the better for all the payns and Cost I haue benee at aboute it; yet doe I not deserue the les of Maryland, for I spared noe Cost nor labor for toe make good toe the vtmost what was Expected from mee, nor will I yet desert it for if I bee not tooe much discouraged by youre Lo<sup>t</sup> I intend toe bestow on 100<sup>l</sup> or 2: more in remoueing of it toe a better Streame, if I can but see such A number in the Colony as will mayntayne A mill with Greeste *in the meane time I am building of A house toe put my head in, of sawn Timber framed
 A story and half hygh, with A seller and Chimnies of brick toe Encourage others toe follow my Example,* for hithertoe wee Liue in Cottages, and for my part I haue not yet had Leysure toe Attend my pryvate Conueniency nor Proffitt w<sup>ch</sup> is not a Little necessary for mee, hancing run myself and fortune

almost out of breathe in Pursute of the Publick good as I doubt not but it will appeere heereafter toe all impartiall Judgments, for I think allready few in the Colony will deny but that the Generallety was Les in debt, necessary Goods more Plentifull and better Cheape, when I only supplied them, and that at the worst hand with goods bought at the Virginian rates, then now they are, when the Country doth abounde with many Dealers. for w<sup>ch</sup> though I am sorry in respect of the Publick Penury, yet I cannot but Acknowledg it as A great favor of Almighty Gods toe mee, since by it is manifested that had I had noe better motiue then the gayne I made, I should never hane put myself toe the Charge paynes and dangers that I under went in the busines. Though I know the Contrary was generally beleued in England, where I was soe much behoulding toe the Charety, or rather Iniured by the mallis of some good People, as toe bee reported for A most vncontionable Extortioner of w<sup>ch</sup> Sin were I guilty I feare I should not soe willingly desist from farther dealeing as now I doe, for seldome or never have I heard or seene Covetousnes decrease with Age, And yet I thank God I finde noe propention toe continue the trouble, though I neyther perceauē my Debtors or Creditors weary of my dealeing, but myself weary of the busynes And am therefore vnwinding myself from these meccannick negotiations as fast as I can recover in my debts, That others may hane roome toe win what I hane lost by Maryland, nor will I Grudge toe see the Suckles answer theyre Expectation, Provided that the Place may thriue as well as they, for I profes myself soe reall A well wisher towards it, That all Pryvate respects are undervallued if they Stand in Competition with the Publick good. Though I think non hath had les encouragement toe continue theyre good wills toe that or youre Lo<sup>ps</sup> Service then myself. It being thought tooe much after all the Labors and Dangers that I haue run through, and all the Costs and Charges that I haue been att, that I should share in any Proffitts that the Place affords, though for the mayntayncing of myself and famely vpon the Place I haue hithertoe yeerely Exhausted soe great A part of A Poore younger brothers fortune, as if I continue it with out some releecue it must needes in time make me vncapable of doeing good toe that or myself. Toe prevent w<sup>ch</sup> I was this yeere determined toe haue waighted vpon y<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>d</sup> in England, and on way or other toe haue Concluded this jatecall difference aboute the Trade. for my Lord I may properly vse the words of the Ghospell, I cannot Digg and to Begg I am Ashamed, if therefor y<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>d</sup> nor y<sup>r</sup> Comntry will afford mee noe other way toe support the great Expenses that I haue beene and dayly am at for my Subcistans heere, but what I must fetch out of the Grounde by Planting this Stinkeing weede of America, I must desert the Place and busynes, w<sup>ch</sup> I confes I shall bee loth toe doe, soe Cordiall A lover am I of them both, yet if I am forst toe it by discourteous Injuries I shall not weepe at parting nor despayre toe finde heauen as neere toe other parts as Maryland. But I will first doe my Endeavor toe Compose things soe as non shall say heereafter that I lost A right I bought soe deere through negligens or Ignorans. Other mens Imaginations are noe infallible presidents toe mee, nor will the multitude of names nor Scales, moue mee toe bee A foole for Company, for what in them was only Inadvertens, non would tearm less then foolery in mee, whoe might or ought toe know by experiens, that it is impossible toe Comply with the Conditions mentioned in the Lease and bee A Saucer by them. And yet for my refusinge toe doe like the rest I doubt not but I am Sugiested the only Antagonist toe yr Lo<sup>d</sup>s Proffitt. When if the thing were rightly vnderstood you would Acknowledg that I haue done you more right then myself, by not Subscribing toe what I should never haue intended willingly toe performe, there wanting not meanes by the neighbourhood of virginia toe haue Easely Avoyded it. Soe that the Event would haue beene insteade of the Expected Proffit, the los of the best part of the trade, w<sup>ch</sup> would haue been drawne out of yr Territoryes by yr own Subjects, whoe beeing there by first toe shelter themselues vnder another Government, and findeing perhaps A Little Sweetnes in it, would quickly grow toe such an Avertion agaynst this Supposed oprestion, As nothing would bee more hatefull toe them then you and y<sup>r</sup> Authorety, And Consequently non soe forward toe depres both that and you, as those that otherwise would bee Zealous Defenders of you both. Had my owne right noe referens toe these reasons my Single opposition would haue Appeered more meritorious then blameable, nor would that alter the Case did you but vnderstand how little my pryvate Proffit would haue bene preiudised by it. All the Inconveniencs that I can reflect on toe myself, would haue benee my fetching the Truck, and carrying what beaver I could get, from and toe Virginia without bayting at St. Maryes. for I think non of the Adventurers would haue grudged mee A little share with them, or at Least denyed toe wink at my proccedeings if they had met mee, but rather perhaps haue done the like themselues, and where then had benee yr Lo<sup>ps</sup> pretended proffitt. But these are my Lord wayse soe Contrary toe my disposition, as I scorn toe profes the practising. I protest toe yr Lo<sup>p</sup> that I am Ashamed toe heare Strangers sometimes take notis of what I haue done and suffered for you and youre Country, and yet toe conclude that neyther my person nor my Estate is secure from Iniury if I venture for the trade in Maryland, without being beholden to my Servants Secrecy, or going with as much Curtion as if I stole what I gott. w<sup>ch</sup> poore kinde of proceeding is so distastfull to mee that though I have beene (for Avoydeing greater Inconvenienses) contented for A time to stoop vnder the burthen, yet am I soe weary of the weight as deemeing it tooe vnworthy of my Longer Patiens that I am resolved to desert the Place, if neyther the right of my first Adventure, nor the Suckeedeing Expressions of my fidellety toe yr Service and yr Countreyes good can meritt soe much favoure from yr Lo<sup>p</sup> as toe permit mee freely for the rent at least soe much yearely as I ventured before I knew whether I should win or loose by the Bargayne. The Proffit of tradeing 60: pounde p<sup>r</sup>: yeere w<sup>ch</sup> is the sum I shall bee satisfied with all, if you shall not think fit toe enlarge it out of yr owne noblenes as an Encouragement toe my future deserts, will vndoubtedly never make mee rich, nor am I ambitious of it, I neuer yet pretended for toe get by Maryland, all I desire is but A help toe keepe mee from Sinking, as you may see by the reasonablenes of my request. w<sup>ch</sup> yet if yr Lo<sup>p</sup> please toe grant without farther trouble toe yrself or mee, I shall take it as the greatest expression of yr Lo<sup>p</sup>s favoure towards mee that ever yet I could boast of. And accordingly by A reall desire to deserue the Continuance Endeavor toe expres A respectiue Acknowledgment of yr readines toe doe mee right w<sup>ch</sup> if I can gayne A fayre way and youre Lo<sup>p</sup>s favoure toe boote, it were tooe greate A disrespectiuenes in mee for toe Attempt the Contrary. If now therefore the Suckses answers not my Expectation I cannot help it whoe have done my part toe let you see how desirous I am toe Avoyde all Publick disputes with you or yr Authority, whilst I am A poore member of yr Colony. What Course the rest of the first Adventurers will steere I know not, for I am Left toe guide my Bark Alone nor would I willingly bee otherwise, vnles wee could vnite oure Harts as well as Purses, w<sup>ch</sup> not beeing fisible, I despayre of ever doeing good in partnerships, and am therefore resolved toe haue noe more Interest in Com̄on Stocks. yet will I not bee much preiudiciall toe those that will, for what I promise cyther for price or quantety shall not fayle toe bee most punctually performed, only I love toe bee the manager of my owne Affayres, w<sup>ch</sup> fauoure if youre Lo<sup>p</sup> please toe grant mee I shall not care for other Approbation. Newes I know yr. Lo<sup>p</sup> looks for non but what Concernes the Com̄onwealth of Maryland in w<sup>ch</sup> what I am defectiue I doubt not but yr. Secretary will Supply whoe is as quick as I am Slow in writcing, and therefore in that part A verry fit Subiect for the place hee bears, And if hee proues not tooe Stiff A maintayner of his owne opinions, and Somewhat tooe forward in Sugiesting new businesses for his owne imployment, hee may perhaps doe God and yr Lo<sup>p</sup>: good Service heere I should bee Sorry toe Change M<sup>r</sup> Hawley for him, whoe I perceatue stands not soe perfect in yr Lo<sup>ps</sup>: fauoure as I could wish him w<sup>ch</sup> perhaps some takeing Advantage at, and willing for toe fish in trobled waters, may by discourteous proceeदेings towards him make him weary of vnprofitable Maryland, And fors him toe A Change more for his peace and Proffit. As Doubtles virginia would bee toe him if hee make good what hee hath vndertaken, of w<sup>ch</sup> I see noe other Likelihood if hee haue not left his worst Enemies behinde him, Among w<sup>ch</sup> number I am Sorry toe see such probabillety of yr Lo<sup>ps</sup>: beeing on as I perceatue there is. What reasons you haue for it is vnknowne toe mee, nor doe I presume toe Judg where the fault is, All that I wish as A Poore friende of his, is that yr Lo<sup>p</sup> rightly vnderstood him for from thens I verrely beleene doth flow those Jealosyes that I

preceane are risen betwixt you, w<sup>ch</sup> beeing increast by misapprehensions of Contentions Spirits must certaynely if not in time prevented by some Charitable reconciliation breake forth with such vyolens as will endanger the noe little preiudice of on or both of you. I Assure yr Lo<sup>ps</sup>: did I know any Just Cause toe Suspect his Sinsereoty toe Maryland, or the designe wee come vpon, I should not bee soe Confydent of his Innosence in deserueing toe ill from you or this Place. I cannot my Lord Suppose A little verball vehemensy vttered in the defens of A mans owne Supposed right, Suffitient toe Conclude him guilty of looseing all former respects toe greater obligations, w<sup>ch</sup> if it bee soe greate A Crime I am toe seeke where I should finde on that would bee free when hee Supposeth his right vniustly questioned. I must confes I cannot pleade not guilty, and yet I doubt not but my greatest Enemies doe really beleene mee for toe bee as I am A most vnfayned friende toe Maryland. And soe I am confident will M<sup>r</sup> Hawley Appeere if you will giue him time and ocaation for toe manifest it, and not by ryolent discourtesyes vpon vncertaine suppositions fors him toe Change his good intentions yr Lo<sup>ps</sup>: knowes how many difficultyes hee past in England, nor hath hee beene exempt from the like in these parts, and therefore hee is not too bee blamed for laying howld of some probable way toe repayre his many misfortunes, there beeing noe Antipothy betwixt that and the continueing of his respects vntoe yr. Lo<sup>ps</sup>. Well may the discharging of the office hee hath vndertaken invite him sometimes toe Looke towards Virginia, but certaynely not with preiudice toe Maryland, from whens hee receaues the greatest Comforts that the world affords him both for Soule and body the on from the Church the other from his wife, whoe by her comporment in these difficult allayes of her husbands, hath manifested as much virtue and discretion as can bee expected from the Sex she owes, whose Industrious huswifery hath soe Adorned this Desert, that should his discouragements fors him toe withdraw himself and her, it would not A Little Eclips the Glory of Maryland. Thus haue I my Lord at large According toe my Capacity commended toe yr noble Consideration such Greevances as for the present I am most sensible of, toe w<sup>ch</sup> I hope toe receaue soe satisfactory an answer from yr. Lo<sup>p</sup> : as will Encourage mee toe A resolution of fixing my Earthly Tabernacle in Maryland. Though I am now preparing for A visit the next yeere intoe England, where I will Supply what is heere wanting concerning the affayres of Maryland. w<sup>ch</sup> now wants A Commander for Martiall Cause I haueing vpon my determination of goeing this yeere for England Surrendered it vp and am loth for soe short A time toe take it Agayne, nevertheless at yr Lo<sup>p</sup>s request, I shall if the Governoe commands mee see that the Publick shall not Suffer for want of Such poore Instructions as I can giue them, whilst I am resident among them, or that some other more able man discharge mee of the Care. In the mean time as I haue ever been A Reall Defender of yr. Lo<sup>p</sup>s right, Soe may you bee Confydent that I will continue. As beeing desirous in all Just wayes toe manyfest myself

Yourre really respectiue freind and Servant

Good Brother :

I haue endeauored this last winter to bring the Inhabitants of the Ile of Kent willingly to submit themselves to your gouernement and to incourage them therevnto I wrote vnto them a letter in Nouember, where amongst other motiues I vsed to perswade them, I promised to free them from all question of any former contempts they had committed against you, so that they would from thence forward desist from the like and submit themselves to the gouernment and to shew them greater fauor I gaue them the choice to name whom they would of the Inhabitants of the Ileand to be their commander; but one Jhon Butler Cleybornes brother in law and one Tho: Smith an agent of Cleybornes vpon Kent was of such power amongst them that they perswaded them still to continue in their former contumacie vpon notice giuen me hereof, I presently appointed Capl Euclin Commander of the Ileand w<sup>ch</sup> formerly I purposely omitted because he was had in a generall dislike amongst them, him they contemned and committed many Insolencies against; wherefore findeing all faire meanes I could vse to be in vaine, and that no way but compulsion was left, I gathered together about twenty musketeers out of the Colony of S<sup>t</sup> Maries and appointing the command of them to Cap<sup>t</sup> Cornewallis whom I tooke as my assistant wth me, I sat saile from S<sup>t</sup> Maries towards Kent about the latter end of November, intending to apprehend Smith and Butler if I could, and by the example of their punishm<sup>t</sup> to reduce the rest to obedience, but it beeing then farre in the winter, the windes were so cross and the weather so fowle in the bay, that after I had remayned a week vpon the water I was foret to returne back and deferre that expedition vntill some fitter tyme, two months affter in the beginning of februarye I was giuen to vnderstand that the Indians at the head of the bay called the Sasquahammongs intended in the spring following to make warre vpon vs at S<sup>t</sup> Maries pretending revenge for our assisting of our neighbors Indians against them two yeares before (w<sup>ch</sup> we neuer did though they will needs thinck so) and that they were encouraged much against vs by Thomas Smith who had transplanted himselfe wth other English from the Ile of Kent the last summer to an Ileand at the head of the bay fower miles below the falls called Palmers Ileand and vnderstanding likewise that they had planted and fortified themselves there by directions from Cap<sup>t</sup> Cleybourne wth intent to line there independent of you (because they supposed it out of the limits of your Prouince) and that the s<sup>t</sup> Smith and M<sup>r</sup> Botler whom I haue formerly mentioned was then preparing to carrie a farther supply from Kent both of men and necessaries to the s<sup>t</sup> Ileand; I thought it expedient to stop their proceedings in the beginnings, and for that purpose haueing aduised wth the counsell about the busines I sat forth from S<sup>t</sup> Maries for the Ile of Kent wth thirtie choice musketteers takeing Cap<sup>t</sup>: Cornewalleis and Capt: Euclin in my company to Cap<sup>t</sup>: Cornew: I appointed the command of those Soldiers I carried wth me, and afterward arrining at the s<sup>d</sup> Ileand I landed wth my company a little before sunne rise, at the southermost end thereof where Cap<sup>t</sup>: Cleybornes howse is seated wthin a small ffort of Pallysadoes, but findeing the gate towards the sea at my comeing fast barred in the inside one of my company beeing acquainted wth the place quickly fownd passage in at an other gate and commeing to the gate w<sup>ch</sup> I was at opened vnto me, so that I was arriued and entered the fort wthout notice taken by any of the Ileand w<sup>ch</sup> I did desire, the easilier to apprehend Boteler and Smith the cheife incendiuaries of the former seditions and mutinies vpon the Ileand, before they should be able to make head against me, and vnderstanding that Boteler and Smith were not then at the fort but at their seuerall plantations I sent to all the lodgings in the fort and caused all the persons that were fownd in them to be brought vnto me thereby to preuent their giueing vntymely notice vnto Boteler and Smith of my comeing, and takeing them all alongst wth me I marched wth my company from thence wth what speed I could towards Botelers dwelling called the great thicket some five miles from the fort and appointed my Pinnass to meet me at an other Place called Craford, and makeing a stand about halfe a mile short of the place, I sent my Ensigne one M<sup>r</sup>: Clerck (that came once wth M<sup>r</sup>: Copley) from England) wth tenne musketteires to Butler to acquaint him that I was come vpon the Ileand to settle the gouernement thereof and commaund his present repaire vnto me at Craford two miles distant from thence, w<sup>ch</sup> the

Ensigne accordingly did and brought Boteler vnto me before I remoued from where he left me, after I had thus possessed myselfe of him I sent my Sericant one Robert Vaughan wth six musketteires to Thomas Smiths who liued at a place called beauer neck right against Boteler on the other side of a Creeck wth like commands as I had formerly giuen for Boteler, and then marching forward wth your Ensigne displayed to Craford by the tyme I was come thither Smith was brought vnto me where haucing both the cheife delinquents against you I first charged them wth their crimes and afterward committed them Prisoners aboard the Pinnass I came in and appointed a gard ouer them, after I caused a proclamation to be made of a generall pardon to all other the Inhabitants of the Heand excepting Boteler and Smith for all former contempts against you that should wthin fower and twenty howers after the proclaiming of the same come in and submit themselves to your gouernement whereypon wthin the time appointed the whole Heand came in and submitted themselves, haucing receiued their submission, I exorted them to a faithfull continuance of the same, and encouraged them thereto by assuring them how ready you would be alwayes vpon their deserts to condescend to any thing for their goods: Afterward I gaue order for the carrying of Boteler and Smith to S<sup>t</sup> Maries in the Pinnass I came in, and wth them sent most of the Soldiers as a gard vpon them commanding them to be deliuered into the custody of the sheriffe at S<sup>t</sup> Maries vntill my returne and my Pinnass to returne to the Heand to me, where till my Pinnasses returne I held a court and heard and determined diuerse causes between the Inhabitants, at the end of the s<sup>d</sup> court I assembled all the Inhabitants to make choise of their delegates to be present for them at a generall assembly then held at S<sup>t</sup> Maries for the makeing of Lawes wth they accordingly did, and before my departure from them I gaue them to vnderstand that enery man that held or desired to hold any land in the Ileand, it was necessarie they should take pattents of it vnder the scale of the Prouince as holding it of you wth they were all very desirous of, so that some tyme this summer I promised to come to the Ileand and bring M<sup>r</sup> Lewger wth me to suruay and lay out theire lands for them and then to pass grants vnto thē of it, reseruing onely such rents and seruices to you as the law of the Prouince should appoint there is vpon the Ileand about one hundred and tventie men able to beare armes as neer as I could gather of the women and children I can make no estimate, in conclusion appointing the commaund of the Ileand to three of them, vist: to M<sup>r</sup> Robert Philpot as commaunder and Williã Cox and Tho: Allē ioynt commissioners wth him I departed for S<sup>t</sup> Maries, where after my arriual I called a grand inquest vpon Smith who fownd a bill against him for Pyracie, wherevpon he was arraigned before the assembly and by thē condemned to suffer death and forfeit, as by a particular act for that purpose assented vnto by the whole howse and sent vnto you, you will perceine; I haue omitted as yet to call M<sup>r</sup> Boteler to his tryall, because I am in hopes by shewing fauor vnto him to make him a good member, but I haue not as yet released him, though I haue taken him out of the sheriffes custody into my owne howse where I intend to haue him remayne vntill I haue made farther experience of his disposition and if I can win him to a good inclination to your Seruice, I shall thinck him fittest to take the commaund of the Ile of Kent; for those others wth haue now that charge from me are very vnable for it, nor is there better to be fownd vpon the Ileand, but least (Boteler demeaning himselfe otherwise then well) and that I should finde cause to thinck him fitter to be punished then pardoned there should want means to giue him condigne punishment for all his former offences; I desire you would send ouer an act the next yeare wth your assent thereto, to be proposed to an assembly in Maryland for their assent censuring Boteler as Smith was for Pyracie w<sup>ch</sup> he committed at the head of the bay neer Palmers Heand in the yeare 1635 vpon a Pinasse belonging to S<sup>t</sup> Maries by takeing and a great quantitie of trucking commodities from Jhon Tomkins and sericant Robert Vaughan who had the charge of her and together wth the s<sup>d</sup> Pinmass and goodes carried the s<sup>d</sup> Tomkins and Vaughan prisoners to Kent. Smith hath solicited you I suppose by his letters for his pardon but I shall desire you that you would leaue it to me to do as I shall finde him to deserue; whereby (if it be possible he should be the better for it) it will take better effect wth him when he shall continue at my mercie vnder whose eye he is: Palmers Heand beeing already seated and fortified and a good stock of cattle to the number of thirteen head put vpon it, I thought not good to supplant but vnderstanding there were fine men inhabiting it seruants to Cap<sup>t</sup> Cleyborne and formerly vnder the command of Smith I sent sericant Robert Vaughan and two others wth him from S<sup>t</sup> Maries to set downe there and to the s<sup>d</sup>: Vaughan gaue the commaund of all the rest, and by reason Cap<sup>t</sup> Cleyborne hath been attainted of felony in the last assembly at S<sup>t</sup> Maries by particular act and sentenced to forfeit all his estate in the Prouince I gaue Vaughan authoritie to take the seruants and other goodes and chattles belonging to Cleyborne vpon the Heand, into his charge and to haue them forth commeing when they shall be demaunded of him together wth what profit shall be made by the sericants labors. I am informed that vpon occasion of discourse giuen before S<sup>t</sup> Jhon Harney M<sup>r</sup> Kempe and M<sup>r</sup> Hawley by

Mr Boteler whether Palmers He were wthin the Prouince of Maryland or no Mr Hawley did so weakly defend your title to it that Boteler grew more confident of proceeding in planting it for his Brother Cleyborne and I haue some reason to thinck that Mr Hawley did willingly let your title fall for some designe sake of his owne vpon trade wth the Sasquahannoughs w<sup>ch</sup> he might conceiue better hopes to advance by its depenice on Virginia then on Maryland. for when I sat in counsell at S<sup>t</sup> Maries about the expedition I made to Kent to stop the proceedings of that designe of Boteler and Smiths planting it, he earnestly diswaded it by suggesting all the reasons he could to make your title doubtfull to it the Heand and then how vnlawfull an act it would be to hinder their planting it, and though it was made appeare that their seating there was most dangerous to the Colony at S<sup>t</sup> Maries by reason that they had encouraged the Indians to set vpon vs and might hereafter furnish them wth gunns to our further harme if we should suffer them to proceed, whereas otherwise Boteler and Smith beeing remoued we might hope to make a peace wth those Indians yet it seemed some designe he had upon their setting downe there was so deate vnto him that he preferred it before the safetic of all vs and his owne family beeing included in the daunger, and would needs haue perswaded it to be in Virginia though the express words of your pattent limits the Prouince to the northward where New England ends but it is apparent that the Heand is wthin your Prouince for the line of fortie by Smiths map by w<sup>ch</sup> the Lords Reliefs lade out the bonds lyeth right ouer the first falls and this Heand is fowre miles to the southerd below those falls as I can witnes for I was there the last summer and obserued it. I beleene the faire promises w<sup>ch</sup> he made you in England whē you procured the preferm<sup>t</sup> he hath in Virginia

how vsefull he would prone to your Colony by it, will neuer be performed by him for nothing moueth him but his owne ends and those he intendeth wholly to remoue from Maryland and place thē in Virginia, and intendeth shortly to remoue his wife and family thither, I am sorry it was your ill fortune to be a meanes of so much good to him who is to ingratefull for it, for he disclaimes that he euer sought your help or had any from you towards his preferment for he thinketh you did not so much as know he pretended to the place he hath nor that you knew he had it vntill a long tyme after it was passed vnto him thus Cap<sup>t</sup> Cornewallis telleth me hath heard him say, and he is of such greouance vnto the Gouvernor and Secretarie of Virginia that they promise to themselues nothing but ruine by his draweing all the perquisites of their two places from them, and do therefore wonder that you would be the meanes of procureing such a place for him, they do both intend by their letters to sollicite your help for the remoueing him and it were well for both Colonies that he were, for he can not haue less power, then too much in that Colony w<sup>ch</sup> (by impou-erishing S<sup>t</sup> Jhon Harney and draweing from him and the secretarie the execution of all the cheife seruices w<sup>ch</sup> the Kings proffitts and the peoples estates hath dependencie on he will bring vnto himselfe; so that Maryland wherein it shall haue occasion to vse Virginia is like shortly to seeke for it onely to him where there is nothing to be hoped for but what is vserviceable to his owne ends and nothing scapeth his designnt though it be neuer so much beyond his reach to compass.

The body of lawes you sent ouer by M<sup>r</sup> Lewger I endeauored to haue had passed by the assembly at Maryland but could not effect it, there was so many things vsuiteable to the peoples good and no way conducing to your proffitt that being they could not be exempted from others w<sup>ch</sup> they willingly would haue passed they were desireous to suspend them all, the particlar exceptions w<sup>ch</sup> were made against them M<sup>r</sup> Lewger hath giuen you an account of in his dispatches to you: others haue been passed in the same assembly and now sent vnto you w<sup>ch</sup> I am perswaded will appear vnto you to provide both for your honor and proffitt as much as those you sent vs did. the trade wth the Indians they wholly exempted themselves from and leaft it to you, onely Cap<sup>t</sup> Cornewallis I haue promised should not want the most I could say vnto you to procure leaue for him that he might rent three twenty pownds shares in it yearely so long as he is a member of your Colony, w<sup>ch</sup> I did as well to decline his hindrance of passing the whole to you, as also to giue him incouragement for the many seruices, he hath done you in the Colony, for though it hath been his fortune and myne to haue had some differences formerly yet in many things I haue had his faithfull assistance for your seruice and in nothing more then in the expedicion to Kent this last winter.

I would not wish you (now it is in your hands to dispose of) to intrest too many sharers in it for that hath been hitherto the distruction both of the trade and the traders, for they neuer agreeing to trade ioyntly did by their severall trade preuent on an others market and by ouer bidding the prise for beauer dayly spoyled the trade whereas if it had been in one hand, or in so many as would haue ioyned, it might haue made some profit to the aduenturers but in the way it hath been hitherto they that haue ysed it hath reaped nothing but losse, wherefore if you shall thinck good to let me haue any share in it I desire you would not interest any other besides Cap<sup>t</sup> Cornewalleis, for there is none else in Maryland that knoweth what belongeth to the trade and therefore are not like to ioyne in the wayes w<sup>ch</sup> are most expedient for the good of it. if you would let it out to vs two for two or three yeares, rent free, I am perswaded it would be brought to such a state by the way we should bring it in that it would be farre more profittable and certaine then ener it was for hereafter or if you thinck good to vse it all your-selfe and send ouer truck for it I shalbe ready to do you the best seruice I can but you must cause boates and hands to be procured of your owne here and not put your-selfe to hyer them for that will eat you out of all your profit if not your principall and you must designe to place ffactories as soone as you can on shore in some conuenient places whereto the trade may be drawne for the way of boating it though the boates be a mans owne is very chargeable and vncertaine. I haue deliuered some Tobaccoes to M<sup>r</sup> Lewger but whether it be sufficient or too much to ballance the accounts I am to passe I can not yet tell for I haue not had tyme since his commeing to make them vp it is not for any profit to my-selfe that I haue purposely delayed it, (as I hope you will do me so much right as to beleene) but for want of Leisure from the publike seruices of the Colony and the necessarie lookeing after some meanes of my owne subsistance w<sup>ch</sup> is so difficult to compass here as it requireth much tyme and labor. I meane this summer to pass all manner of accounts that are between you and me vnto M<sup>r</sup> Lewger, for I haue disposed of all my other businesses so, as I may haue sufficient leisure to do it in. M<sup>r</sup> Lewger is a very seruiceable and diligent man in his secretaries place in Maryland, and a very faithfull and able assistant to me the cedar you writt for by him I could not procure to send this yeare by reason there is very few to be fownd that are vsefull tyber trees two I heard of farrre vp in Patuxent riuer, and two others vpon popphes

Hand in the bay nere to Kent, and the freight and other charges for the shipping them will be so deer that I made a question whether you would thinck fitt to vndergo it, it will stand in eight or tenne pownds a tunne freight for England besides other charges of transporting it to shipping from where it is felled neither is there meanes in Maryland to transport it vnless it might be split into clapboard, and whether it will not be made vserviceable to y<sup>u</sup> by vseing it so, I can not tell because I do not know the vse you designe it for, by your next letters I pray informe me what you will haue done in it. the matts w<sup>ch</sup> you wrot for amounts to such a charge to be bought from the Indians that I had not sufficient meanes to purchase it, it is not lesse then fortie pownds worth of truck out of England will buy 350 yards of matt besides the charge of seeking them in twentie seuerall indian towns, for vnless they be bespoken there is very few to be had but such as are not worth buyeing to giue a freind, and besides for the vse you intend them it is necessarie they should be all of one make otherwise they cannot flower a roome; and before I shall procure so many yards I must send all the Pronince ouer but if you desire to haue them and will provide truck to buy the<sup>m</sup> vpon farther notice from you I will be speack them, to haue them all in as few places as I can to auoid charge: I am sure my Brother Pottobacco now Emperor of Paskattaway, will assist me in it as much as he can for he is much your freind and seruant and hath expressed himselfe to me to be so and giueth y<sup>u</sup> many thancks after his Indian fashion for your giuft sent him by M<sup>r</sup> Lewger he hath wthin this two yeares stept into the Empire of the Indians by killing his eldest brother, the old Emperor, and enioyeth [it] yet wth peace through the good correspondencie he keepeth wth me w<sup>ch</sup> aweth his Indians from offering any harme vnto

him. I had procured a red bird and kept it a good while to haue sent it to you but I had the ill fortune to loose it by the negligence of my seruant who carelesly let it out of the cage; The beauer w<sup>ch</sup> I sent to you the last yeares belongeth vnto the account of the stock Cap<sup>t</sup> Humber brought ouer.

The Lyon I had for you is dead, if I can get an other I will and send it you. I haue had no leisure all this last winter to Virginia to procure an act to be made by the generall assembly then held there for the securing of your right in the trade wthin your precincts, and thought it to no purpose to recommend it to M<sup>r</sup> Hawleys care after I had vnderstood so much of him concerning Palmers Heand against there next assembly w<sup>ch</sup> will be at the returne of shipping next yeare I will provide a bill drawne as effectuall for that purpose as I can and endeauor what I may to get it passed.

I haue sent you herewth a letter from M<sup>r</sup> Robert Philpot of Kent who hath at this present the commaund of the Heand) to his ffather the keeper of hygh parcke, I pray cause it to be deliuered vnto him and finde some occasion to commend his sonne vnto him for his faire carriage here, as he doth deserue for he came in at the first claime I made of the Heanders submission to your Pattent, and incourage his ffather I pray what you can to supply him this yeare, for that I vnderstand is the intent of his letter to him; I haue writ vnto you concerning the deer you sent for in an other letter by it selfe sent herewth as you appointed me. Thus wth best loue and service to my sister Baltimore and my other two sisters and my Brother Peasely I rest

Your most affectionate

loueing Brother

SECRETARY JOHN LEWGER TO LORD BALTIMORE.

5 January 1638-9

[Indorsement.]

M<sup>r</sup> Lewger to me

My good Lord

I rec. yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup>s of the 30th July: and the 2<sup>d</sup> of August, and another since by m<sup>r</sup> Poulton of the 30th July. To answer to the first. I have acquainted m<sup>r</sup> Poulton wth what yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> writes touching some instructiōns & directions to be sent out of England for the future comportm<sup>t</sup> of their part to yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup>s right & the govern<sup>t</sup> there. but he made strange at most of them, as if he had received no instructiōns touching any of the pticulars, & desired a note of what was written concerning them that they might conforme themselves to it in all points so far as in conscience they might, neither would he believe that m<sup>r</sup> more or any other should give that resolution, that a Catholique magistrate may in discretion proceed here, as well affected magistrates in the like cases doe in England. I should have beene glad to have had resolution touching those cases I sent over, thonghe without any ones hand to it, because it would much have directed me in divers occurrences & difficulties w<sup>ch</sup> we mee<sup>t</sup>e with here. ffor the pnt, we have no differences at all, & I hope we shall have no more, where either part can avoid them; and for the errors past (w<sup>ch</sup> yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup>s speakes of) on the Governours part and mine, if we knew what or which they were, we should be ready to amend them, & should be glad of the proffer on their part of forgiving & forgetting of them: but we are yet confident we have committed none that we can condemne for errors either in point of irreverence or disrespect to their persons, or in violation of their liberties, as the p̄nt condition of the state there is. And for my owne part I professe before Almighty God, that I am not conscions of any thing yet done out of disrespect to their persons, functions, or rightfull liberties; & that hereafter they shall find me as ready to serve and honour them as yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>b</sup> can wish. I sent inclosed in yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>ps</sup> packett a lre to M<sup>r</sup> Pricc, but I heare no answeare at all of it, nor any thing whereby to guesse that he hath received it. Let me be so much beholding to yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> as to lett him know how much I desire from him an answeare of my letter; and that the onely cause of my not writing to him this yeare is want of matter to write of, he is one whom I shall ever acknowledge myselfe infinitely obliged to, and I beseech God reward him for all his charity to me & mine. ffor the wreck, the boate is laid vp at mattapanient; not worth the repairing; the beaver & peake is deliverd to the Govern<sup>r</sup> as p̄quisites of his office of Admirall. I acquainted the Govern<sup>r</sup> wth what yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>b</sup> wrote touching the 6<sup>l</sup> 10<sup>l</sup> demanded by m<sup>r</sup> Greene; but he saith wisemans adventure was never parted from the stock, but the proceeds of it was sent vp to yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>b</sup> wth the rest, & that he had special order from yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>b</sup> at the Cowes not to deliver to wiseman his part, So that it seems yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> is accomptable to wisemans assignes for it, & therefore I desire to have some order from yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>b</sup> in it, because the next winter if it be not satisfied, m<sup>r</sup> Greene will putt his complaint into the Court & without doubt will recover it; & I would rather have it satisfied without compulsion. ffor the acquittances, the Govern<sup>r</sup> saith he did take acquittances from wintour and Gerard and others that had their shares delivered them, and he sent them by the Dove, where they miscarried.

ffor m<sup>rs</sup> Eures stock I have received the whole accompt from the Govern<sup>r</sup> whereby there is charged vpon yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> 2360<sup>l</sup> of tobacco; and vpon himselfe 2636<sup>l</sup> w<sup>ch</sup> I have received of him vpon accompt; w<sup>ch</sup> is in the whole, 5000 weight of tobacco, within 4<sup>l</sup> the Accompt it selfe as I remember I have already sent to yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>p</sup> by my last dispatche. now for the disposall of this 5000 w<sup>t</sup> I am yet vncertaine what to doe wth it. Kine is a very slow profitt & when yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup>s stock of cattell is come vpon the place, wilbe somewhat hazardons, in regard the place wilbe over stockt; except they be committed to some body in a plantation far from the towne, who will have care of providing them wth winter fodder; & I doe not yet know any couple (for the dairy will require a woman) to whom to committ such a charge. ffor the present I doe resolve the speediest way of employing it to the greatest profitt, wilbe by a stock of swine, w<sup>ch</sup> may be kept some 6. mile hence at the head of S<sup>t</sup> Georges river where all the cheife marshes bee in w<sup>ch</sup> the swine delight; & here I intend to settle a plantation of mine owne this spring, who shall plant corne for the swine, and shall build sties and necessary pens for them, & shall lead them out to their places of feeding; & m<sup>rs</sup> Eures stock shall buy the swine, & I will keepe them for one halfe of the increase at the vsuall rate of these countries is. And if this proiect succeed, it will yeeld a very considerable reueneue to her after the first yeare. To this purpose, I doe now send one of my men wth the Govern<sup>r</sup> to virginia to lay out for 30. or 40. breeding sowes if they may be had; & assoone as I hear from him againe, I will in hand

wth my plantation, & the building of sties to bring them into. If this designe meete with any difficulties I will send up m<sup>rs</sup> Eure her tobaccos into England, to returne commodities hether againe for them, if she please to employ it hether againe, for except this of the swine, I doe not know of any way to turne it to better profit, then to drive a trade of commodities with it, w<sup>ch</sup> maketh yearely returne, to good profit, without much hazard.

The tobacco w<sup>ch</sup> is due to this stock from yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> I shall now pay out of m<sup>r</sup> Hawlies debt without lessning yo<sup>r</sup> stock of cattell w<sup>ch</sup> I have yet beene carefull to preserve. ffor the kine sent to the Govern<sup>r</sup> by S<sup>r</sup> John Harvy, I have not taken any accompt of them, because no charge. ffor those sent from Palmers Hand, they are yet whole but one steere, w<sup>ch</sup> the Govern<sup>r</sup> desired to have for his provisions to Kent; & the accompt of that & of whatsoever els I have received of yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup>s, I intend to send by the Captaine. ffor the accompts betweene yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>p</sup> and the Govern<sup>r</sup> he will (he saith) satisfie yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>p</sup> by this dispatch; as likewise he will send an acknowledgm<sup>t</sup> for the 100<sup>l</sup> for him last, w<sup>ch</sup> he saith yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>p</sup> never writt to him of afore now. ffor the Lawes I have litle yet to say to them, (more then what I have said in my diarie) till the Assembly be over; w<sup>ch</sup> is appointed to begin on 12th ffibr. next. m<sup>r</sup> Smith hath sent me over a venture of 100<sup>l</sup> but the greatest part of it in liquors, w<sup>ch</sup> I had rather had beene in any thing els, and if S<sup>r</sup> John Simonds adventure be in liquors, I desire it not, because it will vndoe the colony. But in other commodities (such as I have sent to m<sup>r</sup> Smith for) I wilbe willing and shalbe able (I hope) to returne to the Adventuro<sup>r</sup> twenty vpon the hundred profit; but more I will not vndertake for. The trade of beaver is wholly now in the Govern<sup>rs</sup> and the Captaines hands, without any rivall; and they are ioined partners in the driving of it. The deere yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>d</sup> writes for, I am able to doe nothing in it as yet; & to promise more then I know how to pforme, wilbe litle satisfaction to yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>d</sup>. I will lay out this next spring for as many fawnes as I can, & if I gett any, I will bestow the breeding of them ag<sup>t</sup> shipping goes away the next yeare. The Governours pinnace is now gone to Kent to be putt vpon the stocks, and by that time she is trimmed the Govern<sup>r</sup> intends to be back againe, and to bring away in her the cattell; as fast as he can. And when they come hether I intend to putt them on the other side where Capt. fleete planted for this side wilbe overstockt with them; & starve them all in the winter. ffor the Cedar desired, I know none here worth sending, as I told yo<sup>r</sup> Lop. by my last. ffor the birds, I haue no cage to putt them in when they be taken, nor none about me dextrous in the taking of them, nor feeding of them, & I have my selfe so litle leisure to look after such things, that I can promise litle concerning them. and for the arrowes the Govern<sup>r</sup> will take care, who hath all the commerce wth them, & for my part I scarce see an Indian or an arrow in halfe a yeare neither when I doe see them have I language enoughe to aske an arrow of them. ffor the clerk w<sup>ch</sup> I wrote for, I am now provided wth one whom I intend to bring vp vnder me, & instruct him in the art of surveying. ffor the merchants pipe-staves, wind-mill &c I have given yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>d</sup> some accompt in my diarie. the wind-mill & housing & garden will fall to the Govern<sup>r</sup> by a composition wth I made with him afore his going to Kent, that he should defray all the charges of the expedition, & for his hazard & charge should have all the perquisites of the warre, except the cattell onely; and the pipe-staves, w<sup>ch</sup> he was to have at 10<sup>s</sup> a thousand; and I thinke what he hath, he well deserved; considering the great hazards and

Your Lo<sup>ps</sup> stock of cattell wilbe so sufficient here by that time they are all brought from Kent that I thinke it wilbe a needlesse charge to lay out money for more in virginia. I think these wilbe as many as can bee well looked to and provided for in the winter as yett, f̄lor swine we need not much care though virginia be shutt vp to vs hereafter, for o<sup>r</sup> owne colony or Kent will provide yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> of enow to begin a stock withall at any time; & when I have resolved whom to employ on Captaine fleets side for the looking to your dairy, I shall then take some course for the stocking of that ferme with such swine too, as shalbe fitting to begin with all. And for poultry I can at this present out of my owne stock furnish yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> wth 50 or 60. breeding henns at any time. f̄lor negros I heare of none come in this yeare. I have desired the Govern<sup>r</sup> to be very earnest wth m<sup>r</sup> Kempe to spare yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> out of his flock halfe a hundred ewes this yeare; & if it may be obtained from him, I will pay him out of m<sup>r</sup> Hawlies money. and next to sheepe, I thinke mony wilbe best bestowed on a stock of goates. I spake wth M<sup>r</sup> Copley about m<sup>r</sup> dorrells goods, & he saith that m<sup>r</sup> more hath written nothing to them concerning the allowing of m<sup>r</sup> f̄lorsters debt. and it is fitt if he desire to recover it that he send a lre of Attorney to sue it for him, or procure a lre from m<sup>r</sup> more that they should pay it. there is no will of m<sup>r</sup> Dorrells yet proved, nor admraōn taken out; nor Inventory made of the goods; some of them are yet remaining in my hands w<sup>ch</sup> I will be accomptable for, when any one shewes a lawfull interest to demand them by, w<sup>ch</sup> yet I know of none. ffor the order w<sup>ch</sup> your Lo<sup>p</sup> saith is taken that they of the hill shall have some temporall person, &c it were indeed a very good course for the avoiding of present difficulties; but m<sup>r</sup> Poulton (whom I acquainted wth it) doth not know of any such order taken as yet. The Vngula Aleis w<sup>ch</sup> yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>p</sup> writes for, cannot be had till the summer and then the Govern<sup>r</sup> saith when he goeth to the Sesquisamonghs he will endeavour to procure some. ffor the tenths I gave yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> of a generall Accompt of that matter in my last; by w<sup>ch</sup> yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>p</sup> will find that I have gathred no tenths of any of the rest, & they will thinke themselves very hardly dealt withall to have it exacted of them onely; and besides I am very confident that their gaines of the trade the last yeare will not allow any paym<sup>t</sup> out of it; neither vpon the whole trade w<sup>ch</sup> they have entred in my booke will the tenth amount to any considerable matter; so that wth your Lo<sup>pps</sup> leave I intend to forbear the exacting of it, till further order from yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>p</sup> especially so long as they comply (as they doe begin) wth yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>ps</sup> service here. ffor the housing w<sup>ch</sup> yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>p</sup> directs to be sett vpp, I intend to sett it in hand with all speed, on Captaine ffleets side; w<sup>ch</sup> yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>p</sup> shall doe well to deale wth the Captaine at his coming into England to exchange it wth yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>p</sup> for m<sup>r</sup> Hawlies house &c if your Lo<sup>p</sup> can compound wth m<sup>r</sup> Hawlies heire for the escheate. if you can hinder the Captaine from obtaining that house by any other meanes then yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>ps</sup> grant, he will exchange Capt: ffleets mannor, and all the mannors in the country rather then let S<sup>t</sup> Peters goe (so they call m<sup>r</sup> Hawlies house) to w<sup>ch</sup> he is so much affected for the Saints sake that once inhabited it. I have remembered the Govern<sup>r</sup> to give yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>p</sup> some information in his next touching the country beyond the falls of ffor the bounds betweene vs & virginia the Govern<sup>r</sup> hath already laboured it in virginia, & he hath promised to give y<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>p</sup> an accompt of it by the next likewise.

ffor answeere to the third ; the Govern<sup>r</sup> hath vndertaken to give y<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>p</sup> satisfaction by sending vp the whole accompt : by w<sup>ch</sup> (as I gather) nothing wilbe coming for m<sup>r</sup> medcalfe to dispose of to m<sup>r</sup> Copley.

Little els I can think of at this time, my humble service to my Lady, m<sup>rs</sup> Eure, m<sup>r</sup> Peaslie, and m<sup>rs</sup> Peaslie ; my prayers to Almighty God for his blessing on our yong Prince and m<sup>rs</sup> Anne ; & he multiplie so much happines on your Lo<sup>pp</sup>s head as is wished by

No. 11.

FATHER ANDREW WHITE TO LORD BALTIMORE.

[Superscription.]

20. February 1638.

M<sup>r</sup> Andrew alias Tho : White to the

Lo : Baltimore

from Maryland.

R. Hon<sup>ble</sup> Sir

Having ended in a former my tedious apologic for my reputation, I reflected th<sup>t</sup> I had troubled y<sup>r</sup> L<sup>p</sup> and my selfe to much and yett had filled the measure of y<sup>r</sup> L<sup>ps</sup> expectation nor of my liege duety in signifieng such occurrences and mysteries of the reale publique w<sup>ch</sup> some solitarie howers in studie of y<sup>r</sup> L<sup>ts</sup> happines have recounted vnto mee. As concerning our present estate every day bettering itt selfe by encrease of Planters and plantations and large crops this yeare of Corne and Tobacco the seruants time now expiring: I am well assured th<sup>t</sup> is the subiects of many better pens: therefore I will spare supfluous repetition. This yeare indeed hath proued sick and epidemicall and hath taken away 16 of our Colony rather by disorder of eating flesh and drinking hott waters and wine by aduice of our Chirurgical rather by any great malice of their feuers for they who kept our diett and absteinece generally recovered. Really my Lord I take the cause of the sickness to bee the ouergoodnesse of land w<sup>ch</sup> maketh the viands to substantiall that if duely regulation be not vsed the tyme of summer when the heate of stomakes is comonly weakest eyther they lye vndisgested and to breed agues or are thoroughly disgested and so breed great quantities of blood and vitall spiritts w<sup>ch</sup> taking fyer eyther from the heat of the season our buildings beeing farre unfitt for such a climate or from some violent exercise begett feuers troublesome enough where wee want physick, yet not dangerous at all if people wilbee ruled in their diett, w<sup>ch</sup> is hard for the vulgar vnles wee had an hospitall heere to care them and keepe them to rule perforce w<sup>ch</sup> some worthy persons of this place doe think upon. I had my share thereof beeing twice giuen ouer; but yett left heere for a while to amend and to serue y<sup>r</sup> L<sup>ts</sup> and this Colony better then before. The reliques thereof I carry still about mee not in weakeness of body w<sup>ch</sup> I neuer had less; butt in a decay of my hearing when people speake low and I feare in tyme I may loose altogether: yett as itt is now itt is a hindrance as well in an office I haue as y<sup>r</sup> L<sup>ts</sup> knowes as also in lerning the Indian language w<sup>ch</sup> hath many darke gutturalls, and drowneeth often the last syllable or

letteth it so softly fall as itt is euen by a good care harde to bee vnderstood. I am tould of one in London who is excellent for such cures : and therefore I write to our Great man there for leaue to returne for one yeare for helpe : who knowes whether itt may prooue to wayte upon y<sup>r</sup> L<sup>d</sup> hither the yeare following. ffor w<sup>ch</sup> cause I shall humbly entreat y<sup>r</sup> L<sup>d</sup> to obteyne of the said party one couple more to come wth the next Shippes to M<sup>r</sup> Englebey who liueth in Suffolk and M<sup>r</sup> Benett in Dorcettshyer who both doe infinitely desyre to serue God and y<sup>r</sup> L<sup>d</sup> upon this place and haue signified their desyres to mee by letter. Their coming will relieue mee from the duety I stand heere ; for one yeare : and att my returne I trust to bring more with mee, who will not come alone. This wilbee to verry good purpose, as well humbly to represent sundry things vnto y<sup>r</sup> L<sup>d</sup> w<sup>ch</sup> I dare not committ to letters w<sup>ch</sup> are no better then blabs : as allso to assist a solitude w<sup>ch</sup> since my Cosen Coplays departure thence I conceane the affaires of our Colonye are in ; and haue not many who take them actingly to harte and euen freyndes heare our successes as men doe musick for their owne curiosity : not for our good. And indeede my Lord neyther could my Cosen or any body else tyed to other employments and fixed in the firmament of one place sufficiently doe the busines wee desyre for itt requires a whole man and more ; who will take itt to harte making iourney to and fro throughout Engl<sup>d</sup> to bring in aduenturers and putt a new heate and Spiritt of action therein : for I haue marked that halfe endeanours and want of energye begett delay and delay workes often dishonour and dispayer. I wish I might haue M<sup>r</sup> Altam with mee thither for one who is a true zelante of the good of this place, verry actiue, and stirring and hath many noble freyndes and allies who haue sent him since our coming large signes of their Loue : who wilbee able to giue his disculpa to y<sup>r</sup> L<sup>d</sup> and cleere his innoceny, I hope and returne to helpe the Colonye againe.

Now my Lord in the interim heere is Captayne George Euclin who wisheth much happines to y<sup>r</sup> L<sup>d</sup> and the place. Hee sheweth us a draught of our Prouince deuided into Countres, Baronies, Lordships, etts. Hee speaketh of Citties and townes; of iudicatures, iudges, armes, Captaynies, etts. w<sup>ch</sup> hee tells us y<sup>r</sup> L<sup>d</sup> much approued, and thereon certayne Gentlemen ioyned to come to us wth 500 men: butt entring treaty about the trade of beuer they broake of againe. I see this frame doth not much displease butt itt is thought rather too timely then vnfit for neyther haue the Indians deserted the land and left itt to our diuision nor our paucity of men as yett for itt. The greatness of the lordshippes not vnder 5000 akers and reaching to 9000 is thought by enry body too much. and would bee better from 2000 to 4000 for so, as wee stand att the present wee shall sett closer and make more roome for new aduenturers; and haue more markett townes and some very soone. There was also proposed a consideration of y<sup>r</sup> L<sup>d</sup> infinite charge about this prouince both abroad and att hoame and meanes treated how some profitts might bee rayسد for the mayntenance of y<sup>r</sup> L<sup>d</sup>s person after that decent manner as princes are by right of nations mainteyned in splendor according to their place. Truly my Lord the proposition was well liked and I heard no body so forward in itt as Captayne Cornewallyes. Only hee desyred th<sup>t</sup> for satisfaction of all and for the legality of the way th<sup>t</sup> itt might bee treated in parliament and the pouerty and paucity of the Planters for the present bee duely also considered, and yett some what presently acted therein: and many wayes wilbee found out. I doubt not, where loyall loue seeketh the way, y<sup>r</sup> L<sup>d</sup> is much beloued, and honoured of all. And so to remaine I humbly

y<sup>r</sup> L<sup>d</sup> not easily to lend both cares to any information for emulation wilbee, and this will ouersay. I could wish y<sup>r</sup> L<sup>d</sup> a graue vnpitall freynd to write you the truth. Vis scire cuius rei inopia laborant magna fastigia: quod omnia possidentibus desit. Qui verum dicat. So senecca and an other found none to tell Alexander truth, but his horse; who once casting him made him know hee was not Juppiters sonne when his flatterers chaunted itt to him. Why I say thus: y<sup>r</sup> L<sup>d</sup> shall vnderstand if wee euer meete. In the interim hee itt a riddle: and I returne to the poynt againe. Concerning therefore y<sup>r</sup> L<sup>d</sup>s profits I beleene neryly one in twenty of all menage and trade, for 7 yeares will easily bee graunted by our present pouerty and paucity: and when our number groweth greater and richer; then I thinke th<sup>t</sup> wth Capt. Euelin proposeth to witt. 1. in 100 for euer little enough and too little too. If all weare of my mind I should say to y<sup>r</sup> L<sup>d</sup> as y<sup>r</sup> L<sup>d</sup>s father of glorious memorie said to mee in a l<sup>r</sup> from newfound Land th<sup>t</sup> I would deuide euen euery and the uery last bitt wth y<sup>r</sup> L<sup>d</sup> Therefore my Lord to act in the discipline of affayer, the mayster-poynt is to know where to begin. And truly wth dew reuerence to y<sup>r</sup> better and grauer iudg<sup>t</sup> wee must vse all meanes to full people the country for so small matters from many will grow paramount in the whole. Men must bee brought by the acting diligence of such persons in England who as eyewitnesses can; and, as faythfull seruants to y<sup>r</sup> L<sup>d</sup> and this Colony for Gods glory, will, employ themselues wholly about itt visiting all the shyres of the Land and worke sollicitously by themselues, their freynd, and their allies: wth such a spirit of feruour and paynes: as if God required no other thing in this world att their hands but this. To wth if itt bee added: th<sup>t</sup> euery planter for euery 2000 lb. of Tob. they gather and cure shall putt one man upon the place to serue them and for every 5000 shall putt two men: wee shall soone grow uppe. I suppose all would bee glad to bee so bound for certayne yeares. To this I shall humbly represent this calculation to y<sup>r</sup> L<sup>d</sup> for certayne and indubitable out of our common experience: th<sup>t</sup> if y<sup>r</sup> L<sup>d</sup> laying out 300<sup>l</sup> for transporting of 45 men att 6<sup>l</sup> the man, will adde butt one hundred more for the first yeares provision and putt them vnder a carefull overseer you may binde him to giue you 1000<sup>l</sup> of Tob. viritim, and 7 barrells of Corne enterset wth pease beanes and mazump wth obligation allso to breed you 200 head of poultry and turkeys w<sup>ch</sup> (excepting this last) was my agreement wth my overseer this last yeare and God bee thanked hee pformed itt well and wth ease. I gaue him for his paynes one mans worke of the gang and his owne and all surplusage aboue 1000 a head and about 7 b<sup>rls</sup> item a head: and I thinke hee gained nigh 100 lb sterl. by the bargaine and itt so pleased my Cosen Copley, as hee contineweth the same one yeare more. Now my L<sup>d</sup> by this meanes you will receaue the first yeare 45000 lb besides Corne, to vittuall y<sup>r</sup> men for the yeare following att 3 brls the head, and to buy cloathes for them wth the other 4 brls. w<sup>ch</sup> 45000 lb. in Tob. is more then a thousand lb sterl. w<sup>ch</sup> beeing turned to buy more men for the 2<sup>d</sup> yeare will putt you att 6<sup>l</sup> transpation 177 men w<sup>ch</sup> ioyned wth the former make 222 men whose worke the 2<sup>d</sup> yeare pduceth you 222000 lb Tob. id est, 5550 lb sterl. w<sup>ch</sup> some employed for men att the end of the 2<sup>d</sup> yeare for the third yeares planting makes together wth the former 1143 men w<sup>ch</sup> yeld you the same third yeares end 1143000 lb of Tob. w<sup>ch</sup> will bee able to buy and freight many a shippe. To make this solid itt wilbee necessary to haue each head the 2 and 3 yeare to plante 10 barrells of wheate, th<sup>t</sup> is, three akers a man as some vse heere: th<sup>t</sup> y<sup>r</sup> L<sup>d</sup> may bee att no charge for diett or apparell and after they haue ended their these men beeing sett on Copies may for euer by their chieferent maynteyne y<sup>r</sup> L<sup>s</sup> house and vses with corne etts. Secondly as in ffraunce Spaine and Italic, the Soueraignes doe appropriate the sayle of certayne things for themselves : So I conceaue y<sup>r</sup> L<sup>d</sup> may for a tyme monopolize certayne trades as bringing in a brikeman to serue you for yeares and obliging all to take so many bricks of him as will sett upp so many foote of building more or less according to the degree of person : in contemplation that such houses are cheaper upon the reckoning : necessary for health against heate and coald in this country : and fitter for defense of mens lines against the infidels. And for this a comenient price may be sett on the thousand ; no man pmitted to make bricks but one ; vnless hee bee a seruant and makes for his maysters vse alone. The like I say off Carpenters Hatters, Sawers, Coopers, Smiths, etc. Thirdly, though for the present I should not aduise to deale any more wth hiring of Shippes w<sup>ch</sup> is a busines of great entangle till three yeares of y<sup>r</sup> forsaid plantation bee ended th<sup>t</sup> you may bee able to haue two or three fayer shippes of y<sup>r</sup> owne bought by y<sup>r</sup> mens labours and seamen in them hyred for yeares wth boyes growing upp for the sea vnder them wth one Pilot and his mate wth any Mayster or Captayne but y<sup>r</sup> substitute wth a steward of y<sup>r</sup> wth out any purser : Then my Lord the sea will bring in pfit butt otherwise I neuer heard any way sufficiently warrented to gett by shipp hyre no not though a hyring a shippe I should lett itt to a mayster reseruing transportation of some men and goods gratis wth out any charge of vittualing hir for if shee should cyther miscarry by the maysters faulte w<sup>ch</sup> I putt in hir ; or the mayster not able to pay or the like ; all would recumbye upon mee. Only Seamen themselves are to deale in shipp hyer ; as I think Saluo meliori indicio. But when y<sup>r</sup> L<sup>d</sup> hath ships of y<sup>r</sup> owne then may y<sup>r</sup> Lordsh<sup>p</sup> send Tobacchoes to such places where they went best and bring in all manner of comodities sett uppe magazines in this Colony att reasonable prices and yett make thereby a very great gayne: as the Duke of florence doth out of his Innes. fourthly itt would be very expedient to trie what wine this land will yeld: I haue a strong p<sup>r</sup>sumption that itt will prone well for this autumnne I haue drank wine made of the wilde grapes not inferiour in its age to any wine of Spaigne.

 Itt had much of muscadine grape but was a dark redd inclining to browne. I haue not scene as yett any white grape excepting the foxgrape w<sup>ch</sup> hath some stayne of white but of the red grape I haue scene much diuersity: some less some greater, some stayne, some doe not, some are aromaticall; some not.
 Now if y<sup>r</sup> L<sup>d</sup> would cause some to plante vineyards why may not y<sup>r</sup> L<sup>d</sup> monopolize the wine for some yeares: to y<sup>r</sup> L<sup>d</sup>s great plitt especially if all sortes of vines be gotten out of Spaine and ffrance. True itt is you must haue patience for two or three yeares before the yeld wine but afterward itt is a Constant comoditye and th<sup>t</sup> a very great one too. fifthly y<sup>r</sup> L<sup>d</sup>
 may please to choose some large Hand for a breede of Swine vnder a carefull swineyard who may allso looke to a heard of goates and yong calves from milke all w<sup>ch</sup> bought when they bee very little for no great matter will in few yeares grow upp into great flocks wthout any farther cost att all: whence you may draw for your Darys and y<sup>r</sup> table abundantly. A sixth thing offered ittselfe vnto mee much more beneficiall then all this afore-sayd: w<sup>ch</sup> I will not committe to writing: but will reserue itt to a meeting.

Now my noble L<sup>d</sup> as concerning the trade of beauer; whatsoeuer I can say, after so wise and graue personages who haue fully considered itt, will bee of little importance, yett if your L<sup>d</sup> pleaseth that I lay my opinion together with myselfe att

 to y<sup>r</sup> selfe alone what I thinke concerning the last concordate of five yeares. If I vnderstand not amisse the sharers are to pay the tenth of their cloath and the tenth of theyre beauer for five yeares and then to haue no more right in trade. As concerning the former I feare itt will haue no other effect then to hinder both y<sup>r</sup> L<sup>t</sup> and all the first aduenturers from trading att all y<sup>r</sup> L<sup>t</sup> by conenant ; the aduenturers, by impossibility of
 of calculation in w<sup>ch</sup> euery parte is our comon experience. As concerning the 2<sup>d</sup> I heare men say : that if the right of truck bee taken from them first by this couert and after ward
 by open meanes, they can haue no assurance for the lands you giue them : seeing in the declaration and conditions of planta- tion both share in trade and the land runnes in one and the selfe same tenor and would bee esteemed so if itt weare brought to any hearing. I remember when y<sup>r</sup> L<sup>t</sup> corrected the written Copie w<sup>ch</sup> I made, I gaue y<sup>r</sup> L<sup>t</sup> an occasion vpon the graunt
of trade to reflecte whether itt weare not fitt to limitt the graunt for terme of life and notwthstanding this suggestion y<sup>r</sup> L<sup>t</sup> would haue itt goe absolute as the graunt of land : and now my Lord this beeing only the specially reward of the first Aduenturers, who exposed their liues and fortunes and banished themselues from their freyndes, allies, and Country to serue y<sup>r</sup> L<sup>t</sup> in this plantation : doe not blame them my L<sup>d</sup> if they feele itt and stand for their supposed right on w<sup>ch</sup> their maintenance doth much depend. vntill they shall vnderstand how they can loose that ; and may not heereafter haue their land taken from them too. the forme of graunt for each beeing all one. And as for the concordate signed by so many who vnderstand little of truck and trade, excepting relinquishers ; who care little how itt wayeth : that seemeth to suppose a common stock w<sup>ch</sup> hath ben none since the bad successe of the two former in w<sup>ch</sup> every body was losers w<sup>ch</sup> makes every body protest against itt as an engine and mystery to vndoe y<sup>r</sup> L<sup>d</sup> and them from whence itt followeth th<sup>t</sup> howbeit all Aduenturers in Engl<sup>d</sup> subscribe yett heere being no guilde nor body of traders, as they say, to carry their right by most noices: though all butt one should forgoe theeir right; yett may that one retayne his. Truly my L<sup>d</sup> this doth much trouble the thoughts of our Colony who takes this to bee a stepp to take also their land from them, in tyme vnles they defend this. Good my L<sup>d</sup> I humbly beseech you for reuerence to God and y<sup>r</sup> loue to this xpian Colony of his and y<sup>rs</sup> rather ask this right by way of honour of them for some yeares then presse itt from against their will, w<sup>ch</sup> can not bee wth out losse of their loue at least though no farther inconuenience should follow. Itt is here rather not vnderstood then doubted how such a right bought by a deere aduerture of life and fortunes and giuen as the honorary and distinctiue signe of the first noble vndertakers for y<sup>r</sup> L<sup>ts</sup> Prouince can by any man bee taken from them. Bee the right as itt will: whereof I am no iudge, and may not speake till y<sup>r</sup> L<sup>d</sup> giues mee leaue and I am asked: I beleue the former way as itt was att first w<sup>ch</sup> begett more profit for y<sup>r</sup> L<sup>d</sup> for the trade lyeth farre and wide out of our Colony and much in new Albion then heere: and easie itt will be for y<sup>r</sup> L<sup>ts</sup> subiects to absent themselues from hoame to trade there or att many places besides: from whence will follow that the trade wilbee diuerted from us and a markett sett upp in some neighbouring land: as Capt. flectes and Roberts proiect was: and still is as I feare to a very bad example and diminution of ours. Much better (with humble awe and reuerence bee itt spoken) would itt prooue for y<sup>r</sup> L<sup>d</sup> to haue 3 factoridges in the best places, th<sup>t</sup> is one man in each wth sufficient truck: the one at Palmers Ile for the trade of the Sasquesahanoes the other att Nantakoke for all the Easterne foreland and the third at Anacostans for the Mattomecks : and att the end of May our boate may goe and fetch the beuer wth very small charge, and thus much I signified to y<sup>r</sup> L<sup>p</sup> by the done and to leaue itt to

 haue wearied y<sup>r</sup> L<sup>p</sup> I am sure : and am much ashamed at my tedious manner of expression. A pardon therefore is to bee asked : w<sup>ch</sup> in honour I hope you will giue to this great Par-

Good Brother

By M<sup>r</sup> Ingles Shipp w<sup>ch</sup> is now in the Downes I sent a large dispatch to you as you will find by a note inclosed. I forgott in my former letters to giue you thanks w<sup>ch</sup> I now doe, for yo<sup>r</sup> kindness shewen to Jo : Langford, w<sup>ch</sup>, by his letters to me, he sayes hath been very much : I take it very kindly from you, and I pray continue it : for he will deserue it I make no doubt from you, and I shall requite it in due time to you: the like I must and do say concerning M<sup>r</sup> Robert Euclin, who deserves to be well esteemed by me; and I find by his letters, that you receive contentment in one another, of w<sup>ch</sup> I am very gladd. In my dispatch by M<sup>r</sup> Ingles Shipp wherein one M<sup>r</sup> Gilmett comes recommended from me to you: I desired you to take care for his sojourning some where there to his contentment, w<sup>ch</sup> I desire may be wth yo<sup>r</sup> selfe for many reasons, but I forgott to mention his Boy that wayted vpon him w<sup>ch</sup> must also sojourne wth him for he cannot be decently wth out such an attendance; wherefore I pray take order for him they haue all necessaries of Bedding &c: provided and sent wth them, and I writt then to you to take care also for the sojourning of M<sup>r</sup> Will Territt who comes herewth to you being a Companion of M<sup>r</sup> Gilmetts both whom I recomēd in those l<sup>res</sup> and do now againe very hartily recomēd them to yo<sup>r</sup> care: for they are both He assure yo<sup>r</sup> men of high esteeme heere; and worthy to be cherished and valued by you, in w<sup>ch</sup> you shall extremely much oblige me. Take care therefore also I pray to accomodate the said M<sup>r</sup> Territt wth a convenient place to sojourne in there: and I shall, as I formerly wrote, pay the charge of it, when I know what it is if it can not be done otherwise; w<sup>ch</sup> I hope by your endeavours it may, and I shall take it very kindly from you: howsoeuer you will I hope husband my expence herein the best you can, and I shall pay what is necessary for the sojourning of the aforesaid persons by Bill of exchange hither. The Shipp wherein this letter comes, is sett out by one M<sup>r</sup> Douty a very honest and free-hearted Gentleman, the Master is called Edward More and one of his Mates Tho: Tilson whom you know, as I wrote in some of my other l<sup>res</sup>, but I am desired by this againe to recomēd this Shipp to yo<sup>r</sup> care for the getting all the freight you can for her there, whereby M<sup>r</sup> Douty may be encouraged to adventure thither againe in that way: for he is like to be much a looser Outward bound: and for to gaine yo<sup>r</sup> good will and furtherance, M<sup>r</sup> Douty tells me that he meanes by this Shipp to send you a Teiree of good sack. I pray hasten the designe you wrote vnto me of this yeare, of bringing all the Indians of that province to surrender their interest and right to me, for I vnderstood lately from a member of that Body politique, whom you call those of the Hill there that M<sup>r</sup> White had a great deale of Land giuen him at Pascattoway not long since by Kittamaquund, before his death w<sup>ch</sup> he told me by accident, not conceiuing that that place was wthin my Province, or that I had any thing to doe wth it, for so he sayd that he had been informed and I had some difficulty to satisfy him that it was wthin my Province, By this you may daily perceiue what wayes these men goe, and of what dangerous consequence their proceedings are to me. I pray do not forgett also to prosecute effectually the busines of the tribute from the Indians and the discouery of the redd earth, and to send me the quantity I desired of it wth speed. Me thinks the Indians who are christened, if their conversion be reall, might be brought to assist in their labours, and contributions of Beauer, peake &c. for the building of the New Chappell: endeavour I pray what you can to effect this.

The Colony of Virginia hath this yeare by their petitions hither, desired seuerall things of the King, w<sup>ch</sup> moue but slowly heere for their new Agent S<sup>r</sup> John Berkeley, is no very good Soliciter, and regards litle but his owne subsistence, in w<sup>ch</sup> he finds imployment enough for his thoughts: his fortune being very necessitous. I beleue that I could stand them in some steed heere in their busines, if they would deserue it of me: but it seemes I haue been soe disoblighd this yeare by them ; that I haue little reason to trouble myselfe in their behalf. I haue deserued better of them, for they had long since I dare say been reduced vnder that Company (w<sup>ch</sup> it seemes by their late protestation they so much abhor to come vnder, had it not been for me. You may tell M<sup>r</sup> Kemp by letter from you, or otherwise, that if a Declaration may be obtained from the generall Assembly in Virginea this next yeare, w<sup>ch</sup> may import a settlement of friendship between me & that Colony and an allowance & approbation of my Pattent, and a Disclaime from all petitions deliuered here ag<sup>t</sup> me and my Colony, in their names: and a condemnation of Cleybornes proceedings in the Ile of Kent and elsewhere towards me, and that I and my Colony may haue free trade for, and leaue to transport anything we buy in Virginea, without exception; and that they will make a league offensive & defensiu wth me in such a way as you shall see cause: then I shall be willing to imploy my best endeauours in their affaires here, and I am confident I could find a way to effect those things they desire about mentioned to their contentment: but vnless all those things aforesaid concerning me be first done by them: I will not trouble myself wth them. Soe expecting to heare from you concerning this business wherein I would not haue you negligent, I rest,

Yo<sup>r</sup>. most affectionate loving Brother

London

21 Nou. 1612.

My wife sent an Adventure by M<sup>r</sup> Robert Euclin the last yeare, to be putt off in Virginea for her, at the best aduantage he could, of which he hath by his letters this yeare faithfully promised to send the next yeare to her, a good returne, and a iust account thereof. I haue giuen my Wife satisfaction for the said aduventure ; and I do bestow the one halfe of it vpon you, and the other half vpon the said M<sup>r</sup> Euclin to make yo<sup>r</sup> best benefits of it, without any farther account to me or my wife for it ; and I haue herein enclosed sent you a Note of the particulars of that aduventure vnder M<sup>r</sup> Ro. Euclins hand wth the prices w<sup>ch</sup> they cost in England ; w<sup>ch</sup> I suppose wilbe doubled there, to the end you may know how to demand yo<sup>r</sup> halfe from M<sup>r</sup> Euclin, and being satisfied therein, to deliuer him the said Note againe.

I pray take order that in the next yeares account of my neate cattle there, those w<sup>ch</sup> yo<sup>u</sup> haue of mine and also those w<sup>ch</sup> are in Kent, together wth the increase of both those parts of my stocke ; be truly inserted in the said account, for in M<sup>r</sup> Lewgers last yeares account, they were both omitted, and I pray send M<sup>r</sup> Kemp word that I do not like his way of paym<sup>t</sup> of the 100th w<sup>ch</sup> by his own agreem<sup>t</sup> he acknowledgeth receiued from me, and for w<sup>ch</sup> he was to deliuer me Sheep &c. whither I could haue liberty to transport them or no into Maryland of w<sup>ch</sup> there was no mention in the said agreem<sup>t</sup> as may appeare by the copy thereof w<sup>ch</sup> M<sup>r</sup> Lewger hath, therefore vrge him to deale fairer wth me then so, by letting me haue so many sheep as that money comes vnto, to be sold by yo<sup>r</sup> direction for me in Virginea, and turned into Neat-cattle or els that M<sup>r</sup> Kemp will pay me in Neat-cattle to be transported into Maryland, for I will not accept of the other paym<sup>t</sup> and I pray do you endeaour my satisfaction herein wth expedition, and giue me an account thereof.

I wonder why you gaue such kind entertainment as I understand you did to certaine Dutch, who came it seemes to St<sup>t</sup> Maries the last yeare being some of those who are planted in Delaware bay wth in my prouince. I understand that diuers poore Planters are much preindie'd by the Indians killing their hogges, and that the Indians vpon pretence of their being made Christians are conuined at, by the gouernm<sup>t</sup> there, in this iniury done by them to the planters, to the vndoing of diuers of them, who vpon complaint made, can haue no remedy against the said Indians nor are pmitted to right themselves. I pray if this be true, do not faile to see it timely redressed. I pray haue a speciall care of my ordnance there & send me a pticul<sup>r</sup> note of them the next yeare & an information in what condition they are. I did expect by yo<sup>r</sup> l<sup>r</sup>s this yeare to haue had yo<sup>r</sup> opinion concerning a pposition of setting vp an Iron Work in those pts according to my desire to yo<sup>u</sup> last yeare, a copy of wth pposition I then sent yo<sup>u</sup> but yo<sup>u</sup> do vsually omitt to giue me satisfaction in diu<sup>r</sup>s things, w<sup>ch</sup> I write vnto you about, wherein you do not well: and I haue told you often of.

Good Brother

Iust now I vnderstand that notwthstanding my prohibition to the contrarie another member of those of the Hill there, hath by a slight gott aboard M<sup>r</sup> Ingle's shipp in the Downes to take his passage for Maryland w<sup>ch</sup> for diuers respects I haue reason to resent as a high affront vnto mee wherein if you doe not that right vnto mee as I require from you in my Instructions dat 20 Octobr last: I shall haue iust cause to thinke, that I haue putt my honor there in trust to ill hands who betray mee to all the infamous contempts that may bee Laid vpon mee. This Gentleman the bearer hereof M<sup>r</sup> Territt will acquaint you more pticularly wth my mind herein and wth the opinion and sence w<sup>ch</sup> diuers pious and Learned men here haue to this odious and impudent iniurie offred vnto mee, and wth what is Lawfull and most necessarie to bee done in it as well for the vindication of my honor as in time to p<sup>r</sup>event a growing mischeife vpon mee, vnto whome wherefore I pray giue credit. M<sup>r</sup> Gilmett will I know concurr in opinion wth him, for vpon diuers consults had here (before hee went) hee was well satisfied what might and ought to bee done vpon such an occasion. In case the man aboue mencioned who goes thither in contempt of my prohibition : should bee disposed off in some place out of my province before you can lay hold of him for they are so full of shiftes and deuises as I beleue they may perhaps send him to Pattomack towne thinking by that meanes to auoid yo<sup>r</sup> power of sending him back into those parts, and yett the affront to mee remaine and the danger of p<sup>r</sup>iudice also bee the same, for (whatsoen<sup>r</sup> you may conceiue of them who haue no reason vpon my knowledge to loue them verie much if you knew as much as I doe concerning their speeches and actions here towards you) I am (vpon very good reason) satisfied in my iudgm<sup>t</sup> that they doe designe my destruction and I haue too good cause to suspect, that if they cannot make or mainteine a partie by degrees among the English, to bring their ends about they will endeauour to doe it by the Indians wthin a verie short time by arming them &c. against all those that shall oppose them and all vnder pretence of God's hono<sup>r</sup> and the propagacon of the Christian faith, wth shall bee the maske and vizard to hide their other designes wthall. If all things that Clergie men should doe vpon these p<sup>r</sup>tences should bee accounted iust and to proceed from God, Laymen were the basest slaues and most wretched creatures vpon the earth. And if the greatest saint vpon earth should intrude himselfe into my howse against my will and in despite of mee wth intention to saue the soules of all my family, but wth all giue mee iust cause to suspect that hee likewise designes my temporall destruction, or that being already in my howse doth actuallic practise it, although wth all hee doe perhaps manie spirituall goods, yet certeinlie I may and ought to p<sup>r</sup>serve myselfe by the expulsion of such an enemy and by providing others to performe the spirituall good hee did, who shall not have anie intencion of mischeife towards mee, for the Law of nature teacheth this, that it is lawfull for curie man in his owne inst defence, vim vi repellere those that willbee impudent must bee as impudently dealt wthall. In case I say that the parte aboue menconed should escape yo<sup>r</sup> hands by the meanes afore said (w<sup>ch</sup> by all meanes p<sup>r</sup>sent if possibly you can) then I praie doe not faile to send M<sup>r</sup> Copley away from thence by the next shipping to those parts; vnless hee will bring the other new comes into yo<sup>r</sup> power to send back againe, and this I am satisfied here that I may for diuers reasons cause to bee done, as the said Mr. Territt and M<sup>r</sup> Gilmett will more fullie satisfie you and I am resolved to haue it done accordinglie. The princes of Italie who are now vpp in Armes against the Pope (although they bee Romane Catholiques) doe not make anie scruple of Conscience by force of Armes to vindicate the Iniurie w<sup>ch</sup> they conceine hee would haue done vnto the Duke of Parma; bye wresting a braue Pallace, not farr from Rome called Capreroly wth a little Territory about it, from the said Duke for one of the Popes Nephewes: nor doe they much esteeme his excommunications or Bulls (both the pope hath made vse off) in that busines for they belecue them to bee vnjustly grounded, and therefore of no validity: although they continue notwithstanding Romane Catholiques, and these are: the Duke of fflorence the state of Venice, the Duke of Parma and the duke of Modena Reggio: who are ioined in leagne and haue now an Armie of aboue 40000 men raised against the pope, and hee neer as many against them vpon the quarrell aboue menconed, insomuch as it is generallie conceined here that Rome is sacked by this time, or els that the pope hath giuen full satisfaction to the aforesaid princes, for hee is thought too weake for them. In fine if you doe not wth a constant resolution and faithfull affection to mee, executed what I haue here directed (whatsoe<sup>r</sup> inconvenience come off it) and according to what you shall vnderstand to bee my mind herein more particulerlie by word of mouth from the said M<sup>r</sup> Territt you will as I said betray mee to the greatest dishon<sup>r</sup> and p<sup>r</sup>udice that euer one Brother did another: But you must bee verie carefull that M<sup>r</sup> Territt receiue no p<sup>r</sup>udice by his communicating my mind to you, or by his zealous affection and fidelity to mee in doing his best endeaouours wth you to see my desire herein accomplished. Nor Likewise M<sup>r</sup> Gilmett w<sup>ch</sup> I am confident yo<sup>r</sup> owne iudgm<sup>t</sup> and discretion will incline you to preuent although I had not men<sup>o</sup>ned it. I vnderstand that notwthstanding my prohibition the Last yeare you did passe Grants vnder my scale here to those of the Hill of S<sup>t</sup> Inegoes and other Lands at S<sup>t</sup> Maryes and also of 100 Acres of land at Pascattoway some of w<sup>ch</sup> as I am informed you conceined in iustice due vnto them and therefore thought yo<sup>r</sup> selfe obliged to grant them although it were contrarie to my directions w<sup>ch</sup> to mee seemes verie strange, for certainly I haue power to reuoke anie authoritie I haue giuen you here either in whole or in part, and if I had thought fitt to haue totally reuoked yo<sup>r</sup> power of granting anie Lands there at all in my name certainly no man that is disinterested could thinke that you were bound neuertheless in conscience to vsurpe such an authoritie against my will, because in Justice diuers planters ought to haue grants from mee: for when I haue reuoked the power I gaue you for that purpose anie man els may as well as you vndertake to passe grants in my name, and haue as much obligation also in Conscience to doe it, and how ridiculous that were for anie man to doe I leaue it to you to iudge when I did giue directions to you not to grant anie more Lands to those of the hill there, vpon anie p<sup>r</sup>tence whatsoever I did so farr as concern'd them reuoke that power I formerlie gaue you of granting of lands there, and it was a great breach of trust in you to doe the contrarie for I beleene you would take it verie ill, and wth good reason you might, if anie man whome you should trust wth the keeping of yo<sup>r</sup> scale, should affix it to anie thing contrary to yo<sup>r</sup> direction although you were bound perhaps in future to cause it to bee done yo<sup>r</sup> selfe; if those psons had had anie iust cause of complaint by haueing grants refused them, it had been yo<sup>r</sup> part onlie to haue referred them vnto me, who knew best my owne reasons why I gaue the aforesaid Directions, for you are but meerly instrumentall in those things to doe what I direct, and not to compel mee to doe what you thinke fitting: And for ought you know some accident might haue hapned here that it was no iniustice in mee to refuse them grants of anie Land at all, and that by reason of some Act of this state it might haue endangered my life and fortune to haue permitted them to haue had anie grants at all, wth I doe not He assure you mention wthout good ground. I shall earnestlic therefore desire you to bee more obseruant hereafter of my directions, and not expect that I should satisfie yo<sup>r</sup> iudgm<sup>t</sup> by acquainting you still wth my reasons why I direct anie thing: for then my power there were no more then anie mans else, who may wth reasons perswade you to doe or forbear any thing as well as I. And I doe once more strictly require you not to suffer anie grants of anie Lands for the future to pass my Scale here to anie Member of the Hill there nor to anie other person in trust for them vpon anie p<sup>r</sup>tence or claime whatsoever wthout

especiall Warrant vnder my hand and Seale to bee hereafter obteyned from mee for that purpose. So I rest

Yo<sup>r</sup> most affectionate loueing Brother, London 23th Nouemb: 1642.

I pray commend my kind respects to M<sup>rs</sup> Traughton and thanke her from mee for the letter shee sent mee this yeare in answeare of another w<sup>ch</sup> I had sent vnto her the yeare before.

The Maisters here of those of the Hill there did diuers waies importune mee to pmitt some of theirs to goe this yeare thither, insomuch as they haue God forgine them for it caused a bitter falling out between my sister Peasely and mee, and some discontentm<sup>t</sup> also betweene mee and her husband about it, because I would not by anie meanes giue way to the goeing of anie of the aforesaid psons.

CECILIUS, LORD BALTIMORE, DECLARATION TO THE LORDS.

[Superscription.]

Cecil
The Lo: Baltmores Declaration to the Lords.

To the Right Hono<sup>ble</sup> the Lords Cōmissioners for forreigne Plantations.

The humble Declaration of the Lord Baltmores proceedings in the procuring & passing of his Pattent of the Province of Maryland adioyning to Virginia, and of severall vniust

molestations which some of the old dissolved Company of Virginia have given him both before & since, to his great prejudice.

The Lor Baltmores father having disbursed neare 20000 lbs. besides the hazard of his own person in a Plantation in Newfoundland, a countrey proving not habitable for the great colds in winter. And having thereypon transported himself his wife, goods and family to Virginia wth intent to plant and reside there, where he had been an Adventurer; did for that purpose leave his family there; and ypon his arrivall in England became an humble Sutor to his Ma<sup>tie</sup> for that part of Virginia w<sup>ch</sup> lyeth between the River of Passamagnus and the p<sup>sent</sup> Plantacon of Virginia on James River towards the South.

The 20th of Feb. 1631. His Ma<sup>ty</sup> referred the consideracon thereof to the right hono<sup>ble</sup> the Earles of Dorsett & Carlile, the Lo: Viscount Wentworth and the Lo: Cottington, or any three of them: and their said L<sup>ops</sup> having well weighed the said request did 23 of Feb. 1631 signifie his Ma<sup>ties</sup> pleasure to M<sup>r</sup> Attorney Generall that then was, for drawing a Bill conteyning such a Grant to him and his heires, W<sup>ch</sup> was so done by M<sup>r</sup> Attorney and his Ma<sup>ty</sup> Signed the same.

The matter being thus farr proceeded, some of the old dissolved Company of Adventurers to Virginia, seeming discontented therewith pretending that some of them the next yeare after determined to settle people on the South Side of James River, for the planting of Sugars, it being the most Southerly and best part of all Virginia and no other but that fitt for that purpose, and that this Grant would much p<sup>judice</sup> them in this their designe w<sup>ch</sup> the late Lo: Baltimore conceauing they did really intend, was unwilling to hinder so good a worke or to disgust them or any other as farr as in reason was fitt, though it were to his owne p<sup>r</sup>judice, and therefore vpon his humble sute his Ma<sup>t</sup>y tooke the matter againe into consideration and made a new reference to the Earles of Arundell & Carlile, the Lo: Viscount Wentworth and Lo: Cottington, who considered not only of the said pretences, but also of the late ineroachment of the dutch nation in those parts, who haue planted and fortified themselves northward between the old Colony of Virginea, and the English Colonies planted in New England. All w<sup>ch</sup> being by their said Lo<sup>ps</sup> represented to his Ma<sup>t</sup>y they did (according to his Ma<sup>ts</sup> direcccons) by a Warrant vnder their hands dated in March following to M<sup>r</sup> Attorney Sewall that then was declare his Royall pleasure to be that the said Lo: Baltmore should resig<sup>n</sup>e his former Grant w<sup>ch</sup> was only passed his signature, and haue an other Grant of a tract of Land lying a great way distant northward from the old Colony of Virginea. And accordingly a Bill was prepared, which passed the Priuy Seale, and then before it could passe the great Seale of England, the said Lo: Baltmore dyed.

After whose death, the now Lo: Baltmore became an humble Suto<sup>r</sup> to his Ma<sup>t</sup>y for the continuance of his said royall favo<sup>r</sup> and his Ma<sup>t</sup>y gaue warrant dated 21. of Aprill next following to M<sup>r</sup> Attorney Generall that then was to draw a new Bill for the granting the said Lands to him & his heires, w<sup>ch</sup> passed likewise the Priuy Seale.

Then some of the said old dissolved Company moued his Ma<sup>t</sup>y for the stay of that Grant also, vpon pretence of promises by proclama<sup>c</sup>on and otherwise from his Ma<sup>t</sup>y (since the dissolu<sup>c</sup>on of the old Pattent of Virginea) for the referring the old Companies right to all things formerly granted them in that Pattent excepting the Government and for the renewing of their pattent to that purpose, within the whereof, the Lo: Baltimores Countrey was included: and his Ma<sup>ty</sup> vpon their great importunity againe referred the matter, as they desired, to the late Lo: Treasurer and the Earles of Dorsett & Carlile, who heard both parties and all matters that are now in question before yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>ps</sup> were then at full heard & considered of, and p<sup>t</sup>icularly that of Capt. Clayborne's p<sup>t</sup>ences to the Island whereon he is lately planted, was much insisted vpon by S<sup>r</sup> John Worstenholme. But it then appearing to their Lo<sup>ps</sup> first that their old Pattent was legally dissolved, not only to the point of Government as they pretended, but to all other purposes whatsoever, and that consequently the Countrey formerly granted them was wholly in the Kings hands to dispose of, and that those promises w<sup>ch</sup> they pretended from his Ma<sup>ty</sup> by his said proclamation and otherwise were not to reserue to the company any incorporate right, or to renew their Corpora<sup>cion</sup> (w<sup>ch</sup> his Ma<sup>ty</sup> is so farr from promising therein to doe, in any kind whatsoever, as for the reasons therein alleadged, he rather declares his intenc<sup>ion</sup> then to be directly contrary, but to confirme only euery p<sup>t</sup>icular mans propriety & right to any Plantacon w<sup>ch</sup> any had settled there, or assignem<sup>ts</sup> of Land made vnto them during the time of the said Companyes Pattent being in force, when any of them should desire it, as may appeare by the Proclamacon; and it being also at that tyme made appeare vnto their Lo<sup>ps</sup> that although the tract of land then intended to the Lo: Baltimore, were within the lymits of the old Companys Pattent, yet that it did not infringe or trench vpon any such plantacon or assignement as aforesaid; excepting in one part of a Peninsula containyd within the said Grant, w<sup>ch</sup> part of the Peninsula was therefore afterwards excepted out of his Grant: and that Capt: Cleyborne about the time of passing the said Grant w<sup>ch</sup> was many yeares after the dissolu<sup>cion</sup> of the said Companies pattent ; had without any legall authority de-riued from his Ma<sup>ty</sup> ; seated himself in an Island where now he is, within the Bay of Cheasepeack (w<sup>ch</sup> is within the p<sup>re</sup>inets of the Lo : Baltemores pattent) and aboue 100 miles northward distant from James Riuer, the p<sup>re</sup>sent scituacōn of the old Colony of Virginea, of purpose to remoue himself farr from all gouernment, being euer obserued to be a man of a factious Spirit, as did appeare by many of his former actions ; their Lo<sup>ps</sup> therevpon againe made certificate vnder their hands to his Ma<sup>ty</sup> dated 5 of June 1632. that they thought fitt that the said last Grant should passe to the now Lo : Baltimore & his heires, excepting only a great part of the Peninsula aforesaid whereon some of the old Colony had long before planted themselues during the time of the old Companies pattent being in force, and accordingly a new warrant from his Ma<sup>ty</sup> dated 7. of June following, was directed to M<sup>r</sup> Attorney Generall that then was, to alter his Grant in that point, and to prepare a new Grant of all the rest wth that excepcion only ; w<sup>ch</sup> passed the great Scale of England, it being not a fortieth part of the Territory belonging to Virginea, as may appeare by the Cards & Mapps of those Countreys, if yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>ps</sup> please to peruse them.

After all w<sup>ch</sup> the yeare following the Lo : Baltimore having to his great charge made p<sup>re</sup>paration of Shippes and provisions for the transportacōn of people to begin a plantaōn in the said Countrey so granted vnto him ; some of the old dissolved Company, a litle before the going forth of the said Shippes, being transported with spleene, (as he conceines he hath reason to doubt) and of purpose to molest him in his proceedings, well knowing how p<sup>re</sup>judiciall a litle delay would bee vnto him at that time ; againe p<sup>re</sup>ferred a declaracōn to yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>ps</sup> of the p<sup>re</sup>tended iniuries done vnto them by the said

Grant, formerly so much debated & considered of as aforesaid, and hoping at last (as it seemes) to advantage themselves by importunity and multitudes, they brought 30 or 40 of their Company before yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>ps</sup> and all matters formerly considered of, concerning that busines, were then againe debated of at large, and p<sup>t</sup>iculerly that of Cleybornes pretences to the Island wherein he is, was againe much insisted vpon, in their declaracōn, as by the Copy of it, will appeare: and when they were out of hope of overthrowing the said Grant, then did they mone, that at least they might haue an independent liberty of trade wth the Indians within his precincts, well knowing the preiudice w<sup>ch</sup> they should do him if they obtained that liberty; but it then appearing to yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>ps</sup> as well the weaknes of their former p<sup>r</sup>tences in other things, as likewise the iniustice & great inconueniency of this last motion of theirs.

first, in that it was the Lo: Baltmore's right by his patent and the only p<sup>r</sup>sent benefitt, (though small and not likely to be permanent,) that was probable to be made, towarde the defraying of part of the great charge of the Plantaçōn, and therefore neither in iustice nor equity fitt that any others who did not contribute to the planting of the Countrey should deprive him of it:

Secondly in that it was very inconvenient & dangerous for him and his plantaçōn to pmitt it, because thereby he should giue those who were not well asserted to his plantaçōn, and whom he had noe power to regulate a meanes to spoile the markt of that Trade, as likewise to pick quarrells, and doe iniuries to those Indians who were Neighbo<sup>rs</sup> to his plantaçōn, and who would be apt to revenge vpon his Planters all such wrongs done them, when those who did them were gone, the Indians making no difference between them being all of one Nation; Yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>ps</sup> therevpon thought fitt by an Order at the

Starr chamber 3 of July 1633 to dismisse the busines, and to leaue the Lo: Baltmore to the right of his Pattent.

All w<sup>ch</sup> just and faire proceedings in the passing of w<sup>ch</sup> pat- tent ought to haue been sufficient (as is humbly conceiued) to debarr any man from any further importunity in opposing his Ma<sup>ty</sup>s gracios Act vnder the great Seale of England, so ad- visedly & considerately done, especially there having been really no such promises made by his Royall Proclamacon aforesaid, as could any way either in hono<sup>r</sup> or otherwise oblige him to forbear to make such a Grant vnto the Lo: Balte- more:— But only were and are suggested by them either meerey to p<sup>r</sup>iudice and molest his good endeavo<sup>rs</sup> for the en- largement of his Ma<sup>ty</sup>s Empire in those parts; or for some other ends besides planting; ffor if their intentions in this their importunity to haue their Corporation renewed, were and are meerey to haue power thereby to plant, any of them hath might and may yet, without pressing for any such thing, haue Land enough assigned them for that purpose, from his Ma<sup>ty</sup>s Governo<sup>r</sup> and Councell in Virginea, as many others, both old and new Plant<sup>rs</sup> and Adventurers, from time to time, since the dissolucon of the old Company haue had, and dayly haue, and vpon as good conditions as any perticular person of them either had or could haue had, when they were in an incorporated Body; there being more Land vnplanted and vndisposed of then                    them                    these many yeares, and such land as is more Southerly and better then that w<sup>ch</sup> is granted to the Lo: Baltmore, w<sup>ch</sup> pticular assigne- m<sup>ts</sup> also, his Ma<sup>ty</sup> no doubt, would afterwards be pleased to confirme vnto any of them as they should reasonably desire, and as he was graciously pleased to promise, by his said Procla- con, to those who had any plantacon seated or any assigne- ment of Land there, during the time of the old Corporation.

But none of those, who haue so much troubled his Ma<sup>ty</sup> and yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>ps</sup> in this busines, haue any Plantacon or people settled in Virginea, neither haue any of them begun any plantacon for sugars on the South parts of Virginea, as some of them vpon the late Lo: Baltmore's first Grant of that part, aboue mencioned (w<sup>ch</sup> is now 3 yeares since) p<sup>r</sup>tended very earnestly to doe, or done any thing els since, concerning the plantacon of Virginea, but importuned his Ma<sup>ty</sup> and yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>ps</sup> for the renewing of their Corporacon, and raysed trouble both here and there ag<sup>t</sup> the Lo: Baltmore and his Plantation.

Now for as much as the said Grant was made vpon such mature deliberation vpon so many seuerall references, warrants and certificates (the Copies whereof are ready to be p<sup>r</sup>sented vnto yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>ps</sup>) And for asmuch as the said Lo: Baltmore hath therevpon disbursed by himself and his freinds aboue ten thousand pounds for the setting of a Colony of his Ma<sup>ts</sup> Subiects in the said Countrey, having sent two of his Brothers thither (one of whom he hath since lost vpon the place) and having seated already aboue two hundred people there. Hee humbly beseecheth yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>ps</sup> to the end he may be no further vniustly molested by any of the old dissolved Company of Virginea, but may peaceably & quietly enjoy his Ma<sup>ty</sup> gracious Grant vnto him, and the right, w<sup>ch</sup> he (in confidence thereof) hath since so deerly bought by the expence of so great sumes of money, the loss of one of his Brothers and severall others of his freinds, and many other troubles w<sup>ch</sup> he hath since vndergone, in the prosecution of it, That yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>ps</sup> would be pleased vpon these considerations; To make a finall Order that the old dissolved Company of Virginea shall be heard no more in their said vniust p<sup>r</sup>tences against his Pattent, because the often questioning of his right, though it be vpon vniust grounds, doth much p<sup>r</sup>iudice him in his proceedings, Nor that any other order do passe from this Hon<sup>ble</sup> Boord w<sup>ch</sup> may p<sup>r</sup>judice his right or cause any suites in Law between them, ffor that would much endanger the overthrow of his Plantation which is now in a good forwardnes to perfection, and consequently his and many of his freinds v<sup>t</sup>ter ruine, in respect that the greatest part of their fortunes are therevpon engaged.

No. 14.

GOVERNOR CHARLES CALVERT TO CECILIUS,
LORD BALTIMORE.

[Indorsement.]

27 April 1664
My son Charles to me
by Cap: Miles Cooke.

The Lord Baltemore
These p<sup>r</sup>snt
p Capt. Cooke.

May it Please Your Lopp—

I shall now endeauour to giue y<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> an Accompt of what I haue done as to y<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup>s Comānds in the last & This yeares letters but I shall first humbly begg y<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup>s pardon that I haue nott done it sooner :

27th May 1662. Your Lo<sup>pp</sup> was pleas'd in that letter to comānd me to proeure some Elke Calues two Males and two Femalls, I haue vsed all my endeauours possible but can procure none as yet, y<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> in that letter was pleas'd to write about the Mann<sup>r</sup> of Calverton, to know what has beene granted out of it, A Thousand Acres y<sup>r</sup> Lopp did grant to doctor Barber & 300 acres att an other time, & M<sup>r</sup> Pyles has had a 1000 acres more out of it vpon a letter w<sup>ch</sup> M<sup>r</sup> Lewger writt long since as from y<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> w<sup>ch</sup> is all I know of or can learne from any; I haue acquainted the Masters of Vessells that what letters I send to y<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> they should carry for London & nott send them by the post as they were wont to doe & that y<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> would beare them out in't, the 20 Barrells of Corne w<sup>ch</sup> M<sup>r</sup> Sewall was to haue he has now payd him by discount wth the Chancell<sup>r</sup>, & the 20th w<sup>ch</sup> my vncle had of y<sup>r</sup> L<sup>pp</sup> in Maryland money he tells me is pay'd as may appeare by his neate Accompt of 1661. I haue according to y<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pps</sup> Grant to my Cosen Darnall of Jenkins Plantacon endeauourd to sell it for him, & hope by these ships to send him Bills of Exchange for't; M<sup>r</sup> Sewall has Great Eltonhead as y<sup>r</sup> L<sup>pp</sup> gaue me Ord<sup>r</sup> in this letter.

24th July 1662. According to y<sup>r</sup> Lopps Co<sup>m</sup>ands in this letter I passt the land afores<sup>d</sup> to the Secretary, & he has surrendered his warrant for 2000 acres w<sup>ch</sup> y<sup>r</sup> L<sup>pp</sup> was please to bestow on him;

26th July 1662. I humbly returne y<sup>r</sup> Lopp many thanks for the 25 p pole w<sup>ch</sup> the Countrey gaue by Act of Assembly, I shall endeauour to make the best vse I can for your Lopps service: As to what your Lopp writes about the Hattons whoe would fa<sup>ine</sup> haue a 1000 acres of the Land att Choptico pretending a promise from your Lopp w<sup>ch</sup> as I find vpon record was but Conditionall, soe that I shall obey y<sup>r</sup> Lopps Co<sup>m</sup>ands & endeauours to satisfie them in some other place, when soever they shall desire it but as yett I heare nothing from them. The Grant w<sup>ch</sup> y<sup>r</sup> L<sup>pp</sup> gaue to Doctor Barber he

shewd me vpon w<sup>ch</sup> I pass't & sing'd him a pattent, afore y<sup>r</sup> Lopp's letter came to my hands, & whereas y<sup>r</sup> L<sup>opp</sup> does think that grant was reuokt', I enquir'd of the Chancell<sup>r</sup> about it whoe could say nothing to't as he told me, soe that I cannot find any thing whereby to recall what's pass't he shewing me y<sup>r</sup> L<sup>opp</sup>'s letter vpon w<sup>ch</sup> I did it & causd the words of y<sup>r</sup> L<sup>opp</sup>'s letter to be recorded w<sup>ch</sup> concern'd his buisnesse, M<sup>r</sup> Lewgers some has that Plantation of Coles in lieu of 500 acres w<sup>ch</sup> y<sup>r</sup> L<sup>opp</sup> had giuen him, there were noe housing vpon't, soe that there was noe Tob. to be demanded vpon that accompt of him; As to what yo<sup>r</sup> Lopp: was pleas'd to write about the moneys or Tobaccos due from M<sup>r</sup> Sewall to M<sup>r</sup> Lewger & Cœcill Langford I can onely say This that the fees of the Secretarys place are much more then formerly & conceiue it will not preiudice the Secretary to pay part if not the whole, but shall desire y<sup>r</sup> Lopp's positie Ord<sup>r</sup> therein for what's due in arreares, & for the future Cœcill Langford being now gone from y<sup>r</sup> L<sup>opp</sup> the Secretary I think may very well pay M<sup>r</sup> Lewgers share yearely.

15th Sep: 1661. I did according to y<sup>r</sup> Lopp's Comands take Peeter Gures from the Chancell<sup>r</sup> but since that he's returnd to him againe but vpon better termes then afore.

24th Sep. 1661 Your Lopp in This letter was pleas'd to write about M<sup>r</sup> W<sup>m</sup> Eltonheads will, whoe by word of mouth gaue his land & other estat to his wife he being att that time a prisoner & could not haue the benefitt of paper & Ink vpon w<sup>ch</sup> the Court then Judgd the will good, but in regard the word heyres was not spoken I am not certaine whether our last Act of Assembly for quietting possessions does not confirmd it as to her as it was intended for all such as had but imperfect Conueyances w<sup>ch</sup> makes me att p<sup>r</sup>sent able to say little but shall endeaouour to enquire more into't, in regard wee had occasion att our last Prouinciall Court to examine that busines & I find the wittnesse that was to haue pron'd that will was not entred vpon record, w<sup>ch</sup> will alter the thing much, & if M<sup>r</sup> Eltonhead will make a letter of Attourney to some person here to sue for his right, I shall endeavour that Iustice be done in't, but if he send a letter of Attourney he must gett it Attested according to Act of Assembly as y<sup>r</sup> L<sup>opp</sup> will see by the Acts sent home this yeare or otherwise it will not be of force here wth vs; I giue y<sup>r</sup> L<sup>opp</sup> many Thanks for the Grants sent by M<sup>r</sup> White last yeare but none of them came to good; I haue & shall obserue y<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pps</sup> Comands in euery particular in these letters of 1662, These last of 1663 I shall now giue y<sup>r</sup> L<sup>opp</sup> the Best Accompt I am able in answer to euery thing therein.

23th July 1663. I shall according to y<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pps</sup> Comands take care for the future whoes Bills I take, & as to that of M<sup>r</sup> Loyds about the 26th he assur'd me in the Presence of the Chancell<sup>r</sup> that he had taken such effectuall Course wth his correspondent in England that I press't him nott to draw any Bills, but it shall make me more Carefull the next time; Smiths Bill w<sup>ch</sup> y<sup>r</sup> L<sup>opp</sup> return'd protested came to my hands, but in regard Smith is gone for England whoe sign'd it, nothing can be done in't here but must leave it to y<sup>r</sup> L<sup>opp</sup> in England where he is or will be some time or other his Father is one of that Company vpon whom he drew those Bills of Exchange & y<sup>r</sup> Lopp will come to heare of the some vpon the Exchange, The 9 lb<sup>ds</sup> of Tobacco w<sup>ch</sup> in 1662 I sent whome to y<sup>r</sup> L<sup>opp</sup> by Capt Tully, 7 of w<sup>ch</sup> I thought good & weighty, but as y<sup>r</sup> Lopp writes were nott, must be Capt Tullys fault, for it was himselfe that assur'd me that 4 of the 7 w<sup>ch</sup> he brought from Ann Arundell were extraordinary good Tob; & good weight 100 & vpwards all foure, for the other

Three, I was wth him when they were brought on board his Ship & I caus'd euery bhd to be open'd & shew'd him the Tobaccos w<sup>ch</sup> he like't then very well, & wisht all the Tob: he had then on board were as good I saw them weighed & euery hogshead was vpwards of 400 this I can Assure y<sup>r</sup> L<sup>opp</sup> to be truth soe that where the fault was vnlesse Capt. Tully was Careless or did not deale soe fairely wth y<sup>r</sup> L<sup>opp</sup> as he ought to haue done I can't Imagine, for I tooke all the care possible I could that y<sup>r</sup> L<sup>opp</sup> mought not pay freight for bad Tobaccos; The Bills of Exchange w<sup>ch</sup> your L<sup>opp</sup> receiued from Coll Smith charg'd by me I will take care shall be payd againe & thought to haue sent in this yeare, But doct<sup>r</sup> Tilghman putts me of still alleadging his bad condition he is in, but say's he will not faile to contriue paym<sup>t</sup> next Cropp w<sup>ch</sup> I shall returne to y<sup>r</sup> L<sup>opp</sup>, But This will make for the future take care for whome I doe such a courtesey for it was purely to pleasur the doct<sup>r</sup> he being a stranger att that time in Virginia w<sup>ch</sup> made me request the fauour of Coll Smith to procure him Creditt for soe much in Virginia w<sup>ch</sup> accordingly vpon my letter he did, & to satisfie him I was foret to draw a Bill for the moneys vpon y<sup>r</sup> L<sup>opp</sup> the Doct<sup>r</sup> taking noe care to satisfie the debt, As Concerning what y<sup>r</sup> L<sup>opp</sup> writes that the Comiss<sup>rs</sup> w<sup>ch</sup> I sent did not well to consent that the same time for the stinting to be alike in both places, to w<sup>ch</sup> it was answered to me that they could not accomodate it otherwise the Other party alleadging that that would not be soe greate a preiudice in regard Marylaud was not much to the Northward of Virginia, & as to the Calling our Assembly here first was a great ouer sight in them, & they could gine me noe good answer to't, onely that it was much press't by the other party the result of our Assembly as to that businesse I sent y<sup>r</sup> L<sup>opp</sup> in Harwood & Copys in Groome; I was not long since att

Virginia to waite vpon the Govern<sup>r</sup> & amongst other buisnesse wth him I moud the setting forth the diuisionall line from Wattkins point to the seabord syde to w<sup>ch</sup> he seem'd very willing, & some time in Aprill was then appointed for't, & since that I received a letter from Scarburgh wherein he gaue me to vnd<sup>r</sup>stand that he had Order from the Goner<sup>r</sup> Councell & Committee of their Assembly to write to me that vpon the 10th of May next was the time appointed by 'm for the doing that buisnesse to w<sup>ch</sup> I answer'd I should nott faile to send others to meet them on y<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>ps</sup> behalfe, w<sup>ch</sup> I am now preparing to doe & shall carefully obserue your L<sup>o</sup>s Comāds & Instructions in that buisness, & I hope I may be able to giue y<sup>r</sup> Lopp an Accompt by some of the last shippis that depart from hence or Virginia of the accomodating that difference betwext the Virginians & vs, In answer to what y<sup>r</sup> L<sup>o</sup>pp writes about the Manu<sup>r</sup> of Great Eltonhead, vpon inquiry since into that buisnesse doe find that there is 50000 acres according to former suruey, & how M<sup>r</sup> Sewall came to find there was but 30000 I shall not venture to say att p<sup>r</sup>sent, but it goes now for the full quantity as afore & nothing is s<sup>d</sup> more concerning it by the Secretary; I received a letter from the Lords of the Councell but as y<sup>r</sup> L<sup>o</sup>pp Comāded me haue taken noe notice of't att all, but shall notwthstanding be very diligent in obseruing their Comāds, & I humbly begg y<sup>r</sup> Loppis pardon for my Omission in not sending the last yeares bonds for 1662 till this last shipping, but shall for the future amend that fault, I sent them by Groome & duplicats by Harwood or Tully I dont well rememb<sup>r</sup> w<sup>ch</sup> The Originalls I keepe here, those of 1663 I now send by Cap<sup>t</sup> Cooke & Copys likewise by Tilghman. My last yeares Accompt I sent by Groome wth Jack Allen, but am afraid I shall not be able to send y<sup>r</sup> Lopp This of 1663 untill the next shipping for the sheriffs are soe long afore they returne me their Bookes that I haue not time to make vp the Accompts the same shipping to send y<sup>r</sup> Lopp, w<sup>ch</sup> I hope will excuse me, but I shall notwthstanding endeavour what in me lyes to hasten them. In answer to what y<sup>r</sup> Lopp was pleas'd to write about the 68 hdds of Tob: w<sup>ch</sup> I sent last yeare in Fon for my not sending the weights of euery hdd was not soe much my fault for the Sheriffs came not downe time enough wth their notes of particular & the ship was gone afore I had them w<sup>ch</sup> was the cause I sent them not, otherwise I should nott haue Comitted such an ouersight as that was: The Gouer<sup>r</sup> of New Amstell is returned to Delaware but I vnd<sup>r</sup>stand as yett nothing from him, neither doe wee heare any thing more of the frigatts that were design'd for the Manados, if at any time there be oecation for our assistance to Call the Dutch to an Accompt for the Land they enjoy there wee shall be ready & endeavour to putt in for y<sup>r</sup> Lopps. Right w<sup>ch</sup> att p<sup>r</sup>sent wee conceiue better to lett alone vnlesse y<sup>r</sup> Lopp can informe vs w<sup>ch</sup> way wee can safely do't, & wee shall be still ready to Obey Comands. I spoak to the Chancell<sup>r</sup> touching y<sup>r</sup> Accompts w<sup>ch</sup> he sent to y<sup>r</sup> Lopp to w<sup>ch</sup> he answered that he had sent y<sup>r</sup> Lopp his answer to such Obiections as were made & gaue me a Copy of't w<sup>ch</sup> I shall peruse & giue y<sup>r</sup> Lopp my sence thereof but they are soe tedious that att p<sup>r</sup>sent I am not able to spend soe much time to examine them neither is he at leasure my sicknesse whilst I was in Virginia & the time it Continued on me after my returne into these parts has hindred me extreemly & putt me back in all my buisnesse, but I will examine all those accompts & returne y<sup>r</sup> Lopp his answer to me as to euery particular: I pay'd him his Thirds last yeare as y<sup>r</sup> Lopp will find by the Accompt currant w<sup>ch</sup> I sent in Groome; I brought him debtor 70 odds lbs for Arreares of Rents w<sup>ch</sup> I found by the books returnd me in 1662 w<sup>ch</sup> his severall deputys had received & had given noe Creditt ever vpon the Bookes formerly of his w<sup>ch</sup> sume I charg'd him wth & he to gett it of his deputys w<sup>ch</sup> I suppose he has ere this.

24th July 1663. I received y<sup>r</sup> Lopps as p Margent by M<sup>r</sup> Allen & according to y<sup>r</sup> Lopps Comānds therein haue shewne him all the kinduesse possibly I could, he's a very good Condidond young man, & In time may done well as to the vnd<sup>r</sup>standing our Comōdity & manner of dealing in these parts of the world, w<sup>ch</sup> att This time I confesse can giue little encouragem<sup>t</sup> to any, I recei'd the Mault & flower from Groome & humbly & returne y<sup>r</sup> Lopp many Thanks for them & for the news books w<sup>ch</sup> are a great divertisment to vs here, I haue acquainted my Couzen W<sup>m</sup> Caluert about that buisnesse betwixt him & my vncle, & shall endeavour what I can for the best.

26th July 1663. This I recei'd by the hands of d<sup>r</sup> Humberstone & in Obedience to y<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>ps</sup> Comānds recei'd him into my house whilst he stay'd here, but I cannot find him to be the person capable of performing those things y<sup>r</sup> Lopp was inform'd of him he's an Indiffrent good Chirurgeon & as indiffrent in his religion, he past here for an Athest, & I think him little better, some call'd him the Heathen doctor & I presume none could call him a miss, but I was Civill to him in regard it was y<sup>r</sup> Lopps pleasure & Comānds to me. I shall speake to Augustine as y<sup>r</sup> Lopp formerly writt about a particular Mapp for S<sup>t</sup> Johns & West St Marys, M<sup>r</sup> White has done some thing as to the House & Orchard of S<sup>t</sup> Johns w<sup>ch</sup> I presume he'll send y<sup>r</sup> Lopp this shipping.

3<sup>d</sup> August 1663. I recei'd this letter & a letter from y<sup>r</sup> Lopp for Coll<sup>r</sup> Fontele Roy & a warrant for him, both w<sup>ch</sup> I carried wth me to Virginia, but afore I could gett it sent to him he was dead, soe that I haue the warrant & shall keepe it vntill y<sup>r</sup> Lopp shall further direct in't, I returne y<sup>r</sup> Lopp many thanks for the moneys payd to M<sup>r</sup> Fitzherbert in England w<sup>ch</sup> I chargd vpon y<sup>r</sup> Lopp.

14th August 1663. In answer to what y<sup>r</sup> Lopp was pleas'd to write in this letter I shall now endeauour to satisfie as to enery particular the best I can; In that letter I receiued seuerall papers from y<sup>r</sup> Lopp & a note of the prizes of such things sent in Capt Tully. The Things themselves I receiued & a Man seruant, the other that was to haue come being putt a shoare att Plimouth, I had alsoe by that vessell Copys of y<sup>r</sup> Lopps Comission & Instructions to Capt Swanley Goue<sup>r</sup> of Newfoumland, all w<sup>ch</sup> I shall peruse & returne an answer as soone as I can for y<sup>r</sup> Lopps satisfaction; The business w<sup>ch</sup> the siones Complain's & writt about is by me accomodated betwext them & the Chancell<sup>r</sup> he paying the Arrears of Rent due from them, & he to haue what was in his hands of shares, by w<sup>ch</sup> meanes he came to gett 10 or 12th by the bargain & gave discharges to each other afore me, & soe that that difference was ended; the arrears of Rent comes to 38 odd pounds w<sup>ch</sup> I am to charge to the Chancell<sup>r</sup>s accompt this yeare, towards paym<sup>t</sup> of his Thirds as Sallary from y<sup>r</sup> Lopp: The Proclamacon w<sup>ch</sup> y<sup>r</sup> Lopp was pleas'd to mention was issued forth by me & the Rest of the Councell concerning the taking of Hydes for Rent, nothing as yett is done in't, in regard M<sup>r</sup> Jackson could not give that security to me w<sup>ch</sup> in Reason I ought to haue demanded of him for the securing y<sup>r</sup> Lopp of y<sup>r</sup> Rents & besides one reason w<sup>ch</sup> made me doe nothing in't was because the Councell had nothing to doe wth things of that nature w<sup>ch</sup> afterwards I reflected on though at the Issuing forth of that Proclamacon I was surpriz'd but it signified nothing; Though many times when I haue spoken by the by to the Chancell<sup>r</sup> of the difficulty I had in getting the Rents cleare every yeare, he has often press't me to advise wth the Councell wth it, but I haue made him still this answer that I concei'd it not a buisnesse properly belonging to them, but that I should vse what means wth his advise I thought best, w<sup>ch</sup> since I haue vnd<sup>r</sup>stood he has informd the Councell as he has of many other things w<sup>ch</sup> in priuate I haue discours't wth him: I haue endeavour'd to assist M<sup>r</sup> Jackson what I can in letting him a spott of ground hard by me for his Tann Fatts & lent him a House to putt his Bark in euer since he came, but I find the Countrey are not soe ready to encourage him as I thought they would in regard they see noe great effects of his coming in; The reason I did nott last yeare send y<sup>r</sup> Lopp an accompt of the Things sent that yeare & that I did nott answer the letters of that yeare was because Spenser was gone sooner then I heard he was to goe, but I sent by the way of New England but cannot vnd<sup>r</sup>stand that y<sup>r</sup> Lopp received the letters. The Things that y<sup>r</sup> Lopp sent this yeare I shall now giue an accompt to every particular as I receiud them; The Warrant w<sup>ch</sup> y<sup>r</sup> Lopp mentions M<sup>r</sup> Lewger has for me as Receiuer came to me, & I haue giuen Capt Tully 10<sup>lb</sup> to pay him it being for the first paym<sup>t</sup> & shall not faile to pay as much yearely till 7 yeares be expired as long as I continue Receiuer; I haue spoke to the Chancell<sup>r</sup> concerning what he writt to y<sup>r</sup> Lopp of a promise I made to Patrick Powest of the land att Pork Hall neck, w<sup>ch</sup> I wonder extreemly att, when he knows, I neuer did nor could I if I would, & to lett y<sup>r</sup> Lopp see he has done me a great deale of wrong in't, the busnesse was this, he himselfe came to me & spoake in this fellows behalfe to me for that land, To w<sup>ch</sup> I answered him: S<sup>r</sup> you know it lyes not in my power to dispose of any lands Escheated to his Lopp wth out particular

Ord<sup>r</sup> for't, & as yett I haue none the second time he came againe, & I made him the very same answer as afore I had done, but Patrick as he says presst him soe much that he came the Third time wth him at w<sup>ch</sup> I was a little troubled & desird the Chancell<sup>r</sup> he would satisfie him, but nothing would serue it seemes vnlesse I gave the fellow an answer & vpon that I went out of my parlor to the fellow, & the same buisnesse was mou'd by the fellow, & the same answer I gaue him as I had to the Chan<sup>r</sup> then Patrick desir'd me to write to y<sup>r</sup> Lopp to procure it him, I then demanded of the Chancell<sup>r</sup> whither himselfe & Dick Willan whoe was then liuing were willing to't in regard I knew both their stocks of Cattle & hogs ran in that neck, the Chancell<sup>r</sup> made me answer he was very willing & more over did assure me of M<sup>r</sup> Willan Willingnesse to't to w<sup>ch</sup> I reply'd if it be true as y<sup>u</sup> are pleas'd to say I'll write to his Lopp about it, but wth in a Day or two after I pass't by M<sup>r</sup> Willans House & mett wth him whoe desir'd to know of me whether Patrick had obtained a grant of Pork hall neck, & vpon that I acquainted him wth what I have here related to y<sup>r</sup> Lopp, wherevpon he made me answer that if any body did seate that land it would ruine him in his stock, I imēdiatly went to the Chan<sup>ll<sup>r</sup></sup> & sent for Patrick to come thither to me & told them both what M<sup>r</sup> Willan had said, to w<sup>ch</sup> the Chancell<sup>r</sup> told me priuatly that Willan was a strange man, but My lord the reason of that was there had beene some little difference betwixt my Vncle & him about some Corne Willan had lett him & could not gett it againe, I told Patrick I would doe nothing that should ruine a person that had beene soe faithfull as dick Willan had beene to y<sup>r</sup> Lopp well then s<sup>d</sup> the Chan<sup>r</sup> doe not S<sup>r</sup> at least hinder him by writing to y<sup>r</sup> L<sup>opp</sup>, I assur'd him I would neither write for the one or the other & this is the buisnesse

in short w<sup>ch</sup> I humbly leave to y<sup>r</sup> Lopp to iudge whether This were a promisse I could acquaint y<sup>r</sup> Lopp wth many other Triuiall Things w<sup>ch</sup> he has reported of me but are nott worth troubling y<sup>r</sup> Lopp wth all att p<sup>r</sup>sent. I give y<sup>r</sup> Lopp many Thanks for the Things sent by Capt. Tully, I receiued them all & the Innoyce and as they were sett downe both in that & the Bills of lading I shall be very carefull as well of what y<sup>r</sup> Lopp has last sent me as likewise of the things I had afore: The reason I haue nott giuen y<sup>r</sup> Lopp soe large an account of euery particular from time to time was for want of a Clerk I haue now hired one for a time, & shall for the future giue y<sup>r</sup> Lopp better satisfaction; but for sending the Escheats, Michās I receiue the Rents I will if possible I am able & can gett my Bookes in time enough; If I had nothing else to doe but to goe to the Respective sheriff of euery Comty for their seuerall books I'ts very possible I mought do't, but hauing continually more buisnesse then I can well runn Thorough, I must neglect one thing or other if I should stir soe much from home I did desire as y<sup>r</sup> Lopp writes to haue some frieght taking last yeare in England, but fearing afterwards If I should not compleat my freight, I should be protested against, I chose rather to lett it alone & that was the reason I did not send word as I writt I would otherwise haue done. I haue acquainted the Secretary that the Chancell<sup>r</sup> had writt y<sup>r</sup> Lopp word of some indiscreet & vnhandsome speeches he should vtter & that the Chancell<sup>r</sup> had informd y<sup>r</sup> Lopp he had acquainted me wth it, but I assure y<sup>r</sup> Lopp I can't rememb<sup>r</sup> that ever I heard any word or tittle of't afore I read y<sup>r</sup> Lopp's letter for if I had I should haue hardly past it in silence soe I immediatly went to the Chancell<sup>r</sup> to know of him whoe Those persons were that would be M<sup>r</sup> Sewalls accusers he told me M<sup>r</sup> Coursey was the person, where vpon I summons him to S<sup>t</sup> Marys & made knowne the businesse to him to w<sup>ch</sup> he made answer that he had heard seuerell things come from the Secretary, I desird that he would give me vnd<sup>r</sup> his hand what he had to say & lay to his charge w<sup>ch</sup> I heare send to y<sup>r</sup> Lopps being able to say little to't my selfe the one declaring vpon Oath & the Other positively denying vpon Oath. M<sup>r</sup> Coursey moreouer told me that others had heard as much as himselfe, I demanded whoe those were & he told me the Chancell<sup>r</sup> had heard the same & to the same effect as what he could say, wherypon I spoake to the Chancell<sup>r</sup> whoe told me likewise that he had att an other time heard to the same purpose as M<sup>r</sup> Coursey, & I desir'd he would alsoe give it me vnd<sup>r</sup> his hand & vpon Oath w<sup>ch</sup> he has done, both w<sup>ch</sup> I present to y<sup>r</sup> Lopp to iudge of, Now May it Please y<sup>r</sup> Lopp this I can say that neither the Chancell<sup>r</sup> nor the other Can endure the Secretary & haue endeauour'd what they can to doe him vnkindnesse as y<sup>r</sup> Lopp may plainly see by the Journalls of the last Assembly, & I know they haue attempted to do him what mischief they Could to the people by disparagin him w<sup>ch</sup> I thought was not handsome he being your Lopps Officer & Third person in Employnt; when I first spoake wth the Chancell<sup>r</sup> to know whoe those were that accusd the Secretary he told me onely M<sup>r</sup> Course & yett since that it seemes he says he heard as much, they are vpon their Oaths & therefore shall not presume to speake more in't if it be true I wonder att M<sup>r</sup> Sewall for being soe indiscreet, for in his actions euer since he has beene y<sup>r</sup> Lopps Officer he has giuen sufficient testimony of his readinesse both to serue y<sup>r</sup> Lopps & the Countrey & I could wish I had cause to say as much as of the rest of y<sup>r</sup> Lopps Officers whoe pretend more but their actions doe not suit accordingly, The Secretary does intend for England in Cooke & of him y<sup>r</sup> Lopp may be further satisfied, both as to his owne particuler & the humors & dispositions of other persons here in Office & of their Carriage in y<sup>r</sup> Lopp's affaires here, y<sup>r</sup> Lopp may confide in him for the naked truth of Things here & I doubt but when I may see y<sup>r</sup> Lopp to Confirme what he may relate— I haue receid: An Act of Parliam<sup>t</sup> & shall be very diligent in Observing it, but I haue desir'd the Secretary to know of y<sup>r</sup> Lopp's what's is meant by searching vessells for Forraign goods whether wee must strictly looke into every particuler Cargo The Merchant & Mast<sup>r</sup> brings in if soe it will be an Endlesse trouble both to the Officers & Mast<sup>r</sup> & Owners of such goods, wherefore I shall earnestly entreat y<sup>r</sup> Lopp to satisfie vs in that, least wee runn ourselues into some inconuenience by being too Officious in our places, if y<sup>r</sup> Lopp can by the first Ship that comes for these parts— M<sup>r</sup> Willan is dead but I acquainted his wife about that w<sup>ch</sup> y<sup>r</sup> Lopp writt concerning a release he had sent for England & what shee will doe in't I can't tell as yett; Whereas The Chancell<sup>r</sup> writt to y<sup>r</sup> Lopp that he might leaue The Great Scale wth me when his Occations call'd him vp the Bay to his Plantations, he has since desir'd me to write to your Lopp that he may be dismiss't from his imploynt, for that as he say's he is not able to looke after y<sup>r</sup> Lopp's buisnesse and his owne. The Secretary can giue y<sup>r</sup> Lopp the seuerall reasons why he has desir'd that soe much, if he were dismiss't I am certaine I could not have more buisnesse then now I have vpon me, y<sup>r</sup> Lopp does giue a Sallary to a person to beare the name of an Officer but does little & what help & profitt it brings to y<sup>r</sup> Lopp I doe not conceine, he has been absent these two Courts & is like to be the next & vnlesse I be at home noe Courts can be held, The Hattons haue not as yett spoken any thing of the land of Choptico as I haue s<sup>d</sup> afore, but as to what doctor Barber

writt y<sup>r</sup> Lopp word that I told him I had a check from y<sup>r</sup> Lopp for signing his Pattent for his 1300 acres w<sup>ch</sup> he has there I did say as much to him but forgott to write y<sup>r</sup> Lopp an answer then of what I had done in't, I had y<sup>r</sup> Lopp's letter to the Chan<sup>r</sup> for what I did, & I told him y<sup>r</sup> Lopp did wonder how he came to haue any land there, & that if I had not already pass't the Pattent I would haue held my hand, this I told him whereypon he p<sup>s</sup>ently gave out I would take his land from him & seuerall other vnhandsome speeches as he is indiscreet enough to say any thing att his pleasure— I haue acquainted the Chancell<sup>r</sup> wth what he had informd y<sup>r</sup> Lopp that I did not from time to time communicatt y<sup>r</sup> Lopp's Instructions to him to w<sup>ch</sup> he answerd me little, I desir'd him to lett me know what it was I had ever kept from him that concernd him selfe or the Countrey, he was pleas'd to giue me noe answer, though I can iustly complaine of his being backward in assisting & informing me of the buisnesse of the Countrey, but I shall presume to say noe more att p<sup>r</sup>sent of this vntill I shall haue a fitter opportunity. I inform'd M<sup>r</sup> Nuttall of what y<sup>r</sup> Lopp writt concerning my vsing of him friendly as y<sup>r</sup> Lopp comānded w<sup>ch</sup> I shall vpon all occasions doe for he deserues it & I doubt not but that he will prove very faithfull to the Interest of Maryland. The Runlett of Tobacco w<sup>ch</sup> Capt Cook carried ouer last year to y<sup>r</sup> Lopp was p<sup>r</sup>esented as a token from M<sup>r</sup> Preston the Great Quaker that was, when I spoak to him for a 100th one for to send to y<sup>r</sup> Lopp he was resolu'd to present it him selfe & caused it to be putt on board Capt Cooke & I knew nothing of't till Cook was sett saile out of the Riuer, I doe intend to send a smal runlett by M<sup>r</sup> Sewall of the same persons Tobacco, but I feare not soe good as the last I am very sorry that I am disappointed in euery Thing, that I haue nothing worth p<sup>r</sup>esenting y<sup>r</sup> Lopp

this yeare, I hope hereafter to gett dried peaches good stoare to send next yeare having one now that can doe them.

6th Sep. 1663. Your lopps bearing date as p Margent I receiv'd & the severall Bills of lading & inuoyce & other papers being duplicats of those I had receiv'd by Tully, & att the same time my Cozen W<sup>ms</sup> sister arriv'd here & is now att my house, & has the care of my household affaires, as yett noe good Match does p<sup>r</sup>sent, but I hope in a short time she may find one to her owne content & y<sup>r</sup> Lopps desire, I shall further what I can towards it, I have acquainted her Brother what y<sup>r</sup> Lopp does expect he should doe for her, but in case he does not, or be not in a Condition to doe much I shall take care she shall not want as long as she remains wth me, There came wth her two maids one to wait vpon her & the other to my selfe, I received likewise a light summer druggat suit a pewter still 2 Copper stew panns & in them 20<sup>lb</sup> of yellow wax, I alsoe had wth them other papers relating to former Accompts betwixt y<sup>r</sup> Lopp & the Chancell<sup>r</sup> the w<sup>ch</sup> I shall carefully peruse. We can heare nothing as yett of the Comiss<sup>rs</sup> w<sup>ch</sup> y<sup>r</sup> Lopp writt were going for New England;— The Carpenter w<sup>ch</sup> y<sup>r</sup> Lopp agreed wth Gilbert Mettcalfe for 30<sup>lb</sup> is now wth me I spoak wth Edmund Berkley in Virginia about him, but it was att least two month ere I had him afterwards, & when M<sup>r</sup> Berkley came for his 30<sup>lb</sup>, by Chance the fellow askt me what time Berkley had sold him to me, I told him for 3 yeares & as much as was then to Aprill, to w<sup>ch</sup> the fellow replyed S<sup>r</sup> he misinformd y<sup>n</sup> for I have but two yeares & as much as to next Aprill, I then demanded whether he had an Indentur & he produc't me one, & by that he had but two yeares more to serue, M<sup>r</sup> Berkley was a little amaz'd att first att it & could not tell well what to say, but vpon long examining The Indenturs & debating the whole buisnesse, I was resolu'd at last not pay for 3 yeares service when I saw he could not assure me off in regard the Indenture appear'd to me a good & firm obligacōn, & I veryly beleene it is; & some Trick of Berkleys, for as I since came to vnderstand he endeaour'd to gett this Indenture of the Carpen<sup>r</sup> but could not, & soe thought to haue had his Bills for 30th afore I should haue knowne any thing att all of it att last wee agreed for 20th for 2 yeares service, in regard I had much employm<sup>t</sup> for a Carpen<sup>r</sup> & hauing relyed vpon him for this fellow; had putt of others & was then seating a plantaōn at Wst S<sup>t</sup> Mary's. I gaue him Bills for 20th for 2 yeares service & I am to deliuer him att the end of the time he has to serue me to Berkley whoe will endeaour to make the poore fellow serue a other yeare if he can, I suppose he can not for its as good an Indenture as I see are made, The Carp<sup>r</sup> is a good workman & vnd<sup>r</sup>stands a mill very well for w<sup>ch</sup> I Chieflly bought him, & I hope to gett my mill finisht ere his time be out wth me, I haue askt the Chancell<sup>r</sup> of the fewness of the Port dutys for Catches & other vessells from London, to w<sup>ch</sup> he answered y<sup>r</sup> Lopp as he says that many of those Catches went a way wth out paying port dutys w<sup>ch</sup> I wonder att very much, & for the London Ships he says there were not more than what he mentio<sup>d</sup> (viz) 8 or 9; I receiued two letters from the Comiss<sup>rs</sup> of the Custome house of London about the Act for Trade & nauigaōn, w<sup>ch</sup> I shall answer by these shippes, & send Copys of This yeares bonds to y<sup>r</sup> Lopp & not to them. I humbly giue y<sup>r</sup> Lopp many Thanks for the Garden seeds I recei<sup>d</sup> This yeare, I shall for the future send y<sup>r</sup> Lopp a particular of all such things as I want, & would not that y<sup>r</sup> Lopp should be att soe great a charge for many Things w<sup>ch</sup> I haue recei<sup>d</sup> This yeare, for I haue had Tobaccos enough here w<sup>ch</sup> will buy many things wth when it is not worth sending

home, & for y<sup>r</sup> Lopp to buy soe many things in England I am sensible costs a great deale of moneys w<sup>ch</sup> I would not by any means y<sup>r</sup> Lopp should doe, vnless it be for such things as I send for, & then I will take care to send where with all to procure them. As for setting vp a farme for English Graine, I haue this yeare made a good stepp towards it, by sowing 15 or 16 bushells of wheate And 10 or 12 bushells of Oats, 7 bushells of pease 8 or 9 bushells of Barley, & if the yeare prove seasonable I doubt not but to haue 300 hundred bushells of wheat encrease for last yeare in a spott of ground of 2 acres & a halfe I had about 40 bushells of wheat a 12 bushells of Oats & 8 or 9 bushells of pease, & the straw of that preserved my young Cattle in the hard wether & kept me 4 horses constantly in the stables in very good hart, when other horses were hardly able to doe any seruice; The Flax & Hemp w<sup>ch</sup> y<sup>r</sup> Lopp sent me was sowd & begins now to come vp, for w<sup>ch</sup> I returne y<sup>r</sup> Lopp many humble Thanks, I recei'd likewise papers relating to the Chancell<sup>r</sup> Accompts, w<sup>ch</sup> I will peruse & know his answer; The Warrant for a Thousand acres for Bishop Russell I recei'd in 1662 & the Chan<sup>r</sup> was then very earnest to see it layd out, being for his Old acquaintance w<sup>ch</sup> made me doe nothing in't, but I humbly beg y<sup>r</sup> Lopp's pardon I return'd noe answer to't, but I shall now take effectuall course to see it done & to that end haue already giuen Ord<sup>r</sup> to the Suruey<sup>r</sup> to lay it out & the Pattent shall be sent him. The yeare has bene soe bad for euery thing that I shall be forc't to disapoint y<sup>r</sup> Lopp of meat & other things y<sup>r</sup> Lopp writt for, M<sup>r</sup> Sewall can inform y<sup>r</sup> Lopp being somewhat sensible of the difficulty in getting meate & Corne; & it has bene much worse wth me in regard of my being long absent from my family when I was sick in Virginia, I haue Thirty to provide victualls for, w<sup>ch</sup> does putt me to some care & trouble

besides the expence w<sup>ch</sup> is the least,—I haue labour'd what I can to procure y<sup>r</sup> Lopp some birds & deere but neither Tobaccoes nor moneys will tempt any person to gett me any this yeare, notwthstanding I haue profer'd great rates, your lopp was pleas'd to write that some had inform'd that wee had water Pheasants but as yett I can heare of none that euer saw any, & for our sort of hawks I neuer thought them worth sending otherwise I had sent long since some, the next yeare I shall be able to procure some to send. I returne your Lopp many Thanks for the Books I receiud by Story & the note of particulars, I had one Man Seruant named Thomas Venaubles a good diligent fellow & I shall vse him well vpon y<sup>r</sup> Loppes Comānds :—I acquainted doctor Barber of what y<sup>r</sup> Lopp writt me concerning him ;—I receiud y<sup>r</sup> Loppes letter of the 8th of Sept : & wonder very much that some should inform my Cousen W<sup>m</sup> Caluerts sister, that I had noe kindnesse for her, when I can safely say I neuer had any such thoughts & can say as much for Her Brother, I hope my Carriage to her & the Care I shall take to see her want for nothing will giue her reason to think better on me, The Maid that came wth her waits vpon her & shall remaine wth her according to y<sup>r</sup> Loppes Comānds—I shall pay vnto M<sup>r</sup> Fitzwilliams whoe is come in M<sup>r</sup> Fitzherberts place 6 barrells of Corne & likewise giue him all the encouragm<sup>t</sup> fitting ; I wonder very much att M<sup>r</sup> Fitzherberts discourses Concerning Maryland & our manner of liuing here, when he of all men neuer had the least oecation to abuse the Countrey & his friends see, as for what he writt y<sup>r</sup> Lopp of my being in danger of staruing I think my Table neuer gaue him cause to complaine of vs though I confesse he had good things & would as plentifully take of any liquour of w<sup>ch</sup> he had enough in my house & more then I thought fitting for a person of his coat to take

sometimes,—I received by This ship Copys of your loppes letters to the Chan<sup>r</sup> & his lady w<sup>ch</sup> I have perus'd & shall keepe them to my selfe & carefully obey y<sup>r</sup> Loppes Comānds in all things, I doubt not but that my Carriage to them since my coming into These parts has giuen sufficient testimony of my respect to them vpon all occasions, y<sup>r</sup> Lopp of the 28th of Octo<sup>r</sup> I received by Capt Miles Cook & duplicates & second Bills of lading for the things sent by Capt Tully, I likewise receiued papers about that busnesse of Tullys being stop't att Plimoth ; I had alsoe by this The Mill stones Brass & Iron worke for w<sup>ch</sup> I humbly returne y<sup>r</sup> Lopp many Thanks, & since y<sup>r</sup> Lopp has beene pleas'd to be Att The Charge y<sup>r</sup> selfe, I will now build her vpon my owne Account & keepe her to my selfe, M<sup>r</sup> White being a person as I find not fitt for the encountring the trouble & difficultys people haue to bring any thing to effect in This Countrey, he has beene euer since his arriual in This Prouince wth me & I haue giuen him his diett Thinking he mought haue beene of vse to me, but as yett not much, the life he leads here does not seeme to please him soe much as that he lead in Italy M<sup>r</sup> Sewall will inform y<sup>r</sup> Lopp more of him & other persons,— I receiued likewise halfe a Bushell of Garden Beanes a p<sup>r</sup> of Garden sheeres & harnessse for Three plough horses, & other necessarys for a plough. I alsoe had 2 hdds of mault of Capt Cooke but had not occasion for any more nayles then what y<sup>r</sup> Lopp was pleas'd to send me w<sup>ch</sup> I likewise had, & returne many humble Thanks for them, That buisnesse w<sup>ch</sup> the Secretary writt to y<sup>r</sup> Lopp about concerning the setting vp of a Saw Mill vpon an Island on the Easterne shoare as yet nothing is done in't & I beleeye it will be noe more thought on for my owne particular I am not in a Condiçō as yet to venture vpon such a chargeable designe as a Saw Mill will be afore it yeelds any profitt, perhaps I may putt 4 or 5 Saws into my Water mill if I can doe it wth little more Charge w<sup>ch</sup> I am Credibly informd I may, I shall the pēnt yeare acquaint y<sup>r</sup> Lopp how I proceed in't,—Wee heare nothing as yett of the Pattent w<sup>ch</sup> some Bristol Merchants has of that neck of land betwixt Rapa & Patowmeck but its say'd when all ships are gone it will be produc't, & the reason I heare of this is that noe news shall be carried home this yeare how the people relish their New Govern<sup>rs</sup> but will leave it till the next & by that time its hop't they may be quiett & well satisfied wth it. I haue endeauour'd to see if I could find as many responsible men that would engage to take a 100 or 200 neigros euery yeare from the Royall Company at that rate mentiond in y<sup>r</sup> Lopp's letter but I find wee are nott men of estates good enough to vndertake such a buisnesse, but could wish wee were for wee are naturally inclin'd to loue neigros if our purses would endure it;— I acquainted M<sup>r</sup> Fitzwilliams of his abrupt parting att London wth out takeing leaue of y<sup>r</sup> Lopp w<sup>ch</sup> he does acknowledge & asks y<sup>r</sup> Lopp's pardon for't he will I suppose write as much by this ship;— By This ship I receiued one Warner a Miller & his wife she being since dead a little after she came a shoare was brought to bed & the Child died alsoe; I shall punctually obey y<sup>r</sup> Lopp's Comānds as to him. I receiued likewise drawne in the behalfe of Capt Tilghman, but that business was taken vp by me & the Rest of the Councell by reason he had askt pardon & was sorry for what he had sayd,— I haue sent y<sup>r</sup> Lopp's letter to Coll<sup>l</sup> Smith with in one from my selfe, I shall desire y<sup>r</sup> Lopp will take notice to him & her the next shipping of the fauours I receiud from them in my time of sicknesse, I was sick att their house 6 weekes & she took very great care of me I shall humbly Desire y<sup>r</sup> Lopp to thank them both for't ; That w<sup>ch</sup> Capt Cook spoak to y<sup>r</sup> Lopp concerning his Admiralship part of the Vessell of the S<sup>t</sup> George of Bantry I haue endeauour'd to gett it for him of the Chancell<sup>r</sup> whoe tells me 30th remaines yett in his hands, w<sup>ch</sup> he will pay vnto Cook I suppose according to y<sup>r</sup> Lopp's Ord<sup>r</sup>.— The Mill stones w<sup>ch</sup> came in Cook were Blew & 4 foot & 9 Inches & I had all the Brass & Iron work belonging to them. I suppose Capt Cook will haue nothing for the freight for as much as I can perceine by him as yett, he has been beholding to me for as much as that comes from time to time. He has beene very Ciuill to me vpon all oocations for w<sup>ch</sup> I desire y<sup>r</sup> Lopp will please to thank him. The letter w<sup>ch</sup> y<sup>r</sup> Lopp sent to doctor Barber wth a flying seale I did first read it & deliuerd afterwards to him.— I receiued more by Capt Cooke 2 bills for Harnesse for 3 horses & Iron work for a plough & alsoe a note of Things sent in a box C : C : N<sup>o</sup> 1 & a p<sup>r</sup> of Garden sheeres C : C : N<sup>o</sup> 2 ; I shall not be willing to entertaine Brick-makers or Carpenters at the Rate y<sup>r</sup> Lopp mentions, for I feare it will not turne to Accompt here wth vs, but humbly returne y<sup>r</sup> Lopp many Thanks, & for the News Books & other Papers. Now may it please y<sup>r</sup> Lopp in answer to what y<sup>r</sup> Lopp writt about my going for England next shipping w<sup>ch</sup> I haue an earnest desire to if things be soe settled here that I may haue desire to returne back againe by the same shipping—for that as y<sup>r</sup> lopp writes will be most requisitt for both the reasons sett downe by y<sup>r</sup> Lopp, the Charge of such a voyage if vndertaken I shall take care to defray wth what I hope to gett here, w<sup>ch</sup> is the least difficulty I find, but in whose hands to leane the Govern<sup>t</sup> in vntill I come back is that I am att a stand att, for if I should goe from hence in the last ship, & returne in the first as I necessarily must, my stay in England will be but short in England, & I haue great cause to feare, that I shall find much confusion at my returne, for as y<sup>r</sup> Lopp was please to write that it were best to make my Vncle Gouer<sup>r</sup> in my Absence on the side I know it to be very necessary & againe am very sensible how much he has disgusted all in Generall & especially those that haue bene euer faithfull to y<sup>r</sup> Lopps Interest here & such as haue shewne me any thing of Kindnesse since my Coming into this Province. He has soe much by Instruements employd by him threatened what he'll doe when the power comes againe into his hands as he giues out an other yeare it necessarily must in regard he vnd<sup>r</sup>stands y<sup>r</sup> Lopp has a desire I should goe for England, next shipping, that the people doe dread nothing more & especially such as I sayd afore had bene y<sup>r</sup> Lopps friends whoe are resolud to lay downe their Comissions if not sell what they haue & begon the Secretary will satisfie y<sup>r</sup> Lopp of euery particular & what he has endeauourd to doe is to draw the Affections of the people from me w<sup>ch</sup> I doe not fear in the least, for I haue had as much testimony of their Kindnesse as could be expected by me from them, & especially in my time of sicknesse in Virginia as the Secretary can informe y<sup>r</sup> Lopp. This in short is that w<sup>ch</sup> to me is the onely difficulty w<sup>ch</sup> if y<sup>r</sup> Lopp can accomodate soe that things may be settled att my returne as now they are, I shall most Chearefully & wth a greate deale of desire prepare for my going for England next yeare to see y<sup>r</sup> Lopp then w<sup>ch</sup> nothing can bring soe much satisfaction & comfort to him whoe remaines as euer

Your Lopps Most dutifull

Sonne

No. 15.

GOVERNOR CHARLES CALVERT TO CECILIUS,
 LORD BALTIMORE.

Indorsement.

26 April 1672

My son Charles to me

from Maryland

Brought by Cap: Ben: Cooper

recd 12 July 1672

Inclosed in it

A copy of my Com̄ission to my son Charles for the Governm<sup>t</sup>
 of Maryland.

May itt please yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup>

Cap<sup>t</sup> William Wheatley is now gone, by him I writ to y<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> a short Letter, only to Convey some Bills of Exchange the seconds And some others I send herewth It is now high time that I returne answe<sup>r</sup> to all yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> Letters by this Last Shippinge; and therefore I am now preparing this against Cap<sup>t</sup> Cooper sailes, who hath giuen mee butt a weekes time;

that I may give a full answer to all yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup>s l<sup>rs</sup>. and Every particular Contained in them, I shall now take them afore mee according to their severall dates. Yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup>s of the the third of July by Gouldsmith. Gaue me to vnderstand that the Bill for £40 & the other for £70.. 15.. 0<sup>d</sup> were both Complied with, and that all my Letters Came well to yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup>s hands, As alsoe the Act for 2 50 the lb<sup>o</sup> which I perceiue yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> is Satisfyed with, our Endeauours were not wantinge to haue procured itt otherwise, butt Could not preuaile which I hope yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> is Sensible off; I am glad that the Tax vpon Tobacco is not Settled, for I am assured the Comodity will not beare that Burden, yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> Mentions, that the difference betwixt his Royall Highness, and yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> is not yett determined, which wee are very Sorry for, because itt begett a beliefe in Many th<sup>t</sup> yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> will hardly Recouer yo<sup>r</sup> Right, And Causes many to take Land att the Hore Keele from the Government of New Yorke, I am dayly perswadinge & Encouraginge persons to seat there in yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup>s Right, And some are already gone, And more I hope will Venture Coll<sup>l</sup> Francis Louclace Governour of New Yorke, is Come lately to Deluware, (As Augustine writes mee word) but vpon what Designe is not yett Knowne, I fear that he Intends to make a rissitt to the people at the Hore Keele, to Encourage them to oppose those Seated and Settled in Right of this province butt of this I shall give yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> a further accompt. I sent yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> all the Affidauits I Could gett, In pursuance to yo<sup>r</sup> Commands by Morris & Cobb by whom I Received L<sup>s</sup> to that purpose when I send Bills of Exchange for the future, I will take Care that Letters of Advise goe with them accordinge to yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup>s directions I Could not possibly the last Assembly doe any thinge in order to yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup>s Command about those prejudiciall prorisoes in the Act for Support. Wee satt not Long, and the sad news of Dear Sister Blackstons Death Comeing then to my hand, Made mee prorouge them till next October, Against which time I hope wee may haue further Commands. And the Company of Sr William Talbot, yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup>s Ordinance will neuer pass, And therefore to moue itt to the Assembly, will I fear, prejudice our other business, there is nothing more in this Letter which I need giue answ<sup>r</sup> to because itt Refers to others Received after. Yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> next Letter is that of the 29th July by Miles Cooke which makes Mention of my Sisters Sickness, And the great Afflictions yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> was in att that time, I am glad the Box of L<sup>r</sup>s by Cap<sup>t</sup> Tully Came safe to yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> And that yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> is pleased to Signify you are sensible of my Care and Dilligence in yo<sup>r</sup> Business here, My Lord itt is the greatest Comfort I haue, when yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> Receiues Satisfaction in my poore Endeauours, which I know are butt Dutyes in mee, I shall neuer bee slacke in the Executinge those Commands yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> shall Impose vpon mee, nor bee wantinge in my Duty to yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> at any time I hope; I most humbly Returne yo<sup>r</sup> Lordshipp thanks, for yo<sup>r</sup> fauourable answer to the humble Request and propossition I made to yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> in my owne behalfe And shall most willingly performe to the Chancellor Cousin Calvert and the Rest of the Council, As yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> Requires. And alsoe make sufficient provision for the Magazin. If yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup>s Rents will doe the Latter, It is as much as I hope from them as they are now Curtailed; Sr W<sup>m</sup> Talbot (in Case hee Returns to his place againe) will (I am Confident) bee very well Satisfyed with the perquisitts thereof, And will not stand In need of any other Supply, yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> hauncinge Confirmed to him those fees Which the Chancellor (whilst I was in England) Enjoyed; I doe Intend to send yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> an accompt of the full proffitts of his place, Received by mee as his Attorney, that itt may appear to

 Bill for £130 Sterling, and am very well Content to take itt as
 I am glad Tully paid yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> his Bill for £12.. 8<sup>s</sup> sterling, I was almost afraide of him here, but that I Could not find another Chapman for the Tobaccoes Little Cis presents his humble Duty to yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> and is glad his Letter Came safe, hee Intends yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> an other by the last Shipp, hee would willingly Carry one himselfe. for hee often Inquires when flather & mother will goe to Lord againe Cap<sup>t</sup> Miles Cooke is discharged from his Last Business dependinge in our Court about his Vessell, And I ordered him to Acquaint yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> with itt, As done by yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>ppes</sup> Commands to mee, I Rece'd yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> of the 30th of July in fauour of M<sup>rs</sup> Boughton And the Noate of particulars of what is due to her, The w<sup>ch</sup> I will not faile to send by Cap<sup>t</sup> Conaway, And Consigne itt to her, with Directions to Cap<sup>t</sup> Conaway to Enquire of M<sup>r</sup> Burke where to find her, for I will Shipp the Tobaccoes on bord his Shipp for her viz<sup>t</sup> £12000 Tob<sup>o</sup>) yo<sup>r</sup> Lordships of the first of August was writt all by yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>ppes</sup> owne hand And Mentions the Commission & Instructions for the Surveyer Generall, And a bond to bee signed by him before the deliuey of the said Commission, which I obserued as yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>ppes</sup> directed And shall send the Bond herewith for M<sup>r</sup> John Langford's Truly as yett hee hath gott Little. And if hee pay ten pound this yeare, hee has only a Commission for itt, hee will take Care that the Moneyes shall bee sent, And M<sup>r</sup> Pladwells fee of
 our Journalls And Acts, which I will make vse of hereafter,
 I shall take noe notice of what yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> writes touchinge
 M<sup>r</sup> Langhorns opinion of the ppetuity of that Act, But will

Endeaunour to gett that Act for Quietting possessions. As itt is now drawne, to bee past In Leine of the other, And if I Cannot gett those pernicious provisoes struicke out of the Act for Support, I will see what Can bee effected, by proposinge this other Act of a Generall pardon, what yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> writes in this Letter touchinge the Third Act sent herewith, is Contradicted I thinke by an other Letter which I shall Come to by & by— I inserted Dates to my Cousin Brookes Bond to John Langford And haue Acquainted M<sup>r</sup> Warren and M<sup>r</sup> floster of M<sup>r</sup> Symons Death & M<sup>r</sup> Grayes Succeedinge him, And that they may hope for a Supply of theirs—yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pps</sup> of the 21<sup>o</sup> August makes mention of S<sup>r</sup> W<sup>m</sup> Talbots Ariuall And of the good accompt hee giues of Maryland & friends here I pray god hee likes the Country and Intertainment soe well, As to Returne to vs againe, I hope there is noe great Danger that his vncle Dicke will hinder itt, Since itt seemes hee talkes of being an Instrument to perswade him backe, I shall make itt appear by an Accompt yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> shall haue herewith that the Secretaries place is worth vpwards of ffour hundred pounds a year. It is possible when Tobaccoes is Low soe much is not to bee gotten, Butt alloweing a peny pd for Tobacco which wee hope to haue againe, the profitts and perquissits of that place will amount to near what I haue writt; I will Cause Cap<sup>t</sup>. John Tully to make satisfaction for the 3 hh<sup>o</sup> of Tobaccoes which hee fell short of to yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> I am Certaine hee or the husband of the Shipp Dandy hath Cheated yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> of them, fför the Sherrifes accompt makes itt out Seauenteen hogsheads, And itt will bee made out by Senerall Oathes that Tullyes Mat<sup>r</sup> Received soe many by ord<sup>r</sup> I humbly begg yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pps</sup> pardon for not sendinge that Bill of Mine for £6.. 18.. 10<sup>d</sup> Which I sett downe in that short Accompt I sent by S<sup>r</sup> William, The which I thought I had drawne &

bee hers & her Childrens proper Right, If I knew who to goe to, besids M<sup>rs</sup> floukes (who Cannott speake three words of sence for her passion which this Business putts her into) I would giue a better accompt, I am Certaine nothing will Satisfye her butt the whole 2000 Acres, But I hope yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> will neuer thinke fitt to Comply with her in soe vnreasonable a Demand, Shee hath sufficiently bespattered mee and the whole Gouvernement as If I had Studied her Ruine, Because I ventured to make a promise of the other Moyety of the 2000 Acres to one M<sup>r</sup> Rozer, High Sherrife of Charles County, who liues and hath built vpon itt, hee being willing to buy the Reversion of itt, after the Lease is out for one & Twenty years, which was granted of itt to M<sup>rs</sup> Oversee in Lein of her Thirds to S<sup>t</sup> Johns, when I came first into Maryland, which I was forced to doe otherwise I Could not haue had S<sup>t</sup> Johns to my selfe but of this I will write to yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> further when I send an accompt of the other Escheated Lands. This in short I Can Certainly Informe yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> that M<sup>rs</sup> floukes is in possession and has all along Enjoyed one Moyty, which (I hope) shee must vnderstand is by yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup>s fauour, though shee will neuer owne itt as such, The other Moyety was neuer In her possession nor in her husbands, Butt Euer was in the possession of Ouersee, And therefore a Lease thereof was made to M<sup>r</sup> Alderton now husband to Oversees widdow, by him Assigned over to one Edmund Linsey, and by Edmund Linsey to the aboue Mentioned M<sup>r</sup> Rozer, To whom I haue promised to procure a grant of the Reversion, As I shall hereafter giue an Accompt, I will Endeavour to gett those papers for yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> If any such are Extant any where, to Cleere this Matter Better, I Received from M<sup>rs</sup> Roads yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup>s Letters of the 30<sup>e</sup> August and all the things sent in that shipp I deliuered M<sup>r</sup> Nottly those writtings, which

Came wth this Letter, with which hee is much satisfied and very proud of yo<sup>r</sup> Lordships beinge pleased wth his accompts And the fauour shewen him in all the Lands hee purchased from M<sup>r</sup> George Tompson, I suppose hee will signifye as much by a Letter to yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> this Shippinge, hee did Acquaint mee with his Intention to Request this of yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup>, Butt S<sup>r</sup> William Talbott vnderooke to procure the fauour for him soe that I thought itt vnnesesary for me to trouble yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> wth it. I am sorry I Cannott affirme to yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> that I euer had any hopes of our Tin Oare here, for although Cap<sup>t</sup> Perry declared by word of Mouth to mee, As much as any one Man Could doe for the Satisfaction of another, and shewed mee his Letter to yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup>, which Confirmed as much, yett had not I faith to beleue a word, Only out of Ciuility to Cap<sup>t</sup> Perry seemed Satisfyed, Butt my fancy is that Both Cap<sup>t</sup> Perry and the Chancellor were soe Transported wth the designs and hopes of itt, that the meere force of their Imagination Led them to beelieue they had found Mettle where neuer any was to bee Expected, for to this hower they Could neuer Extract any more mettle out of such Oare w<sup>ch</sup> now makes mee Conclude wth yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> that it was butt a Cheat in the fellow that first putt them vpon itt, Doctor Wharton has taken notice that yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> honoured him with a li<sup>ve</sup> this Shippinge, And intends to returne thanks hee has not yett gott a Seate of Land of his owne, Butt makes vse of a peice of Land hee farmes of M<sup>r</sup> George Tompson, hee has past his Seasoninge (As wee phrase itt) very well, And I hope will Incourage some of his freinds and Acquaintance to Come from Barbados hither— I find that yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> hath been Informed by S<sup>r</sup> W<sup>m</sup> Talbott that hee sould Tobaccoes at 10<sup>so</sup> the hund<sup>d</sup> when I gaue yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> accompt butt of a peny p pound, for yo<sup>r</sup> Rents, hee had done well if hee had tould yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> the whole As hee did in part, It is true hee sould to Cap<sup>t</sup> Daniell Ienifer some Tobaccoes to freight a Brigantine, designed then on a Voyadge to Barbados, at ten shillings the hundred, Butt the moneyes were not to bee paid till this Shippinge for I sent him home the Bills this yeare, And I question whether Barnaby Dunch will pay those Bills of Ienifers, Sr William Talbot forgott to tell yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> that hee sould Tobaccoes to Cap<sup>t</sup> William Burgess for a peny p pound and was glad hee Could gett soe much, And would haue sould all his fees soe to my Knowledge, The Chancellor is Satisfyed with yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup>s Commands about his fees, And will not for the future (I presume) demand any other fee then that of the Greate Seale allowed by yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> our Assembly is still proroged, And as long as I find them psons soe well tempered and disposed, I shall not Change for new faces, The Business of the Easterne shore goes well on, only the psons which owne this Gouvernement are a little disturbed by the other party, Butt I will Incourage them and others to Seat downe, And Assure them that they shall bee protected by this Gouvernement, Thomas Joanes, whom yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> mentions in this Letter, is Ariued Lately, And Acquaints mee of yo<sup>r</sup> Lordships fauourable Expressions to him, Butt I Cannot find hee is like to bee soe Serviceable to yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> as hee might make him selfe appeare, hee seemes to desire a Commission to Trade with the Hore Keele Indians only, Butt I refused him that, vnless hee would firme the whole Trade, for should I grant him a Lycence to trade and deale with those Indians itt would bee in effect to trade with all the Indians in the Bay As yett wee are nott agreed; Care shall bee taken that the oath of fidelity bee tendered to such as seate for the future on the Seabord side, I am sorry to vnderstand my freind M<sup>r</sup> flortescue was soe Bad, I hope As yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> writes I shall by my Returnes this yeare make yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> amends for the small and Inconsiderable Sume sent last Shippinge C<sup>is</sup> is glad his La<sup>re</sup> Came safe and humbly thanks yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> for the fine token, which yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> writes you thought not to haue sent this yeare, This last summer I Caused two of yo<sup>r</sup> Mannors to bee laid out, Wth some Addition, A worke which M<sup>r</sup> White thought hee had done, Butt I found itt soe ill done, That I Caused Resurvey's to bee made, and lines in some parts to bee Altered, which is now Recorded as yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup>s Commandt mee, And shall see alsoe that Copy of the Records of them bee sent as yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> desires, I haue vsed all Meanes possible And wayes to procure some Elkes & deere for yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> I haue sent seuerall times to Jacob Younge about itt, Who I am Certaine would as willingly gett them as yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> desires, because hee hath a great desire to gett his patent which is deferred till hee Comply with yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup>s directions herein If any pson in Maryland Can procure them It must bee this pson or none, Wee haue had such an open Winter that all our Bird Catchers haue failed, not soe much as a Red bird hath been Caught by any that I Can hear of, I haue oft spoken to my Cousin William Calvert about itt and to my Cousin Darnell and others, And they all assure mee that noe Birds are to bee had, for my owne part I seldome meete wth any my selfe, Butt I haue not neglected to speake to Euery one th<sup>t</sup> I Conceiue might procure these things, had S<sup>r</sup> W<sup>m</sup> been heere hee would not haue found itt soe Easy a matter, as hee has affirmed itt to yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup>, Those hawkes which I sent yo<sup>r</sup> Lordshipp last Shippinge were paid for mee, And if more Could bee gott now I would willingly giue any Rates for them, or any the other Rarities yo<sup>r</sup> Lordship desires. My Brother Vincent Low Returnes yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> many humble thanks flo<sup>r</sup> the notice yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> is pleased to take of him, I hope hee will deserue the Continuance of yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>ps</sup> Countenance & fauour to him I haue Acquainted M<sup>r</sup> James Tompson that yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> Requires him to make Inspection into the Mannors, which hee will doe, and giue accompt from time to time of any thing which may bee done to yo<sup>r</sup> Lord<sup>ps</sup> prejudice. I shall take very great Care that pottomecke Riner bee owned (as itt is) part and belonginge to this prouince I am afraid itt will bee a very hard Matter to find such Casque here as shall preserue Syder good to England, for wee want good Coopers and such as are knoweinge in the Seasoninge of Casque for such purposes. The Chancellors Cider is pretty good Butt I am of Opinion the best Syder in the Country will doe vs noe Creditt in England, Could wee see order itt as to preserue itt thither By Cap<sup>t</sup> Benj<sup>t</sup> Cooper with whom this goes, I shall send yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> a good hogshhead of Sweete sented Tobacco, which I intend to p<sup>r</sup>sent to yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> It Comes from Jarboes plantation, from whence the last Came yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> had when I was in England, My wife has this yeare sent yo<sup>r</sup> Lordship some dryed peaches, And would haue sent a greater number had shee had Conueniencies for doeinge More, Cheeses worth presentinge to yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> are not to bee had. M<sup>rs</sup> Spry (who made that yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> tasted when I was in England) hath not any good Enough as shee thinkes, And shee will not Loose that Reputation shee hath already Gott, And vnless shee furnishes mee, noe other housewife in Maryland Can I am Certaine, for the Cheeses Generally made here are soe Ranke and soe full of Eyes, that yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> would bee angry with mee should I send such, I am sorry my Cos. Lukner thinkes not of Marryinge yett, because that Match would haue Brought a great deale of Honnour besids the Advantages of a Plentifull fortune, I thanke yo<sup>r</sup> Lordship for Causeinge M<sup>r</sup> Pladwell to deliuer Copys of the Bonds for

1669 & 1670 to the farmers, I shall not faile of sendinge Copyes Every yeare as the Act Requires, yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> signifyes that the business betwixt his Royall Highness & yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> is not yett determined which I am sorry for, I hope to heare news of yo<sup>r</sup> Lordshippes good success in itt by the next Shippinge, Major fitzherberts Brother who Maryed the Indian Brent, has Cūilly parted with her And (as I suppose) will neuer Care to bed with her more, soe that yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> needs not to fear any ill Consequence from that Match, butt what has already happened to the poore Man who vnaduisedly threw himselfe away vpon her in hopes of a great portion, which now is Come to Little, I shall doe my Endeavour to pswade people to Seate vp the Bay to the Northward of Thirty nine Degrees and a halfe vpon those tearmes yo<sup>r</sup> Lordship does order mee, Butt I fear none will goe as yett, for I find a greater Inclination in most yong Men to seat on the Sea Bord side, And many Discourse of the Southward plantations I pray God a Considerable number of our people doe not Remoue thither, Seruants are Attemptinge in many plaeces to make their Escapes thither, But wee doe all wee Can to prevent these Mischeifes, If I can send yo<sup>r</sup> Lordshipp any other affidauites besides that which yo<sup>r</sup> Lordshipp hath of Van Swerring I will gett and send them by this Shippinge, M<sup>r</sup> Nottly is now Speaker of o<sup>r</sup> Assembly, hee and M<sup>r</sup> John Moorecroft beinge Chossen Burgesses for the City of St. Maries, And by that Meanes I gott him into the Assembly, Though Doctor Wharton bee a good vnderstandinge Man yett D<sup>r</sup> Moorecroft is much more for our purpose, being the best Lawyer in the Country, and has alwayes been (vpon other Assemblies) A great Asserter of yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup>s Charter and the Rights & privilidges thereof, I durst not putt itt to an Election in the Countyes Butt tooke this way which I Knew would Certainly doe what I desired And now I haue gott M<sup>r</sup> Nottly into the Chaire, I haue Assured him, That with yo<sup>r</sup> Lordships Leauē, I am Resolved to Keepe him there as longe as hee and I line together, It is most Certaine that some of the Catholiques in the Assembly, Did not behaue themselves as was Expected, hereafter they will I hope Endeauour to vnderstand themselves Better And their owne Interrest, I will doe my Endeauours to gett the Act for Liguers past, this next Meetinge if I Can— My Reason for dislikinge the Act for forraign Coynes which I writ to yo<sup>r</sup> Lordshipp about, is that the Assembly did not make those Coynes soe Currant as that people should Receiue them att their generall Rates specifed in that Act, And itt happens, as I feared itt would, that many will not Deale att all for those Coynes vnless they may Goe for the old and former valew, which is Accordinge to the weight of the Silver, It is an Idle Act and may bee throwne out of doores, I am glad the business of the Shipp W<sup>m</sup> of Douer has Giuen yo<sup>r</sup> Lordship noe trouble, I hear that the Ship Arriued and the Master in prisson if soe yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> will heare nothings of itt, Truly my Lord I Couett noe mans goods, nor Vessell And doe not desire to grow Rich by such Courses, which Caused me to Encline S<sup>r</sup> Talbot to that Guift, And itt happened to bee done att S<sup>r</sup> Maries, the Assembly then sittinge, who thought itt a very noble Act And wrought much vpon them to our good I hope. I once more humbly Returne yo<sup>r</sup> Lordshipp many thanks for takeinge notice of the Allowance Granted mee by yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> 29th July which I haue afore answered, I hope I shall bee able to line out of itt, Butt I must Resolue to bee a Better husband then formerly, Though I will not saue itt, where my owne Creditt or yo<sup>r</sup> Lordships is Concerned, I am much oblidged to S<sup>r</sup> W<sup>m</sup> Talbot for the Good Character hee has giuen of our liuinge My Resolution is to doe all I Can Towards a plentifull Table for the Land I find will yeild vs any thinge, If our Endeauours are nott wantinge—I haue Received all the Duplicats and Letters Mentioned to haue been sent wth this Letter, yo<sup>r</sup> Lordshipps of the 4th of 7ber Mentions that I must send a p<sup>t</sup>icular accompt of the seuerall Lands Escheated to yo<sup>r</sup> Lordshipp afore that I shall haue any power for the Sale of them, which I shall according to Direction send yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> by Conaway or Tully, I hope my Couz. Baker Brooke will doe in this p<sup>t</sup>icular what yo<sup>r</sup> Lordshipp Requires from him, Orders shall bee giuen to the Sherrifes as yo<sup>r</sup> Lordshipp Commands, Butt first an Inquissition must bee had, And a Jury of Twelue men must bee satisfied and make Return afore any order Can bee giuen to Seize on the Lands, I shall in the Meane time giue yo<sup>r</sup> Lordshipp an Accompt of the quantity of Acres & quality of the Land. As yett I haue done nothinge in Gerrards business which Sr W<sup>m</sup> Talbot Informed yo<sup>r</sup> Lordshipp of, neither doe I know Certainly whether itt will bee worth my trouble, what I then Intended was vpon the Report of his neighborhood who I fear will proue butt ill guessers; Accordinge to yo<sup>r</sup> Lordships Commands I haue gott the Mannor at the Ridg wholly to my selfe, and doe Intend to keepe itt Intire for the future. I haue taken notice of M<sup>r</sup> Whites Rent paid yo<sup>r</sup> Lordship in England, the Warrant of the 26th Nouember in fauour of My Aunt Peaseley as yett has done her noe Service, haneing not been able to dispose of any of those Lands which that Warrant Impowered mee to sell for her, And now yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> will not haue mee to pursue those Commands till you haue accompt of the Quantity Qualitieses &c. which I shall as well as I can Informe yo<sup>r</sup> Lordship in; As alsoe what any one shall offer for these or the other Escheats lands, M<sup>r</sup> Truman as yett has not stirred in that business which M<sup>r</sup> White Acquainted yo<sup>r</sup> Lordshipp wth. If I hear any thing from him about itt I will doe my best to secure M<sup>r</sup> Whites Right and my owne yo<sup>r</sup> Lordship of the 16<sup>o</sup>. 7ber Signifyes that yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> Intended to haue sent senerall things by Cap<sup>t</sup> Connaway, But they had the Good Lucke not bee putt on Bord afore that Accident happened to his Shipp, which I was very glad to vnderstand, And humbly thanke yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> both for the thinges and the trouble yo<sup>r</sup> Lordshipp gaue yo<sup>r</sup>selfe in the sendinge of them, they all Came safe to mee, wth M<sup>rs</sup> Roads in the Baltemore, In yo<sup>r</sup> Lordshipp the 18th 7ber is Mentioned M<sup>r</sup> Nottlyes papers about his Lands which I have already Signified to bee deliuered him, the Warrant for Bartholomew Coats does not answ<sup>r</sup> his request S<sup>r</sup> W<sup>m</sup> Talbott haucinge mistooke his Mes- sidge in her behalfe, of this I shall write further when I send accompt of the Escheated Lands, Rob<sup>t</sup> Hawkins is Come and has full possession giuen him of all that is left of that Estate of his Brother Johns lately Murdered, I receed herewith a Copy of Langfords Bond the originall being Signed, the which I will send with this packett, M<sup>r</sup> Rob<sup>t</sup> Harper Nephew to S<sup>r</sup> Thomas Strickland has not been wth mee when I see him yo<sup>r</sup> Lordshippes Commands shall bee obeyed; another l<sup>r</sup>e of the 18<sup>o</sup>. 7ber in fauour of M<sup>r</sup> Thomas Welburne whom I haue treated with all Ciuilly and promist him all fauour I can shew him, I Receiued a letter from the Lord Viscount flaulcon urge in his behalfe, to which I returned answ<sup>r</sup> p M<sup>r</sup> Welburne yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup>s of the 22<sup>o</sup>. 7ber Came wth the thinges w<sup>ch</sup> yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup>s by yo<sup>r</sup> l<sup>r</sup>e 30th Aug<sup>t</sup> Signified that you should not send this Shippinge Euery thinge Came safe and well to my hands, And by yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup>s Directions I soone Came to the Knowledg of all the fine Contriuances of the Cabinet. My wife has by a Letter to yo<sup>r</sup> Lordshipp sent her humble thanks

which now againe shee humbly desires may bee p<sup>r</sup>sented, Alsoe little C<sup>is</sup> p<sup>r</sup>sents yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> with his thanks for the Capp feather Sword & Belt all which hee found as yo<sup>r</sup> Lordship Signified. I Reced herewith the Copy of a noate yo<sup>r</sup> Lordshipp gave to M<sup>r</sup> Arthur about my moneyes, which was taken out of Hinton's hands for the Buyinge those nessesaryes I sent for I shall herewith send to M<sup>r</sup> Arthur that I allow of what has been done therein, and Cleere yo<sup>r</sup> Lordship from that trouble I Reced from M<sup>r</sup> Burke an accompt of Euery thinge to my Satisfaction, Care shall bee taken that noe patents for the future shall bee Recorded afore they haue pasted the Great Seale. If any such abuses have been Committed att any time in the Secretaries office, The pson who Informed yo<sup>r</sup> Lordshipp Chiefly Occationed itt, by his beinge too Curious in the Receiuinge his fees, yo<sup>r</sup> Lordshipp's Command to him now will Remoue that occasion, And for what is past I will take Care shall bee Rectified and see the like bee not done for the future. I humbly once more Returne yo<sup>r</sup> Lordshipp thanks for the Excellent token I Receiued which I haue soe much valedwed, that vnless itt bee vpon very great dayes & In Comp<sup>a</sup> with the best persons these parts afford, I doe not presume to bringe out a Bottle, Both sorts beinge Exceedinge Good in their Kind, I am sorry I haue not Syder to fill the Bottles with worth sendinge, otherwise I should willingly obey yo<sup>r</sup> Lordshipp's Commands and bee very proud to send itt, I haue already assured yo<sup>r</sup> Lordshipp that my Endeauours haue not been wantinge to Solicite all persons any way likely to procure those Rarities sent for and specified in a noate sent mee in this Letter, And I am disapointed by all in Euery thinge desired, which is an Accompt I most vnwillingly returne Could I speed in my desires herein, I find Capt Cooper to bee Command<sup>r</sup> of the Elias, And to carry yo<sup>r</sup> Lord-

ships flagge in the foretopp hee is a Ciuill pson and I doubt not butt will deserue the honnour hee has Receiued, haueinge notice by this Letter that Capt John Dunsh was by Commission yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup>s Admirall I saluted him att his Ariuall by that Title, Butt afterwards vnderstood by M<sup>rs</sup> Roads that the Commission for some Reasons best Knowne to M<sup>r</sup> Burke was not deliuered him though Caryed downe to Graues End, I hope yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> will Cause itt to bee deliuered him, for hee has been very Ciuill to mee this yeare, though I vnderstand that M<sup>r</sup> Burke thought hee vsed mee not well in the freight of some Goods I haue forgiuen that vnkindness by Reason hee has made mee amends by his Ciuillityes since hee last Came into Maryland I haue been very Carefull of S<sup>r</sup> W<sup>m</sup> Talbots Concernes and hope hee will haue Reason to thinke soe when I send him his Accompt, M<sup>rs</sup> Saunders who Came with M<sup>rs</sup> Roads appears to bee a very well behaued bred pson as yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> writes, And therefore I Receiued her vnder my Rooffe where I presume shee will Remaine for one yeare, & I hope shee will thinke fitt to dispose of herselfe by way of Marryadge afore that time bee Expired, I will not faile to Cause a Copy of yo<sup>r</sup> Lordships last Commission to mee for the Gouernment to bee Carefully written Examined and sent herewith accordinge to yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup>s Command, yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup>s of the 24<sup>e</sup> September brought mee the sad news of my Sister Blackstones death which has been a great Affliction to mee euer since, I hope shee is happy our prayers shall not bee wantinge, It is a great Comfort to mee that shee was soe well prepared and Resigned as I vnderstand shee was, I Caused all the Good Men here to say Masses for her soule, Yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup>s of the 23<sup>e</sup> 8<sup>ber</sup> Came wth Cap<sup>t</sup> Wheatley with seuerall other Duplicates and mentions the sad news of my Sisters death which I reced in the foregoeing of the 24. 7ber I find by this Letter of

yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup>s there has been a hundred pounds of my moneyes taken out of M<sup>r</sup> Hintons hands for which yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> has vnder-taken I shall Allow of itt. I will not omitt to Cleere yo<sup>r</sup> Lordshipp from yo<sup>r</sup> Engagements herein by sending a l<sup>r</sup>e to that purpose herewith, As I haue in a l<sup>r</sup>e to M<sup>r</sup> Arthur Mready, there is nothinge Else in this Letter to bee answered but what I haue already Signifyed to yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> in this answe<sup>r</sup> to the foregoeing. With yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup>s of the 18<sup>o</sup> 9ber I Reced a Copy of the fees I allowed the Chancellar whilst I was in England as alsoe a Copy of a Bill Costs in Chancery, with a Letter from M<sup>r</sup> Langhorne touchinge the Settlement of such fees, As yo<sup>r</sup> Lordshipp thinkes fitt to allow of for the future, The Chancellor did not acquaint mee with his Intentions of sending that Bill of Costs in Chancery, which I find hee sent yo<sup>r</sup> Lordshippe It was his owne proper business which hee desired to bee Satisfyed in from yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> o<sup>r</sup> Resolution now is to take this Settlement for the future if wee Can butt vnderstand it. I reced with yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup>s l<sup>r</sup>e of the 19<sup>o</sup> 9ber a Copy of a l<sup>r</sup>e from the Lords Commissioners of his Ma<sup>ties</sup> Treasury which I haue Carefully perused and will not faile to performe what therein is required, I am glad to vnderstand from yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> th<sup>t</sup> Tobaccoes was Risen in price, butt I feare that will not hold Longe for wee are like to send home great Quantities this Shippinge. In the postscript of this Letter yo<sup>r</sup> Lordship orders mee to obserue what the Lords Commissioners requires touching the Caryeing all Tobaccoes to England onely but in another Letter from yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> which I am not yett Come to I am Commanded to take noe notice of their Directions in that point, butt to Lett the Bonds Run as formerly for Ireland accordinge to the Acts of Parliament, I will not omitt to write to my Aunt Sumersett & Weld by the Last Shipp. By yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup>s of the 29<sup>o</sup> 9ber I find those

Commands of yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> that I shall not take notice of th<sup>t</sup> part of the Lords Commiss<sup>rs</sup> h<sup>re</sup>, Which requires that noe Master shall bee permitted to Transport Tobaccoes for Ireland, which is I find Contrary to the Act, I shall obserue the Act in those Cases, vnless I receiue orders from yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> to the Contrary ;
 I receed with this Letter of yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup>s an Aquittance to M<sup>r</sup> Henry Meese for Coll. Edward Carter for four pounds ten Shillinges. And I will Accordinge to yo<sup>r</sup> Lordships Command satisfye what Rent is due, And whether the Land bee Escheated or not I haue not as yett seen M<sup>r</sup> W<sup>m</sup> Collingwood whom yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> makes Mention of, when he Comes to mee I will shew him all Lawfull fauour I Can, I will speake to the
 letts a peice and Endeauour to gett them to doe yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> that kindness if possibly I can, I doe Intend to send yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> p Cap<sup>t</sup> Conaway as much Planke of Blacke Wallmutt as will make a Shouell Board Table, 30 foot Longe with stuffe of the same wood for a frame which I shall present yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> with,
 This h<sup>re</sup> I Receed by Cap<sup>t</sup> John Body ; yo<sup>r</sup> Lordships of the 7th December brought mee Hugh Stansly Will About w<sup>ch</sup> business I haue discoursed with ffranke Swanton, who I find is very willinge & Ready to giue an Accompt of his Administration, hee desires to bee a Tenant till the Children Come of Age, and giue his Accompt yearly and to haue discharges yearly that hee may not haue a Longe Accompt to giue when the Children shall Receiue their Estates from him. My Cousin Baker Brooke who in the behalfe of the Mother and Children is Attorney in this Business, gaue mee this Letter, when the Rent is Ascertained I suppose Swanton will giue such security as will bee allowed of, And I will take Care to see the Children haue noe wronge done them, As for the Land of Stanleyes on the Easterne Shore I will Inquire into them

Our Oates Barley & Pease are as large as those sorts of Graine in England. Butt till this yeare that I had good seed out of England I neuer mett with any Good wheate soe that I cannot soe well Jndg and giue yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> that good Accompt of itt, As hereafter I hope to doe, I Reced Augustins Mapp and shall obserue yo<sup>r</sup> Lordsh<sup>ps</sup> Command about Inserting what you haue directed and send itt by the last Shipp, I wish I were able to buy some of S<sup>r</sup> Paule painters negroes at Barbados and Could gett them hither when paid for, Butt I must not aim at such a purchase vntill I haue gott some Debts paid, And that I haue some money afore hand, I should bee Glad his Hiness the Duke of York would part with his Interrest at New Yorke as y<sup>e</sup> Lop writes I thinke it has hitherto been a Charge and burden to him, And a help only to Raise some Indigent officers, Louclace has got Considerably since hee Comanded there, yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> of the 23<sup>o</sup> Xber was deliuered mee by M<sup>r</sup> Thomas Massey with whom Came his Companion M<sup>r</sup> Henry Carew, the latter Came very ill to my house and for some dayes wee thought him in great danger, butt now hee is well Reconered and settled wth the Chancellor, M<sup>r</sup> Massey being wth mee as yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> Comanded there shall bee nothings wantinge on my part to Incourage them, their Entertainement shall bee as good as the Country affords, And I doubt not but yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> and their Superior will Receiue a good Accompt from them they both are pleased to say they are well satisfi'd with their beinges, I hope there will bee a good Correspondence betwixt them and the others for I find them very freindly & well pleased together, M<sup>r</sup> Massey seemes to bee a very good prudent & descreet pson, And I hope I shall haue a good Companion of him, I haue provided him of a good horse to his Satisfaction, And will allow him ten pounds and more if I find him able, I am sorry to vnderstand by yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pps</sup> of the 26<sup>o</sup> September that S<sup>r</sup> W<sup>m</sup> Talbot giues you Cause to fear hee will not bee soe kind to his mother as hee ought I hope yett hee will appear better natured and bee more dutifull then to see her want, hee seemed here to haue a great Kindness for his mother my Aunt, and sense of her Bad Condition. Yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> Commands mee to secure the Shipp money and to send Bills home for those fees to yo<sup>r</sup> Lordshipp to Keepe that in case S<sup>r</sup> W<sup>m</sup> performe not what hee ought to his mother, yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> will bestow those fees vpon my Aunt to Releiuie her, which I shold bee willinge to doe, but most of the Shipp fees are paid in Tobaccoes and a very small matter paid in Moneyes only head money for passengers which possibly may Amount vnto £25.. or £30.. Sterlinge, now I had afore yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pps</sup> l<sup>r</sup>e Came to hand Returned that money and more to S<sup>r</sup> William by Bills, soe that vnless I Consign some Tobaccoes of his I know not which way to Comply with yo<sup>r</sup> Commands herein, And I fear Tobaccoes will giue yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> too great a trouble and do my Aunt little Good, I hope S<sup>r</sup> W<sup>m</sup> will giue yo<sup>r</sup> Lordshipp better Satisfaction at his Return from Ireland I am Come now to yo<sup>r</sup> Lordships of the 16<sup>o</sup> January by Cap<sup>t</sup> John Tully, which bringes mee the Ill news of Warrs wth holland & the Greate Stopp vpon the Exchequer. This news putts most of our Masters & Merchants into some fright & fears least they bee seized on goeing home, I shall bee Carefull in yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> directions about those Bills I send home, I haue hitherto sent first & second Bills, and shall still doe soe wth l<sup>r</sup>s of Adnise I humbly begg yo<sup>r</sup> Lordships pardon that I did not send those accompts I Signified I would send last yeare the which I will not omitt to perfect and those of this year with a true accompt of the fines, forfeiturs and Escheats I know of I intend to gett my freind M<sup>r</sup> Nottly to Assist me in draweing out my account of the Seuerall years past, all which yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> shall haue without faile by Conaway and Groome, I will alsoe Returne yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> an account of the Tobaccoes exported as the Lords Commissioners Requires, And hope yo<sup>r</sup> Lordship will bee mindfull of a Consideration for my trouble in their business, I shall bee very Glad to haue my mothers picture which yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> thinkes to send mee next yeare. M<sup>r</sup> Sam Leadbeater who Came in Tully is ariued, And is wth a Kinsman of his M<sup>r</sup> Benj. Solly who I suppose will assist him in any thing hee Can, As yett hee has not Spoke to mee, I humbly thanke yo<sup>r</sup> Lordship for the hb<sup>d</sup> of vines, butt old Tully has been soe Crosgained that before I could send for them hee sett saile vp the Bay, that I fear the vines may bee Spoyled afore I gett them out of his vessell, Butt I haue sent a messenger for the hogshhead, And doe intend to trouble the Cap<sup>t</sup> about itt, I vnderstand by this Letter that Tully does petition yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> for 7 or 800 Acres of land vp the Bay formerly Hattons and by his mistake said to bee Lewis Stocketts who neuer Enjoyed a foote of itt, I intend to petition yo<sup>r</sup> Lordshipp for itt myselfe for a very good freind of mine, And hope yo<sup>r</sup> Lordship will not dispose of itt to Tully till my petition Come, I will returne a True account of itt with the other Escheated Lands the younge woman Anne Rouse yo<sup>r</sup> Lordshipp sent my wife, is ariued and Entertained by my wife, I hope shee may proue vsefull, with our most humble thanks to yo<sup>r</sup> Lordshipp, And I hope I haue now answered all yo<sup>r</sup> Lordships Letters and Euery perticular Contained in them which Required answer, humbly begging y<sup>r</sup> Lopps Blessing to

Since I finisht my answer to y<sup>r</sup> Lops l<sup>r</sup>s I happened to haue some discourse wth the Chancell<sup>r</sup> touching S<sup>r</sup> W<sup>m</sup> Talbot, and his returning hither, and I find that he is of opinion that wee shall haue my Cozens Comp<sup>ts</sup> no more, vpon what grounds I know not, but I hope from no good hand, for I should bee much disheartened if it should be so, for he was a greate comfort to me both in respect of his relation & parts, and truly but that I was confident of his good resolutions in returning hither to vs, I would neuer haue vnd<sup>r</sup>taken the charge & care of his Affaires here the Chancell<sup>r</sup> moued to me the sending of a l<sup>r</sup>e to y<sup>r</sup> Lop, w<sup>ch</sup> he said was ready writ to request the Secr<sup>ys</sup> place for him-selfe, and would haue had me haue seconded it, but I made him this answer, that I had greate hopes y<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>p</sup> would preuaile wth S<sup>r</sup> W<sup>m</sup> to returne to vs, and the promisses w<sup>ch</sup> S<sup>r</sup> W<sup>m</sup> had made me likewise gaue me the same hopes, whether he will send this l<sup>r</sup>e he mention'd I know not but I gaue him no encouragem<sup>t</sup> at all, but assured on the contrary that S<sup>r</sup> W<sup>m</sup> would haue reason to take it vnkindly from him to beleene he had changed his resolutions afore wee had more certainty of it I humbly beg of y<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>p</sup> to send him to vs for I haue little comfort or satisfaction in the society of any of the Rest of the Councell here; by Capt Conaway I shall send all the Rest of my Cosens effects & shall then giue him an accompt of aboute a hundred thousand pounds of tobacco that by his order I haue pay'd here & the rest sent him home; Capt Cooper is now at my howse and stays for my dispatch, he has entreated me, to desire of y<sup>r</sup> Lop. a protection for his ship the next year in case of Embargo vpon Shipping w<sup>ch</sup> he feares the warrs may ocaation his behaviour & ciuilitys I hope will deserue this fauour from y<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>p</sup> W<sup>ch</sup> is my humble request in his behalfe to y<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>p</sup> I am

3<sup>d</sup> Duplicate of my sons Answer to my lres sent this last Shipping for Maryland—

Sent inclosed in my sons letter dated 2<sup>d</sup>
August 1673.

May it Please y<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>d</sup>

Yours of the 15th of August by Cap<sup>t</sup> George Hilson I Received, which assures me that yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> hath Received as well my Lres as all the bills of Exchange I sent yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> this last yeare, which is to me a greate satisfaction, Considering how Troublesome the times are; Sorry I am to heare of poore old Tullyes misfortune, and for Hollinsworth he hath bene since with me, but of that I shall give yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> a more full account hereafter. As for that Caution yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> is pleased to giue me for my owne security (my house at Matapenny standing so neare the water) I humbly thanke yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> for yo<sup>r</sup> advice, and shall Endeavour my owne Security by Removing up to Zachiah, and also shalbe very Cautious of what shippes I goe on Board of, but for that yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> writes me about Gookins ship, and their designe, (wanting only the Concurrence of the Master) I never heard any thing of it, before now from yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup>.

I am heartily sorry to heare that my Cozen Talbot hath so behaved himself both towards yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> and his mother, and truly I must Confesse that in this he hath much Deceived me in my thoughts of him, for I alwayes supposed him to be a person of that hono<sup>r</sup> and worth, that unkindnes to a mother, and ingratitude to a Relaeon that had so much oblidge<sup>d</sup> him as yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> had beene much below the Generosity of his Temper. I am glad that M<sup>rs</sup> Boughton hath Received her Tobacco, and doe wish she had sould it as well as the Rest, for I tooke all Care imaginable in the Collecting it here, so that I Dare boldly affirme, that if any Tobacco would ffetch money hers would. I am glad that yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> Received the Walnut Tree planks and peices of that wood, and the hogshhead of sweete sented Tobacco, as also Cis Two wilde Cat skynas, and Doe heartily Rejoyce that yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> likes them.

The Duplicate of yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pps</sup> of the 8th of October sent by Capt Croscombe I Received, though the originall was lost (wee understanding since that Croscombe was taken) I have often spoken to my Cozen Baker Brookes to give yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> an account of the Escheated Lands, and shall once more put both him and James Thompson in minde of Complyeing with yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pps</sup> Desires, according to yo<sup>r</sup> former comands to them, and by the last of these Shippes, I hope they will Retorne yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> that account from their owne hands that yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> wilbe well satisfyed with, but as yet my Lord I must needes confesse I have had very little account from Either myself, while I Received this L<sup>re</sup> from yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> I never knew other then that my Cozen Brookes had sent M<sup>r</sup> Langford his 10th and Charles Playdell his ffee, I shall speake to him but truly that place now is become so inconsiderable, that I beleeve he will humbly suplicate yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> to take off John Langfords 10th p an<sup>m</sup> for now their is little worke for a Surveyo<sup>r</sup> in Maryland, but howsoever for Charles Playdells Fee I will take Effectuall Care that he sends him that; when the warrant to Chandler

Yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> writes that all the bills of Exchange are pd. Excepting Ould Tullyes, Truly my Lord I am glad to heare that the Rest are so well payd, but for the poore ould man his losse hath beene so greate that I hope yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> will not Expect it from him, and for the suing his security here I tooke none of him for I looked ypon him as a man sufficient, and one that had beene an ould Trader here in yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pps</sup> Province, lately yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pps</sup> Admirall and one th<sup>t</sup> I went and Came in his ship & from whom have Received some Civillities w<sup>n</sup> under his Dominion in his wooden Kingdome.

I Retorne yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> my humble thanks for Delivering the bonds & account of shipping to my Lord Shafstsbury and com<sup>rs</sup> of the Treasury, & shall Endeavour in my care for the future to merrit that good Character his Lo<sup>pp</sup> is pleased to favour me with.

I am very much obliged to that honest & Civill gentleman Mr Massey for his kinde Character of me w<sup>ch</sup> I must confesse to be more then I have merited from him, although I have used my utmost Endeavo<sup>r</sup> to oblige him, & shalbe glad of all opptunityes to serve so pious & so Deserving a pson, as I finde him to be, and indeed a pson that is so much a gentleman, and good Company w<sup>ch</sup> is somew<sup>t</sup> Rare here in Maryland, and for my writing to yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> that I Designed to allow him but 10<sup>l</sup> p anū if I did so my Lord it was a mistake for I never designed him lesse th<sup>n</sup> 20<sup>l</sup> p anū according to yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pps</sup> Comands, and that he might be assured of it I showed him that pt of yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pps</sup> L<sup>re</sup>.

no pson that will make it their busines for any Reward unlesse they should accidentally take them. I Doe not Doubt but my Cozen Calvert and Darnell will themselves by these Shippes give yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> a particuler accompt of their Care in this affayre, and if I can for any gratuity whatsoever procure any such shall Carefully send them to yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> by some of these Shippes.

I finde that the lines of those lands layd out for yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> by M<sup>r</sup> White are not at all for yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup>s advantage the good land being in most left out, neither were the Surveyes pfected although they were Delivered into the office by M<sup>r</sup> White, but I shall use my utmost Endeavour to have yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> Right done you in that case, which when I have Effected I shall send you a Cobby of the Record of them, I have already Resurvey'd yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup>s Manno<sup>r</sup> of Choptico and have thrown out many Intruders there, and shall take that Course for the future, that all yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup>s Manno<sup>r</sup> here shalbe Cleare according to former Instructions from yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup>.

never demanded any thing of 'em. wherefore I Conceive he gets little but what small stipend his Patron allowes him, w<sup>ch</sup> I wish be well payd. I have offerd him my service to speake to the Catholiques about it, but he wholly refused it and seemes contented, yet I finde in Discourse with him a very greate inclination to Remove from his Patrons to the Ridge in Ann Arundell County, where he hath Reconciled some to the Church, and I beleeve he hopes of a more advantageous (though not more honorable) Patronage there—but this as a secret!

Before W<sup>m</sup> Brookes died, he had a greate inclination for a young woman here who is my servant to whom upon his Deathbed he gave 3000<sup>li</sup> of Tobacco, and 800<sup>li</sup> of Tob to the Church, his Estate was very inconsiderable, and (after those Legacies are payd) if their be any Overplus, when got in I shall Retorne it to yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> for his Brother; his Scale according to yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup>s Comands I send by this shipping.

The Duplicate of yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup>s of the ninth of October I Received and Doe suppose that S<sup>r</sup> William Talbot will not come here without yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup>s favour and Consent, for he is not so dull to thinke, that without that, it would be worth his time and trouble to undertake so long a voyadge. This acc<sup>t</sup> of S<sup>r</sup> W<sup>m</sup> Talbot from yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup>s owne hand hath much startled many that knew him, who Could scarce have beleived it had it come another way.

For the proffits of the place I have already ordered the collecting of them, and shall make a full Retorne of the produce of them to yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> (I meane of what Can be Collected) this shipping but I feare the London shipps coming in so late this yeare, I shall finde it a hard matter to procure freight for all this shipping, but shall doe my utmost Endeavour, According to yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup>s Comands I have signified to those gentlemen that

I should be heartily glad to heare that the Controversy betweene his Royall highnes and yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> about the Horekeele &c were Determined, and I assure yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> it would be very wellcome newes to many psons here who have a Desire to seate and Inhabite there, and yet are unwilling to Remove their goods Servants and stocks untill they certainly know und<sup>r</sup> whose Governm<sup>t</sup> they are like to be but howsoever in the meane time I shall Encourage all psons that I Can to seate there, & Endeavo<sup>r</sup> the p<sup>r</sup>servation of yo<sup>r</sup> Interest there to the utmost of my power.

I humbly thanke yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> for those Expressions of favour and Kindnes to Docto<sup>r</sup> Wharton, and have acquainted him of them for which he is very thankfull, and will write yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> more at Large himself by these shippes, I have already built a Country house for summer time at Zachya, according to the fashion of the building of this Coumtry, but by what I have Done already I finde building here to be very Chargeable, and am loth to bestow much more of it, least (though the place be so healthfull) when I have Done Cis should not like it. I Retorne yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> thanks for sending me in that warrant for M<sup>r</sup> Allen, and shall punctually observe yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pps</sup> co<sup>m</sup>ands about yo<sup>r</sup> Manno<sup>rs</sup> and Escheated lands, and from time to time shall give yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> a p<sup>r</sup>fect account of our pceedings therein, w<sup>ch</sup> I hope wilbe satisfactory to yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup>. I Rejoyce much that my ffrend M<sup>r</sup> Charles ffortescu is so well Recoverd & likely to live, I Retorne yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> my humble thanks for giving me satisfaction in it, for he is a pson that I have always had a greate Kindnes and Respect for. Yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pps</sup> of the 10th of November in the behalfe of my Cozen Darnell I Received, and have already taken Care for an Employ<sup>m</sup>t for him, which I hope (when he is Capable to manage & Exceute himself) will pve very considerable to him, and in the meane time finde him a sufficient competency to mainteine him, I humbly Conceive yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> and his father from his owne hand will Receive an account of my Care of him.

Yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pps</sup> of the 12th of November in behalfe of M<sup>r</sup> Stephen Goffe by his owne hand I Received to whom for some time I gave Enterteinm<sup>t</sup> at my owne house and have advised him to an honest man to live with this summer neare Zachiah that he may be neare me, and withall I have given him such advise and particuler Cautions as I thought fit, and I shall according to yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>ps</sup> comands give you a pticuler account touching him, in a single L<sup>r</sup> only Relating to him, to which I Referre yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> for full satisfaction concerning him.

The boy that yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> designed for Cis is arived but hath a scall'd head, and though a little boy a greate Theife, wherefore the scalld head makes him Dangerous, and his theiving quallity inconvenient if cured to be kept by me, so not to put myself to that Trouble shall not Enterteine him, but Dispose of him somewhere neare me that I may have an Eye to him now & then that his mother when she desires it may have an account of him.

Yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pps</sup> of the 21th of November on the behalfe of M<sup>r</sup> Robert Dowglas I Received by his owne hand whome at p<sup>r</sup>sent I Enterteine at my owne house, and Employ him to teach my Children and shall give him all Encouragem<sup>t</sup> that lyes in my power, shall Endeavour the promoting of a schoole here, and make him the Master in the meane time till he Can more advantageously Dispose of himself he shalbe wellcome where he is, but doubt he will not finde the people here so desirous of that benefit of Educating their Children in that nature as he might plably Expect, for the Remotenes of the habitation of one pson from another, wilbe a greate obstacle to a schoole in that way that I pceive yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> ariues at, and that would much Conduce to the pfit and advantage of the youth of this Province.

Yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pps</sup> of the 24th of November I have Received and touching yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pps</sup> Dues here I am glad to heare from yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> that you are so well satisfyed with my Care in that affayre the last yeare, and be assured My Lord that the very best bills I shall Endeavo<sup>r</sup> to retorne yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> either by Bristol or London, but all of London If I finde them good and likely to be payd and for what shalbe wanting yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> shall not neede to feare that I will put yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> further then Bristol. when I Did write to yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> that I thought a third pt. of the Tobacoco made here the last yeare would be left in the Country, wee had not then in the Majo<sup>r</sup> pt. of the ships, but afterwards there Came many more who I Conceive Carryed away most of the Tobacco made last yeare of the Imposition of which I have already given yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> account and for what is left in the Country at any time, it is next to an impossibility for me to give yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> an account but if any were left in the Country last yeare, it willbe accounted and payd for this yeare, if it were good, and kept well & worth sending home.

I humbly thanke yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> for giving M<sup>r</sup> Arthur satisfaction in his scruple of my bill of Exchange of 10<sup>l</sup> payable to John Lucumb, I forgetting to advise him of it, but I shalbe more punctuall with M<sup>r</sup> Arthur in those affayres for the future, and shalby theis shippes send him a Receipt for it, w<sup>ch</sup> will assure him that I allow of the paym<sup>t</sup> thereof according to yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup>s comaud.

My wife p<sup>r</sup>sents her humble deauty to yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> and is very sorry that the Squirells did not Come safe and that those that did had that misfortune, as for one to Escape and the other dy

she will Endeavour the getting more this yeare and hopes that they (if she gets any) may have better successe.

I Did give M<sup>r</sup> Notley the trouble to Collect some dues of shipping in Patomeke River the last yeare but it was only when I was out of the way nor doe I conceive (he having so much busines of his owne) he would be willing to undertake it, but if he could be pswaded to it, I doubt not but he would so believe himself in it that he would give yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> a greate deale of satisfaction, and Ease me of a greate deale of Trouble. As for the Seizing of Winsor, Sencerfe & Crocombe the last yeare for being Dutch built and trading with Dutch goods I humbly Conceive the suspicions upon them were sufficiently Cleared at their tryall, and I Doubt not in the least that at their tryall their appeared no Reason for their seizure but only Jealousy, and for M<sup>r</sup> Notleys pt I am Confident he neither is nor would be Concerned in anything that should be p<sup>r</sup>judicial to yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> or the Governm<sup>t</sup> here, and if any abuse have beene offered by them shipp<sup>s</sup> it hath beene Conived and wiked at by the officers of the Custome house where they have Cleared for they alwayes bring with them as authentique Testimonials, and Certificates from his Ma<sup>ties</sup> Customers Collecto<sup>r</sup>s & other officers as any Londoner that trades here.

land graunt warrants &c so that they might not be forced to travayle so farre as St Maryes for the Doeing thereof, and I having graunted the Indian Trade to one M<sup>r</sup> Thomas Jones a marchant here, and he alledging the most advantageous place for that was the Horekeele, & that that was yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup>s right but kept from you by New Yorke, and he undertaking to Reduce it to yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup>s obedience, I gave him a Comission to be a Capt. for the said County of Worcester, and to leavy men &c, and to march up thither and take possession of that place for yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup>s use, and Did associate with him one Cap<sup>t</sup> Paul Marsh of Somerset County. In Jones Comission for the Indian Trade there is a Clause incerted for his seizing any Truck that he should ketch any pson trading with wthout lycense first obtained for the same from y<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> or L<sup>r</sup> here, which is according to the Law of the Country. According to his Comon Jones goes up to the Horekeele with a party of men, and there after some small matter of Resistance, brings all there in subjection to yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> and tooke the oath of fidelity to you, but in Jones Managing this busines he was a little too Rough for he seized great quantities of Truck for the Indian Trade, w<sup>ch</sup> was designed for Trade with the Indians though he did not ketch them trading with them, and used them a little severely at first by binding them &c upon which were many Complaintes, and though I am well satisfied Jones hath done yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> good Service in it and that there were many Reasons to be given for his Actings, yet severall psons here Exclaimed much of him, and made the busines seeme much fowler then it was I Conceive because he had his Comission from me and because I had somew<sup>t</sup> of a gratuity for his Comon for Indian Trade, wherefore to give all psons satisfaction I in open Court tooke away and Cancelled Jones Comon for Indian trade, and ordered him to redeliver unto the Dutchmen all their goods he had seized of theirs w<sup>ch</sup> he accordingly did, and now the place Requires nothing more then a Confirmation of yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup>s right to it, for it is now peaceably possessed in yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup>s Right, and Survey'd by virtu of yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup>s ord<sup>s</sup> for severall of the Inhabitants of this Province, who yet seeme loth to Draw their Estates thither not Certainly knowing who are to be their Masters, I humbly take notice of the Comon yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> gives me, and if nothing but force will doe, I shall then make use of it to the utmost ag<sup>t</sup> all such as shall withstand yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup>s Just Right there howsoever hope yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> will peure a speedy End to be made wth his Royall highnes about it. Though as yet many have not gone out of Maryland and Virginea to Portroyall, and those that have wth ill successe Enough, yet abundance Remove dayly from Barbadoes and other Islands thither, and although they have Removed their Estates have yet forgot provisions, whereby they are all almost starved for want of Corne.

As for the Magazine yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> seemes to Chide me for my neglect of it, the Assembly having taken such particuar Care about it in the Act of 2<sup>s</sup> a hh<sup>d</sup> & that Cap<sup>t</sup> Coop informed you I had sent for 20 Muskets by him I sent for fifty by him, but I thanke him he brought me none, I sent for 100 to M<sup>r</sup> Notleys Correspondent, in all I sent for 250, of which I have but 20 come in, and that was from Bristol, the Reason of the not coming of 'em in according to my ord<sup>r</sup> is the warrs and trouble at home, but doe assure yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> shall take such Effectuall Care about it this yeare, th<sup>t</sup> yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> shall have no Reason to Chide nor the Country to Complaine of me. ffor the use of Carabines in this Country I understand not therefore shall send for none without yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup>s positive ord<sup>r</sup>.

Touching the fines and amerciam<sup>ts</sup> here myself & the Council have p<sup>r</sup>sumed to make use of them to Defray yo<sup>r</sup> Charge at Court times and Assemblyes, but now they come to be so small, that wee cannot be trusted upon Creditt of them, and I am forced now to Enterteyne the Council at my owne Charge at St. Johns.

And Concerning all lands that are Escheated to yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> I have yearly sent to the Respective sherriffs for an Exact account but yet never could get any, this yeare I have sent out a strict comand to them for that purpose, I hope that will bring it, and as soone as I Receive it, I shall send it to yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup>

Yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> writes you would have all Patents Recorded before they passe the greate seale I Conceive that was a mistake of yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pps</sup> Secretary, I humbly conceiving that it was yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pps</sup> Intentions, and meaning that all Patents should passe the greate Seale before they are Recorded, for I Conceive the Seale is necessary and Essential to the graunt, and that the graunt cannot in any way be perfected untill it hath passed the Seale, yet wee have bene forced to doe otherwayes here, that is after I had signed them, the Clerke to Record them, and then Deliver them to the Chancelo<sup>r</sup> for the Chancelo<sup>r</sup> would not seale any Patent untill payd in money for the seale, and where one pson is able to procure money here, their is hundreds that Can procure none so that if wee should not have Recorded their Patents before sealed their would have bene such a Confusion in the Secretaryes office that it had never bene to have bene Righted againe, and truly I must needes acquaint yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> that the Chancelo<sup>r</sup>s standing so Rigorously upon his pay in money for the seale of Patents before he would seale them has not only hindered himself & the Secretary's office sufficiently but also many hundreds of people from taking up of land that other wayes would have Done

it so that severall people at last have come amongst themselves to question his fees, and alledge that it was never consented to in the Assembly as other fees have beene, and therefore have no Reason to pay 'em at all, whereas had he let them freely had their patents his fees for the Scale would never have beene scrupled I humbly Desire yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pps</sup> full ord<sup>r</sup>s in this busines, that such a greivance as this is to the Country, and p<sup>r</sup>judice to yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> in having yo<sup>r</sup> Rents increased & Revenues enlarged may be quite throwne aside, and and that you will give ord<sup>r</sup> to the Chancelo<sup>r</sup> accordingly, Yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pps</sup> orders about 4<sup>s</sup> a hundred Acres for Escheated Lands to be graunted from yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> shalbe punctually observed.

I am sorry to heare Mrs Boughton lost her Tobacco in Capt Tully which I hope she conceives not my fault but the misfortune of the times.

f<sup>o</sup>r my Cozen Brookes importuning to be Discharged of the Councill, I Conceive it was only to get a confirm<sup>o</sup>n of the place I had then given him & now since yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> hath beene graciously pleased to Confirm<sup>e</sup> it I suppose he w<sup>ld</sup> be very well Contented to serve yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> as one of yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pps</sup> Councill here provided he could but get off John Langfords 10<sup>l</sup> p an<sup>n</sup> but about this I conceive he will write yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> more fully himself.

The assembly hath beene prorouged in Reguard of my not having any Comands from yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> and the Speaker M<sup>r</sup> Notleys being sick, but when they sit I will take speciall care to doe my utmost in Compliance wth yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pps</sup> comands touching the passing & mending those Acts yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> mentions in yo<sup>r</sup> L<sup>tr</sup>.

I have according to yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pps</sup> comānds put the good men in minde of the Anniversary dayes yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> would have observed here, and of their adding my sister Blackestones name to them, who doe all assure me they will take all Care imaginable in observing yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pps</sup> comānds therein. Concerning those ffices sent in by M<sup>r</sup> Langhorne for the Chancelo<sup>r</sup> I did Conceive it wholly Related to the Chancelo<sup>rs</sup> office and that he would have beene so Carefull in that matter, as to have given yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> a particular accompt wherein the Difficulty lay, but since he hath not I shall minde him of it, what I und<sup>r</sup>stand of it, is this, that in the said list of fees is things Charged there that are never made use of here, and many things left out there that wee have dayly occasion for here, but for those things that are necessary here the said Directions are very much wanting in this in that it does not distinguish how much in Every pticuler is due to the Chancelo<sup>r</sup> for the scale, the Rest belongs to the Secretaryes office, where all the Records of that busines are kept and all writs Comissions Decrees ord<sup>rs</sup> & transcribed and written. As in the said list is allowed for a Subpena ad Respondend 2<sup>s</sup> now the quere is how much for the making and Recording it, and how much for the scale. the Chancelo<sup>r</sup> takes in all businesses that passe the scale, as much as if he writ them & kept the Records of them whereby it comes about that people gen<sup>r</sup>ally pay Double fees in such Cases, Those that have beene acquainted with Chancery busines in England alledge the L<sup>d</sup> Chancelo<sup>r</sup> takes nothing for the scale of Chancery writt &c but that true it is when the Lord Chancelo<sup>r</sup> pens the scale, on a certeine day his Secretary gives notice to the Clerkes and other officers of that Court to attend who have any such Cursory pcesse to passe the Scale, and they pay the Chancelo<sup>rs</sup> Secretaryes but 6<sup>d</sup> a peice for one writ with another, and the number of them that are so sealed at one opening makes it very advantageous to those Secretaryes, and the Residue of the fees for such writs, goes to the severall officers of the Court of Chancery, through whose hands they passe for this I humbly conceive yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> may Receive full satisfaction from M<sup>r</sup> Langhorne and when yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> sends me yo<sup>r</sup> ord<sup>r</sup> in that case, they shalbe fully observed, I only write this to yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> the more fully that people may not pay twice for doeing their busines but that the Chancelo<sup>rs</sup> fee for Every writ in Chancery may be Duly settled, or else (that since wee sit here in a Double Capacity aswell Chancery as Provincial Co<sup>rt</sup> and one Clerke serves for both busines, and wee try aswell Chancery as Provincial Co<sup>rt</sup> busines at one sitting) the same seale (which is the lesser Seale of the Province) that seales the Provincial writs may also seale the Chancery writs, since one is as Cursory as the other, and that only Patents Pardons or Speciall busines touching publique affayres may passe und<sup>r</sup> the greate Seale, but for this I humbly Reserve it to yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup>s Directions by the next.

That hnd of vines yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> tooke so much Care to send in the last yeare by Capt Tully for want of Care in a timely Delivery are all perished and not one of them come up for which I am heartily sorry, having had greate hopes that if they had bene put into the ground in time here, that the soyle would have so well agreed with them that in a short time they would have Come to a greate p<sup>fec</sup>con here, and that I might have bene able in some few yeares out of their produce to have sent yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> a glasse of wine of the growth of this Province.

I Retorne yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> thanks for peuring Cap<sup>t</sup> Cooper and Cap<sup>t</sup> Dunch the favo<sup>r</sup> of a proteccion & also the liberty of wearing the Kings Jack. I also humbly thanke yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> for yo<sup>r</sup> Civillity to M<sup>rs</sup> Wyan but some Reporte here have buzzed abroad that my Letter procured her nothing, but what helps she had in England it was by meanes of some Letters of the Chancelo<sup>rs</sup> Lady to some friends of hers there, who had assisted her, I have acquainted her husband also of yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pps</sup> Civillity and Kindnes to her, who seemes very thankfull to yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> for the same. Concerning that L<sup>re</sup> from his Ma<sup>ty</sup> about Thatchers somme, I shall take notice of it when come to hand as yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> Directs.

I am certainly informed of the Arivall of one Man of warre in Virginia called the Barnaby, and when the ord<sup>rs</sup>. come to hand, they shall be punctually observed, I hope Major Gen<sup>all</sup> Smith will have as little successe in that busines as the former Agent Coll Morrison, and spend their moneys with as little satisfaction to his Employers which wilbe for yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pps</sup> Interest here. And for the graunting of his Ma<sup>ties</sup> Rents in Virginia to the Lords Arlington and Culpepper, wee have heard as yet nothing of it here, but suppose the news wilbe very unwellcome to S<sup>r</sup> W<sup>m</sup> Barkeley. Those two acts

Also I Received the Case of M<sup>r</sup> Henry Scarborough stated, and also a Cobby thereof from his Attorney here, and when they make their addresses in ord<sup>r</sup> to the psecution of it, they shall have all Right & Justice Done them, for I am well satisfied M<sup>r</sup> Scarborough hath had much wrong done him, of which the Chancelo<sup>r</sup> I suppose is sufficiently sensible, and I conceive M<sup>r</sup> Scarborough did very wisely in making the Chancelo<sup>r</sup> a Defend<sup>t</sup> for some Reasons (w<sup>ch</sup> I will communicate to yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> in another L<sup>r</sup> of my owne writing) I will not meddle with anything as to Discourse with the Chancelo<sup>r</sup> about that affayre but shall wholly referre it to the Court and then fully pursue yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pps</sup> Directions.

it very unkindly that yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> should Extend yo<sup>r</sup> favo<sup>rs</sup> to others that were not come in more then to them Considering they had beene here so long, and therefore I did Endeavor to give them Encouragem<sup>t</sup> that yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> would Doubtlesse conferre the same favour upon them which was all that I gave them, and now since yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> hath confirmed them those dubious words of mine they both seeme to acknowledge yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup>s favo<sup>r</sup> and kindnes to them in a very high manner, and when this paym<sup>t</sup> does Comence to them, I shall observe yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup>s comands & stop the Corne.

And as for Alanson if he have had any injury by any Survey if wee can any way finde it he shall fully Receive the benefit of yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pps</sup> favo<sup>r</sup>

Yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup>s of the 26th of November I Received, and I doe humbly Retorne yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> thankes for yo<sup>r</sup> great Care and Charge in peuring me that Salary from the Lords Com<sup>rs</sup> of the Treasury, and I shall use my utmost skill and Endeavo<sup>r</sup> to Comply with their Lo<sup>pp</sup>s Directions, and I shall in obedience to yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup>s comānds appointe a person to Receive it but shall humbly Desire yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup>s assistance in the procuring paym<sup>t</sup> thereof, for wthout yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup>s favo<sup>r</sup> in following it there I have very little hopes in peuring it. I have Received L<sup>res</sup> from the Commissioners of the Treasury w<sup>ch</sup> are to one and the same Effect as theirs to yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> was the last yeare. I shall send to yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> by this Conveniency the Instrum<sup>t</sup> you Comānd Executed here as yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> Directs, and also a particuler L<sup>re</sup> from myself to the Commissioners und<sup>r</sup> my owne hand to pay it to yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> or yo<sup>r</sup> ord<sup>r</sup>.

Touching the supposed mistake in my last yeares account this is humbly to Certefy yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> that their was no mistake for it is true that their was arived 87 shippes, but at that time there was Cleared but 81, those which were not Cleared then are to be allowed this yeare as yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> by the account Currant herewth sent will see. I shall Endeavour to give the Lords Com<sup>rs</sup> all imaginable satisfaction that can be according to yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup>s comānds, and make my account p<sup>fect</sup> and full both as to the Ports they come from, and are bound to.

Yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pps</sup> of the 3<sup>d</sup> of December by Cap<sup>t</sup> Connaway I Received and accordingly thanked him for the Delivery of those things so Carefully and have assured him of all Encouragem<sup>t</sup> here, and to Countenance and serve him here in any Just thing that lyes in my power, which I doubt not but he will very well Deserve and gratefully acknowledge.

Yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pps</sup> also of the 4th of December I Received, together with the Books and Materialls for the Secretaryes office, and also the noate of the particular prizes of them all, and shall take Care according to yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pps</sup> Comands that yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> be Reimbursed out of the proffits of the Secretaryes office for those that are for that use, and for the Rest shalbe yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pps</sup> faithfull facto<sup>r</sup>

I shall also in obedience to yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pps</sup> comāds, write to the Earle of shaftsbury and my Lord high Treasurer in which I shall Retorne them my humble acknowledgem<sup>ts</sup> for their noble favo<sup>rs</sup> which Letters written with my owne hand I shall send unto yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> with flyeing scales. I also Received the noate of Directions for the severall superscriptions, and in my L<sup>r</sup> to the Lord Treasurer, shall signify an account of the Tob. that is Exported, But as to the monethly satisfactory account this yeare, the L<sup>r</sup> Came so late to hand that it is impossible for me to doe it now, but the next yeare god willing shall Comply fully with their Lo<sup>pp</sup>s Desires and in my Letters to them shall intimate so much.

The Two Chests and the Keyes to them I have Received, as also the Acts of Parliam<sup>t</sup>, and his Ma<sup>ties</sup> ord<sup>r</sup> of Dispensation dated the 10th of May 1672, also I have Received Twelve Drumheads and lines to them and the scantlings of Blackwallnut, w<sup>ch</sup> scantlings came so late to my hand, that by theis shippes I cannot send them to yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> but by the next shall use my utmost Endeavo<sup>r</sup> to fullfill yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup>s Comands in the same. As for M<sup>r</sup> Lewellen in whose behalfe yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> writes to me, he is already Employed by M<sup>r</sup> Notley so will need no assistance or favo<sup>r</sup> from me, but if he should have occasion shalbe Ready to doe him what Kindnes I can. As for Ellis he is at p<sup>r</sup>sent Employed by me, he is married here, and when it lyes in my power to show him any favo<sup>r</sup> I shalbe Ready for his fathers sake. And as for M<sup>r</sup> Chileot of Ann Arundell County, I cannot in hono<sup>r</sup> make him sheriff of that County, for the gentleman that now is in that office, hath so honestly and hansomely behaved himself, that it would seeme very unhandsome in me at p<sup>r</sup>sent to Remove him, but if it in any other way ly in my power to serve M<sup>r</sup> Chileot, when he comes to bring yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup>s L<sup>r</sup> of Recommendation, I shall serve him in that way, that he shall owne yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup>s favo<sup>r</sup> & kindnes in Recomendng him.

Com<sup>rs</sup> of the Custome house, and shall also from time to time send to yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> coppyes of all such L<sup>rs</sup> as shall come to me from his Ma<sup>ty</sup> Com<sup>rs</sup> of the treasury, or others as I shall Judge Convenient to be sent to yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> and as yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> desires.

S<sup>r</sup> Richard Belings L<sup>re</sup> is behalfe of M<sup>r</sup> Gough I have received, and shall Retorne him an answere giving him therein an account both of the Gentleman and his Cargoe, which if he husbands according to the advice and Cautions I have given him, I doubt not but it wilbe both for his owne advantage & for the satisfaction of his frends and Relations. I should be very glad for M<sup>r</sup> Whites sake that the match betweene his Royall highnes and the Arch Dutchesse of Jusprugh may goe forward because he writ me word that he is in hopes of some Employ<sup>mt</sup> there.

And as for that informc<sup>on</sup> of that lyeing fellow Thurston about Hattons land I humbly conceive it is already answered in that I writ yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> already that their is an heire to it, who is now in possession thereof, and for the sheriffs selling it I never gave any ord<sup>r</sup> to that Effect, indeed Thurston was with me about it, but I Doubting their was an heire, and understanding something to that Effect, did doe nothing in it but told him if none such appeared he should have it for 17000<sup>l</sup> of Tob, by which it may appeare to yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup> it was not sold to any other. I Received a copy of a particuler of all yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pps</sup> Dispatches with a second bill of Lading as also the

the ship and so conceive yo<sup>r</sup> Lo<sup>pp</sup>s best Remedy in a bad matter wilbe to sue the security here.

2<sup>d</sup> June 1673.

& Obedient son

CHARLES CALVERT

No. 17.

PART OF A LETTER-BOOK OF GOVERNOR

that yo<sup>r</sup> gett l<sup>r</sup>es from him and my Cosen Copley as often as you can that I & my wife may haue the comfort of hearing from them by the first Shippes next yeare, as to the moneys you mention my Cosen Copley had, I allow of it; The Allowance, as you signifie, is somewhat high, and may be wonder'd at, but in that I cannot as yett help my selfe, & Provided my Child do well I shall think the lesse of it; you did well to charge Cis to write to you often and pray putt him in mind of his promise in that particular. You signifie that doctor Walgrauc and severall other familys are gon for france & Islanders, and that if my Children want any Phisick M<sup>r</sup> Nelson hast assured you he will procure an able Phisitian for them; for w<sup>ch</sup> I thank you and for the good news of my Childrens health at Chelsy, & son Benediet at Hammersmith & that he is (as you write) as lusty and braue a Child as any in Middlesex.

I wish my wife had acquainted you afore she left England what necessaryes she had provided for my Children at Chelsy & Hammersmith, that there might not haue been such a noise of Complaints as you write there hath been in that particular;

but I hope y<sup>r</sup> care wth my order to Brother Nick Lowe will be sufficient for the future, and that all partys will haue no more cause to apprehend a want for any thing necessary for my Children: and besides my order w<sup>ch</sup> I sent you some time since for my Brother Lowe to supply, I also sent Bills of Exc. to M<sup>r</sup> Barnaby Dunck & desired his eye over my Children to see if all things were complied with by Nick Lowe: herewith I send you an acc<sup>t</sup> of what Bills of Exc. and other moneys I orderd into my Brother Lowes hands, there to lye for supplying all occationes in relation to my Children and my other Concernes; so that I suppose I did all that was needfull. Just now comes the Mate of one Capt Canham, and brings me l<sup>res</sup> from severall persons; with the mate came one M<sup>r</sup> Jesfrie Fleetwood who likewise has deliver'd me severall l<sup>res</sup> from y<sup>r</sup> selfe my Cosen Mary darnall and other persons; the dates of y<sup>rs</sup> that came by the mate & Fleetwood are as followeth, 4th of Jan<sup>y</sup> 6th of Feb. 7th 11th 17. & 30th of March, being six in all, by these l<sup>res</sup> I am sufficiently made sensible how kind and carefull you haue been of my Children & Concernes and do assure you it is a great satisfaction to me and my wife to vnd<sup>r</sup>stand by all l<sup>res</sup> from you and our other freinds that our Children were well and such care taken of them as doth sufficiently satisfie vs & th<sup>t</sup> they will not want any thing requisit for them to haue.

maketh mention that Arthur had rec<sup>d</sup> Covell's Bill, as for my note due to Bar. dunck I have orderd him paym<sup>t</sup> out of the Bill of Exc<sup>e</sup> for the Charles Walter dunck Comand<sup>t</sup> it is good newes to me that y<sup>o</sup> appear'd vpon the Exchange, and I hope God will protect you and all that are innocent from the malice of wicked persons, my wife and I am very very well satisfied that my Cosen darnall will trouble her selfe in seeing necessaries bought for my Children, and assist you in that affaire, you did well to pay y<sup>r</sup> respects to S<sup>r</sup> Clement Armiger, As for the Butler's Annuity it must be p<sup>d</sup> out of the Yorkeshyre estate, for though I orderd my Sister five hundred pounds out of that Estate, yet with this reserue that those should be allowed out of it likewise, and so much you must acquaint M<sup>r</sup> Alliband and my vncle Weld. As to your concerne and that of M<sup>rs</sup> Rawlins I will drawne on M<sup>r</sup> Barnaby dunck for you both ; and am resolved to giue Order to my new Attorneys to lett my howse, for since persons of the Romish perswasion are not to be permitted to be in Lond<sup>n</sup> it will not be convenient for me to keepe that howse any longer. My Brother Henry Lowe hath not write though you mention that he was in Towne. by y<sup>r</sup> lre of the 11th of March I vnd<sup>r</sup>stand that there has been greate trouble about a Gowne for my wifes daughter Jenny ; and that you were Blam'd by some of my wifes Relatives, but I shall take care to cleere you in that or any thing else they may take vnkindly from you. My wife and I think as you do about the weaning of our son Benedict Leo. and that till he haue some teeth it will not be safe, but if the nurse should proue with Child, then our son ought to be wean'd out of hand, and I find you haue taken care it shall be don in such case, w<sup>ch</sup> was well thought of and I thank you kindly for the charge you gaue the nurse therein. You signifie that my Irish rent has not been paid but I hope care will be taken by my Attorneys in it when it may be convenient to sue Morris & Cleyborn for it. As to Ju<sup>o</sup> the Coachman he must be dismist & ought to have been vpon his quitting my son's services, order shall be given to my Brother Low to pay him of his wages. I am glad to vnderstand that M<sup>rs</sup> Bayard her sister Dell Joynes & her husband have been carefull of all matters comitted to their charge w<sup>ch</sup> I will take care to requite them for, w<sup>ch</sup> y<sup>r</sup> lre of the 11th of March I rece<sup>d</sup> a copy of an acct w<sup>ch</sup> you write, my Cosen Copley gaue you; amounting to 80<sup>l</sup>: 10<sup>h</sup>: 05<sup>d</sup> as you made it, my Brother Nick low I hope hast satisfied it according to my order to him In your lre of the 17th of March I find that my wifes Brothers had caused 10<sup>l</sup> or 12<sup>l</sup> pounds to be layd out in cloths for the Children without acquainting any of my Attorneys but I suppose for the future there will be a better vnderstanding amongst those I haue imployed to assist you in the care of my Children both I and my wife supposing there was no such greate cause of complaint as was pretended.

I will in my lres to my Brother Nick Lowe excuse your not letting of him know where my son Cis was lodged; As to the barrell of Tob; you mentioned brought by Groome I freely bestow it on you to make what you can of it. I am somewhat troubled to understand that my Cosen Smithson had p<sup>d</sup> but one hundred pounds to my Sister out of my Yorkshire rentt and that as he writt word there would be so much money layd out in building a mannor howse att Danby & in repaireing some other Tenants howses there which will be lost to me if I should be cast by S<sup>r</sup> W<sup>m</sup> Blackston Your last lre being the 30th of March giues me the welcome news of my Childrens healths and particularly of little Cis and was glad to see the lre he writt to you the lre being not dated, but as you conceiue was to haue borne date the 25th of March, I am very glad to vnderstand that M<sup>r</sup> Wyse is well and that you hope he will continue so and that he has receiued moneys for the Tob: I left in his hands I am glad you acquainted M<sup>r</sup> Wyse of the part I hold in the Cecelius and by that meanes caused a stop to be made of any paym<sup>t</sup> for freight which you signifie was demanded of M<sup>r</sup> Wyse. As to the Ladies concerne I will take care it shall be made good to her. You signifie that my l<sup>res</sup> by the Lowe were not come to your hands which I wonder much att, for by Cap<sup>t</sup> Oswould Wheately I sent a packett vnder couer to M<sup>r</sup> Daniell Arthur, which I desired the master to deliuer to M<sup>r</sup> George Cornish, who I vnderstood was to meete him att the Isle of Wight, but if M<sup>r</sup> Cornish came not there I then suppose the master might deliuer my packett of l<sup>res</sup> to a passenger that went in his ship, who had beene boatswaine of the Charles, when I came ouer, and if that person had them I hope he would be carefull to deliuer them. I am glad my vncle Wild came of well before the Lords, but am sorry he is not one of the new parliam<sup>t</sup> I vnderstand Coll<sup>l</sup> Spencer is Secretary of Virg<sup>a</sup> and about four or fiue dayes since did congratulate him the new honour he had thereby receiu<sup>d</sup> from his Ma<sup>tie</sup>; this being all att p<sup>re</sup>sent I haue leisure to write only to assure you that by all opportunities you shall heare from me, and the same I desire from you, and that you will likewise mind my Attorneys (viz) M<sup>r</sup> Nicholas Lowe M<sup>r</sup> Thomas Gilbert and M<sup>r</sup> Barnaby Dunck to write by euery shipp and that you giue them notice when any shipp shall be ready to sayle and so I rest

Westminster 10th 2<sup>m</sup> Ap. 1681—

It haucing graciously pleas'd the King vpon diuers good considerations to make me a neighbour to Mary-land, I thought it necessary to make some offer of Freindship, & give a fitt rise for a future good correspondence. I omitt the Particulars of my pretentions, they are so kindly & amply exprest in the Kings letter & to a man of good sense, 'tis enough to be once told of the matter.

The Bearer is a Gentleman & my Kinsman, to whom I haue left the manage of my affaires; as his integrety will insist vpon my right, his prudence & experience will always guide him from an indecent thing. I only begg one thing 'tis short but the text of all th' can be said, do to me as thou wouldest be done to. I am a strainger in the affaires of the Country, he can haue little light from me, I do so much depend vpon the influence & preualence The Kings goodness will haue vpon thee, th' I omitt to be any further solicitous, belieueing th' a great & prudent man, will always act wth caution & obedience to the mind of his Prince; so th' this lett<sup>r</sup> was rather to be civil, then to pass so ill a complem<sup>t</sup> vpon the Lord Baltimore, or the Kings letter, as to think it could giue any aide to the one, or light to the other.

I shall conclude wth this request that It would please thee to giue my Cousen & Deputy all the dispatch possible in the business of the bounds th<sup>t</sup> obserueing our just limitts in th<sup>t</sup> & all other things we may begin & maintaine our Just & freindly intercourse w<sup>ch</sup> I do here promess to endeavour & obserue on my part wth all the truth & care Imaginable ; & whatever favours he receiues, I shall place to my account ; & perhaps there are many ways by w<sup>ch</sup> I may discharge them, w<sup>ch</sup> may giue the Lord Baltimore reason to belieue I do not undeserue the usage & quality of his

I hope I do not improperly call you so, because in being so, you will extreamply befreind your selues, as well as perform an act of Duty to the King & Justice to me.

I am equally a strainger to you all, but y<sup>r</sup> being represented men of substance & reputation in th<sup>t</sup> part of the bay, w<sup>ch</sup> I presume falls within my Pattent, I chose to take this oportunity to begin our acquaintance & by you wth the rest of the people on y<sup>r</sup> side of my Country & do assure you & them, th<sup>t</sup> I will be so farr from takeing any advantage to draw great proffits to my selfe, th<sup>t</sup> you shall find me & my govern<sup>t</sup> easy free & Just and as you shall study to be faire & respectfull to me & my Just Interests, I will not be short of giueing you all reasonable assurances on my part th<sup>t</sup> I will live kindly & well wth you & for this you haue my word under my hand. I must needs hold my selfe obleidged to thee for the Civil Reception I found in Maryland as well as th<sup>t</sup> respect th<sup>t</sup> was shown by the last express, the news it brought gave Credit to a Rumor I was unwilling to receive, I mean the death of thy Uncle, a man of Prudence & Ingenuous Conversation. It is a Sermon of Mortality, & so much vigor to be so soon vanish'd, shows w<sup>t</sup> fraile things we are, & how little we act the wise & the good men to persue wth stiffness a comfort th<sup>t</sup> cannot keep us Company further then the grave.

My many & urgent businesses would not give me leave to send the Inclosed sooner, I hope the delay has proved no manner of disappointment to thee of an Apology in this affaire I will say no more till we meet. A Story came the other day to my Ears that the Lord Baltimore was wth Cap<sup>t</sup> Conway at Cap<sup>t</sup> Wards, their takeing an observation, as also up the Sasquehanagh River; but I gave no Credit to it, takeing it for granted That I should have had notice of so neer an approach from the Lord baltimores order, the thing being of th<sup>t</sup> moment & in me disrespectfull had I had reason to have belived it, not to have waited vpon him, & he so neer. I hope by the end of this month, to have some prospect when I may attend thee (the Gen<sup>l</sup> Assembly sitting at this time) I am extremely desircous to yeild in all points not essentially destructive to my right, & the great & Costly merrits of my Cause, resolveing wth much care & affection to approve my selfe

My Noble Fr<sup>d</sup>

Major Sawyer being yet behind, I embrace the oportunity to recommend to the Lord Baltimore thos divers amicable proposals & expedients that I offerd to him for an happy issue of our present affaire. This is so necessary to me, & of th<sup>t</sup> mighty moment, (both wth respect to the plantation of y<sup>r</sup> side of my Country, wth a number of people ready to seat it) The injoy<sup>m</sup>t of my famely (a comfort inestimable here below) now at a great distance, & must so remaine till this dispute be ended) & finally the settlem<sup>t</sup> of my heirs in an undisturbed Right before I dye. That he will excuse my importunity for his Speedy & final resolve; haveing upon serious thoughts, determind wth myselfe, to embarque for England by the first Conveniency. If the Lord Baltimore is not pleased to receive any of the former proposals; much more If he should continue to think of any claime to any of the Lower Countys. And this I thought fitt to mention, because I would not be often troublesome to the L<sup>d</sup> Baltimore & his people wth expresses in this hot season of the year. I have no more to add, but that I hope the Lord Baltimore will please to impute the meanness of his entertainm<sup>t</sup> to the unexpectedness of the occasion, & th<sup>t</sup> he will give me leave to assure him I am wth much sincerity & affection.

WILLIAM PENN TO CHARLES, LORD BALTIMORE.

Lord Baltimore

My Noble Fr<sup>d</sup>

If vpon my arrival in this Province, I did immediately dispatch my Secretary with two other gentlemen to Salute the Lord Baltimore & assure him of my respects & frdshp's If so soon as I had pay'd my duty to my Royall Patrone the Duke, I did incontinently take a longe Journy in a cold and unpleasant season, th<sup>t</sup> I might personally give him the further Pledges, of a freindly agreement & neighbourhood. And if I did then therefore wave to press myn own Advantages, because I found it uneasy to him; And lastly, if in my after Correspondences, and especially as our last interview, I have declined the rigour of my plea & both propos'd and prest some of the mildest & most healing expedients th<sup>t</sup> if possible, we might be the last Arbitrators of our own affaires without the need of an other umpire, then the good will we ought to bear to a mutual & lasting union, The Lord Baltimore, I would think, will be so kinde as to lett me hope, he will pardon me if I stop here, & shall hold myself acquitted by the endeavours I have used, wth so much Industry & submission, for a freindly Issue. And if there were anything below what I have already offer'd besides Ruine to my Province, God is both my wittness & my Judge, I should be but too apt to encline.

My Noble Fr<sup>d</sup> I am not mov'd by the power of Ambition or Avarice; It is Conveniency yea necessity th<sup>t</sup> bids me stand. I deal freely. I have outrun all Councels, th<sup>t</sup> I might purchase peace, tho' with loss ; but wth distruction, even nature & Reason forbid. What I seek be it myn own, & so my due ; or the Lord Baltim<sup>r</sup> & as such, if he please, my Purchass, It is of th<sup>t</sup> minute Consequence to him & mighty moment to me, because to his Country the Tale or Skirt, to my Province the Mouth or Inlett, that the disproportion of the vallue & Conveniency th<sup>t</sup> it beares to either of us, will defend, at least, indulge my greater Importunity ; And yet while the advantage seems to be mine, It is most manefest it will be greatly his proffitt to comply ; since it will lay his Province between two planted Countrys, And the People transporting themselves to Pennsylvania in Ships consign'd to Maryland and thos ships yearly bringing such englesh goods as we shall want, will naturally draw our people into his Province to furnish themselves, & to make Maryland the Mark of english Trade, at least for many yeares.

What shall I say, My Noble Freind, if the powerfull charmes of interest, if the Love of good neighbourhood, if th<sup>t</sup> w<sup>ch</sup> is always to be prefer'd, wth Persons of the Lord Baltimores Loyalty, I mean Duty to the King, prevale, I must yet promess myselfe an agreement in some faire & happy expedient, & lay by (w<sup>ch</sup> shall be wth delight) the thoughts of an englesh voyage, th<sup>t</sup> else, the state of my affaires here, & of my famely there, will of necessity obledge me to & th<sup>t</sup> speedely.

I shall end wth this assurance w<sup>ch</sup> I have often Given, and shall most religiously observe, that I shall sincerely embrace all occasions by w<sup>ch</sup> I may approve my selfe

I have receivd yo<sup>rs</sup> of the 26th of the last month and am Sorry it came noe sooner to my hands for I have dispatcht some Gentlemen away to meet you at the time Appointed and therefore am no wise willing to put of this buisnesse of the ascertaining the bounds betwixt M<sup>r</sup> Pen and me There are many Reasons to be giuen by me for it but at present shall only offer you these two, first that by a letter from his Most sacred Maiesty procured and sent by the said Penn I am Commanded to joyne with M<sup>r</sup> Penn or his Agents for the speedy settling our bounds and then M<sup>r</sup> Penns owne letter which you brought me prest very much the same thing ; Secondly that M<sup>r</sup> Penn the last shipping writt and sent in a letter to severall Gentlemen of note that are Certainly within my Prouince as M<sup>r</sup> Augustin Herman Capt<sup>n</sup> Ward, Coll Wells &c hinting to them that he was confident they would come within his Gouvern<sup>t</sup> a thing not kindly taken and to be plaine not according to the Goulden rule mentioned in M<sup>r</sup> Penns Letter to me, Doc to thy neighbor as thou wouldst he should doc to thee Now certainly such proceedings were not Neighbour like and when I haue the happiness to see my friend I must be plaine wth him as to that point for as I desire noe more then my due soe I take it very vnkindly that some of the Inhabitants vp the Bay should be soe Possesst as they have been by th<sup>t</sup> Letter of M<sup>r</sup> William Penns—for these reasons S<sup>r</sup> I must begg leaue to say I will not admitt of any further delay you well knowing th<sup>t</sup> yo<sup>r</sup> Late sickness has bin the only hinderance hitherto. Let me therefore now presse you to send persons qualified and equally impowr'd wth those persons who on my part are already gon and will be in all probability with you afore this will arrive at your hands I haueing Possitively orderd them to request the same from you on the behalfe of

When the Calvert Papers were presented to the Society on the 10th December last the corresponding secretary, in concluding his account of their finding, expressed the hope that some member, visiting England, might feel sufficient interest in the subject to ascertain, if possible, the facts, first as to whether these papers are those supposed to have been contained in the two chests seen in the British Museum in 1839; and second in regard to the papers said to have been buried. It is therefore with much satisfaction that we are enabled to state that during the past summer Mr. Julian LeRoy White, a member of this Society, undertook the investigation with results which he narrates in the following letter, read at the October meeting of the Society.

November 1, 1889.

MENDES COHEN,
Corresponding Secretary.

Dear Sir,—

BALTIMORE, October 9, 1889.

According to your request I give you an account of the search for the Calvert papers alleged to have been buried.

On the 9th of July last I met Col. Harford by appointment at "Down Place." He showed me the rubbish heap on his grounds where his former butler, Keep, had as the result of his instructions buried the papers eight or ten years ago. He was uncertain as to date, exact site or quantity or quality of papers buried, but was quite willing that I should examine the ground, and was altogether very obliging, taking trouble to assist me.

After no little effort Keep, the former servant of Col. Harford, was found in London and brought to "Down Place," where I had already provided a small force of laborers.

Keep told me that he had buried the papers because they would not burn. He had first been told to burn them, he said, and I gathered from him that the best looking papers were removed from the heap before they were dumped by him loosely, and not enclosed in any box or chest, into a hole prepared by him. These selected documents I understood were included in the collection which we secured last year.

Col. Harford's mother, Keep said, was very careful of these papers, but at her death the place was for rent and the tenant objected to having this load of papers kicking about in the cellar—hence the order to burn.

Keep said that he had taken his bearings carefully at the time of the burial, thinking that the documents might be wanted; and showed me exactly where the papers should be within a foot.

Here with three men to dig we worked away until we had pretty well examined a space of more than ten feet square, going down below the lowest point that Keep could have reached, cutting through roots of trees and into quite wet ground. We found nothing but the papers.

While the work was proceeding Col. and Mrs. Harford came and looked over an adjoining fence. Mrs. H. said to me: "I wonder if he ever buried them?"

This in brief describes the search which was most carefully made, and which covered a period of several days, in fact from the 5th to the 17th July.

The conclusion would seem to be, that the papers were either entirely destroyed before our search by their long exposure in the damp earth; or they were never buried, but possibly sold as old parchment or waste paper. The latter alternative seems the more probable as it is hardly possible that if buried there should have been no vestige left of this mass of documents, many of which were of parchment.

I need not say that I regret very much that I could find nothing to bring back to the Society.

Believe me,

Yours very truly,

J. LEROY WHITE.
